Bandits Stop a Lake Shore Train

At Reece's Station, Near Wauseon, Ohio.

The Express Messenger Forced to Open the Safe,

But it is Believed That the Robbers Did Not Secure More Than $100—They Make Their Escape.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 24.—Shortly after midnight train No. 37, on the Lake Shore road, to which was attached an express car which runs between Buffalo and Chicago, was stopped at Reece's switch, midway between Archbold and Stryker, forty-four miles west of this city.

When some distance from the switch the engineer saw the switch was turned, displaying the red light, and as he turned on the air brakes several shots were fired at the cab. One of the shots put out the headlight.

When the train stopped four robbers went to the express car in charge of Messenger C. B. Nettleman, of Buffalo, and ordered him to come out. Nettleman refused and the robbers threatened to blow up the car. He then came out. When the door was opened the four men entered. They secured the contents of the local safe, amounting to $50 and then went at the big safe, which contained considerable money.

Since the Kendallville robbery the express company has supplied its cars with dynamite proof safes and this safe stood the test of four dynamite cartridges fired by the robbers. This discouraged them and they jumped from the train and disappeared.

James P. Stark, a clerk in Superintendent Johnson's office, of the Lake Shore road, was on the train at the time of the robbery. He was seen at his home this morning and gave the following account of the robbery:

"I think it must have been about 1 o'clock this morning when it happened. I was sleeping in the smoking car at the time and was awakened by hearing several shots as the train came to a standstill. The conductor said the train was being held up. I did not go outside to investigate, being satisfied from what I heard that something was going on.

"Shortly after hearing the shots I heard four explosions of dynamite and then all was still, and soon the train pulled out for Stryker, where we arrived at 1:20. I went into the express car afterwards and the messenger said he saw only four men. The interior of the car did not appear to be damaged, except that the windows had been shot full of holes. The only evidence about the through safe was a small dent in the door. The robbers did not make any attempt to get into the passenger coaches. When the robbers left the express car one of them shook hands with the messenger and apologized for putting him to so much trouble."

CHICAGO, July 24.—The passengers' story is that the train was nearing Reece siding, a lonely spot in the woods near Wauseon, Ohio, when the engineer saw the red light showing at the switch. He reversed his engine, and as the train came to a standstill a volley of shots rattled round the locomotive cab and express car.

Engineer Tiernan was ordered to stand out on the tender in full view, and when Conductor Darling appeared he was sent back inside his coach with a half-dozen bullets as pacemakers. While one man covered the engineer the other three poured a few rounds of shot into the express car as an eye opener for the messenger, and ordering him to open the door, threatened to blow the whole train into Indiana.

Messenger C. B. Nettleton fired one shot at the robbers and then slowly opened the door. Two of the men sprang into the car and pitched Nettleton in a heap out of the door and began operations on the big safe. Several attempts to blow it open were made, but the big steel doors stood fast and with an oath the dynamiters finally gave it up. They then turned their attention to the small way safe.

Meanwhile the robbers outside were keeping up an irregular fire to prevent an attack from the passengers. Finding the small safe securely locked, two of the men picked up Messenger Nettleton and dumped him back into his car, with an imperative order to unlock the safe doors. With the cold muzzle of a revolver at the back of his neck, the messenger promptly complied and the robbers quickly cleaned out the compartments. After a few uncomplimentary remarks regarding the construction of the large safe, the men backed into the woods lining the road and, with a parting volley, disappeared in the woods.

The trainmen believe that the desperadoes were old railroad men, but as all were masked with handkerchiefs, none were recognized. The large safe which resisted the attacks of the robbers contained a large amount of money. How much, the officials refuse to say, but had the safe been opened the loss would have been very large.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern express train which was robbed at Reece's siding, Ohio, shortly after midnight, arrived in Chicago today about on time, but with the express car in a badly shattered condition. Every window in the car was broken, the big safe, though unopened, showed the marks of dynamite, and the smaller way safe lay open in the center of the car, while the train crew and passengers showed plainly the effect of their midnight's scare. The express company's statement was to the effect that but $150 had been stolen. The trainmen were ordered to avoid newspaper notoriety. The messenger was taken to the United States express headquarters and closeted with the officials.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 24.—The agent of the United States Express company in this city has received a telegram, giving brief particulars of the train robbery at Reece station last night. The exact amount of money secured could not be ascertained, as it is not known how much local money the express car carried. The opinion prevails, however, that the robbers secured between $800 and $1,000 from the United State Express company. A representative of the express company said:

"The robbery was committed near the village of Kendallville, Ind., where the big express robbery occurred about two years ago, and in the opinion of the company it was perpetrated by the same gang. The express train pulled out of Cleveland at 6:50 last evening and arrived at Reece near midnight. It is a lonely region through that section of country, well adapted to the advantages desired by thieves. Had the company not been supplied with stationary safes a large sum of money would have been taken. But those through safes are so arranged that even the messenger was unable to open them, notwithstanding that he had a revolver placed at his head and was threatened with death."

CLEVELAND, July 24.—Later a telegram was received by Superintendent Mitchell, of the United States Express company, from the messenger in charge of the car attacked by the robbers, saying that only a few packages in the local safe had been secured by the bandits. All of the money collections made between Cleveland and Toledo and at Toledo were in the large safe and the only money in the small safe was that picked up at stations between Toledo and Reece's siding. It is now believed that the largest amount possible for the robbers to have secured is but little more than $100

FIVE MEN ARRESTED.

WAUSEON, Ohio, July 24.—Five men are under arrest here on suspicion of being connected with the holdup of the Lake Shore train at Reece station last night. The detectives refused to state what evidence there is against them. Two tramps who were on the train jumped off when the shooting began and ran back to Archibald and notified the Lake Shore people there, and in less than three hours a special train carrying the sheriff of the county and a posse with several Lake Shore officials and detectives arrived at the scene of the holdup. The sheriff and his men, as well as the detectives, immediately started to scour the adjacent country.

THE KESSLER GANG AGAIN.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Lake Shore detectives who were put on the case immediately after the robbery occurred believe that the work was done by the same gang of farmer brigands which held up a train at Kessler, Ind., some time ago. Several chisels, a towel in which the tools were carried and other clews were left behind when the men left the train and were secured by the detectives. The description of the leader of the bandits tallies exactly with that of the tall countryman who led the Kessler raid. His men, in both robberies, addressed him as "Jim" and in both instances displayed the same dare-devil bravado and absolute authority over his men. The railroad secret service men were confident that they would soon have the entire gang under arrest

SAFE BLOWING SCENE.

ELKHART, Ind., July 24.—Particulars of the train robbery, received here, say there were two hundred passengers aboard the train. The robbers drove back all who attempted to get out, while four of the robbers went to the express car. During the attempted safe blowing the robbers seemed afraid of a rescue. For the last explosion a terrific charge was used. The steel chest did not yield, but the car was raised from the track, the sides bulged out and the three inch plank floor spattered. There were nine in the party. They were joocse with the train crew, saying all were disappointed at the failure, but would call again before the snow flies. While the explosions were taking place the fireman slipped away, but had gone only a few rods when the robbers gave up. He was called back and proceeded with the train. The obstruction on the track was found to consist of ties. Reece is an abandoned side track in a hollow with dense woods on each side. Years ago an organized gang of horse thieves operated in the vicinity and was broke up only by vigilantes, who hung some of the leaders. Many of the same band are said to still reside there. It is unofficially stated here that the through safe contained $75 000 in gold.

Married, July 17, at Olympia, Wash., Miss Carrie D Green to Mr. James Renrick Pattison, of Spokane, Wash. They will reside in Olympia. Miss Green formerly lived in this city and has relatives and many friends here. Mr. Pattison was a son in law of Mr. John Ferguson.

WAR IN EARNEST

Between the Indians and the Whites in the West.

The Secretary of the Interior Requests the War Department to Send Troops to Wyoming.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 24.—The Indian war has broken out in earnest. Union Pacific Engineer Robert Fitzpatrick, who pulled the north bound freight into Pocatello last night, confirmed the report that the Bannock Indians killed a settler, his wife and child in the Salt river valley, and that the white men who are pursuing the Indians killed six of them before they escaped to the mountains. Mail Carrier Vail, who arrived at Montpelier from Star valley, also told the same story.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The secretary of the interior has requested the secretary of war to send troops to the scene of the Indian disturbance in Wyoming, and it is understood that the request will be granted as soon as the official papers are issued by the secretary of war, and the troops will be ordered instantly to the vicinity of the trouble. The action of the interior department was taken upon the receipt of the following dispatch from Indian Agent Teter, who was ordered to go from the Fort Hall reservation, in Idaho, and investigate the trouble between the whites and Indians in Wyoming and to induce the Indians to return to their reservations:

FORT HALL, Idaho, July 28.—Browning, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington:—I have investigated the troubles between the Indians and settlers in Wyoming, and advise that troops be sent there immediately to protect the law abiding citizens.

"The lawless element among the settlers seemed determined to cause a conflict with the Indians. The settlers have killed four to seven Indians, which has greatly incensed the Indians, who have gathered to the number of 200 or 300 near Fall river, Unitah county, and refuse to return to their reservation.

"I find that the Indians have killed game unlawfully, according to the laws of Wyoming, though not unlawfully according to the treaty of the Indians with the United States, thus usurping the prerogatives of the settlers, which caused the trouble. Nothing but the intervention of soldiers will settle the difficulty and save the lives of innocent persons and the destruction of property.

[Signed] "TETER, Agent."

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 24.—Governor Richards has received the following dispatches from Adjutant General Stitser, who is investigating the Indian troubles. The governor will at once take action to put state troops in the field, should advices make it necessary:

MARYSVILLE, Wyo., July 24.
Governor Richards, Cheyenne, Wyo.:

The Indians are in force at the junction of Granite creek and Fall river. All passes into Jackson Hole are now guarded by Indians. Captain Smith has just come in wounded in the right breast by Indians. Prospectors are driven from the mountains. Pickets are guarding the various passes. Horses are equipped ready to mount and everybody armed to the teeth.

[Signed.[STITSER.

TETON BASIS, Wyo., July 23.
Gov. Richards, Cheyenne, Wyo.:

Arrived here today on the return trip. The settlers in the Basin are very uneasy. It is reported here that many Indians are leaving for the Hall to join those in the mountains. Indians from other reservations are also reported to be joining them. Letters and couriers have been sent out from Jackson's Hole to the various settlements asking for aid, and settlers have decided to go into the mountains to fight the Indians tomorrow. The settlers have given up all hope of saving their crops and are preparing to move their children and women out of Jackson Hole. (Signed)

STITZER.

The various companies of the national guards at different points in Wyoming have been advised to hold themselves in readiness for prompt movement.

GEN. COPPINGER ORDERED OUT.

Secretary Lamont, during the after noon, ordered General Coppinger to the scene of the disturbances and to make such disposition under his command as may be necessary to protect the settlers and secure the return of the Indians to their reservation.

YOUNG THIEF CAUGHT.

L. R. Stafford Stole $1,000 From an Arkansas County Collector.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 24.—L. R. Stafford, aged sixteen years, was taken from Springfield to New Lewisville, Ark., a little town on the Cotton Belt railroad, on the charge of stealing nearly $1,000 from C. C. Von Rose, county collector there. He admitted his guilt and gave up the remainder of his plunder, $124. Mr. Von Rose said that as county collector he is compelled to have large sums of money either in his house or in his office. Stafford was a friend of his children, and through them learned of the money in the house. Early last week he got his hands on it and disappeared. Young Stafford is a son of J. W. Stafford, well known in Missouri and Arkansas.

BIG STREET RAILROAD DEAL.

Philadelphia Companies, Representing $40,000,000 to Consolidate.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 23.—A great street railroad consolidation scheme, representing more than $40,000,000, has been under consideration for some time past and is now practically complete. The companies interested are the Philadelphia, the Peoples and the Electric Traction companies, and the Hestonville, Mantua and Fairmount street railroad companies. The matter has been referred to counsel, who will draw up contracts and agreements for the biggest street railway combination ever perfected in this country. It is expected that millions of dollars will be saved by the new deal. High priced management will be dispensed with, competition prevented, and litigation and the lobbyists' fees abolished, while the cost of operating the roads will be materially reduced. Peter A. B. Widener, of the Philadelphia Traction company, will probably be the head of the new company.

COLLINS SENTENCED.

Gets Twenty Years for Killing Fred Ohl.

Received the News With Stolidity and Apparently Glad That He is Let Down so Easy.

TRENTON, N. J., July 24.—John S. Collins, the negro who shot and killed Student Frederick Ohl at Princeton last June, and who was a few days ago convicted of murder in the second degree, today received a sentence of twenty years at hard labor in the state prison. Before the sentence he was required to plead to the indictment for atrocious assault upon Garrett Cochran, another student, whom he shot at the same time, and his counsel entered a plea of non vult contendre. Upon this plea Collins was sentenced to ten years more, but Justice Gummer announced that he and his associates had decided to allow the sentences to run concurrent, thus making the term only twenty years altogether. No plea for leniency was made by Collins' counsel. The negro received his sentence stolidly, and was unmoved even when Justice Gummer said that a verdict of murder in the first degree would have been proper.

JAMES W. FRENCH.

He Will be Warden of the Government Prison.

Attorney General Harmon Makes the Appointment and Incidentally Praises the Appointee's Efficiency.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Attorney General Harmon has returned from a brief visit to his home in Cincinnati, and this morning announced that he had decided to appoint as warden of the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., Mr. James W. French, of Indiana. Mr. French was for five years warden of the Michigan City, Ind., penitentiary, but was recently legislated out of office. He is said to be efficient and progressive and is well known as a prison reformer. Mr. French will soon be called to Washington, when the appointment of other officials and employes will be discussed. Mr. Harmon has had an extensive correspondence with the best known prison officials throughout the country with a view to get suggestions as to prison reform, and it is his purpose to make the first United States penitentiary, if possible, the molder of all the penitentiary institutions in the country.

NEW DRIVER PUT UP.

The Corporal Wins the Stake at Detroit.

DETROIT, July 24.—Sensational racing and the unexpected termination of the stake race were the features of yesterday's card at the Detroit Driving club. It was the day on which the $8,000 merchants' and manufacturers' purse for 2:24 trotters was to be decided.

The 2:10 pace furnished three heat winners and the finish occurs today. Ben D., fresh from a field of victory at Tiffin, stepped a mile in 2:06¾, beating Guinette a neck, and in the next one Coleridge came through the stretch and played the same trick on Ben D. Angie D. shot to the front right at the start of the third heat and won it all the way. She was selling at 100 to 1, and Welch was hit for $3,000 on the heat. The summaries:

Three-year-old Trotting; Purse, $2,500—Larable, first; Oakland Baron, second; Boreal, third. Time—2:16¼, 2:14, 2:16¾, 2:17½ 2:17. Killona Scourine, Miss Kate, Fred Kohl and Hampton finished as named. Derby Princess distanced.

2:24 class trotting, merchants' and manufacturers' stake; purse $8,000—The Corporal, first; Don L., second; Iron Bar, third. Time—2:15, 2:13¾, 2:13¾, 2:13½, 2:14½, 2:15¾. Franklin, Rosetta Soap, Tempter and Clara G. finished as named. El Rami drawn. Spinaway, Red Nutting and Aldonzo distanced.

2:10 class, pacing; purse $2,000 (unfinished(—Ben D., first; Coleridge, second; Angie D, third. Time—2:06¾, 2:06¾ 2:07. Paul, Guinette, Moonstone, Dudley, Badge, Starplex and H. J. Rockwell finished as named. Direction, Joe He and Atlantic King distanced.

Bandit Surrounded.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24 — John Brady, one of the bandits who held up a Southern Pacific train in Tehama county and murdered Sheriff Bogard, a few weeks ago, is said to have been surrounded by a posse near Sacramento. It is expected that he will be captured today, but as the robber is heavily armed, a desperate conflict is likely to take place.

RIVER RISING.

The Licking Goes Up Nine Feet.

Heavy Rains and Waterspouts Deluge the Upper Kentucky Regions and Cause a Flood.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—Licking river, which empties into the Ohio, opposite this city, rose nine feet from midnight to 6 a. m. and is still rising. This rise threatens great damage to coal and lumber interests that are caught unawares. River men have telegraphed up the Licking, and find there was a rainfall of one and one-half inches at some points in Kentucky last night with several water spouts reported. Telegraphic communication has been so interrupted that no details of damage are available, but it is thought the storm extended to the mountains in Virginia.

FOUL WORK OF A FIEND.

Little Child Murdered and the Body Concealed in a Stable.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 23.—The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gebhard, of West Indianapolis, disappeared very suddenly and mysteriously last Saturday. The parents and friends made an active and systematic search, and last evening came to the conclusion that the child had been kidnaped.

Today Mr. Gebhard found the straw hat worn by his child, all crumpled and torn and lying not far from his home, and this led him to believe that the little one had been murdered and thrown into the river. During the day a strange odor was observable about the stable, in rear of a double tenement not far from the Gebhard home, and when it was investigated the badly decomposed remains were found crammed in a box. All of the clothing had been torn away, and the body showed the most abuse. The alarm spread and a mob gathered beside itself with rage because of no object upon which to spend its force.

In some way suspicion fell upon John R Linson, a worthless character, who went away this morning, presumably for Brightwood. The police superintendent left for that point at once. Meanwhile the bloodhounds at Seymour were telegraphed for, and the dogs will arrive early tomorrow. The suburb is crazy with excitement, and, although there is no evidence against Linson, upon which he could be convicted, he would be lynched instanter were he returned there for trial. If captured he will be kept on this side of the river.

REPORTED FOR SELLING LIQUOR.

Druggists and Saloonkeepers Are to be Prosecuted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24.—The local unions of the State Liquor League held a meeting yesterday and made reports in the cases found against druggists and saloonkeepers for selling intoxicants contrary to law, and the list of names was afterward handed to the police superintendent to be given to the grand jury. The saloonkeepers say that they are determined to enforce the law, and an incident of the meeting, which led to Secretary Victor's resignation yesterday, proves that they are in earnest. Among the names presented for violations was that of Victor himself, and it was charged in the meeting that he persistently violated the law. Sam Dinnin, one of the members of the league, said that he sent four men to Victor's on Sunday to buy liquor and all of them got it.

It also developed that one of the members saw Victor make several sales last Sunday. Victor demanded that he be not reported, but finding that no exception would be made in his favor he resigned and left the meeting. The unions have at last succeeded in getting the brewers to agree to not deliver beer on Sunday.

SMITH AND RYAN MATCHED.

They Will Probably Meet in Dallas, November 1.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A match for the welter weight championship between "Mysterious" Billy Smith and Tommy Ryan was arranged at the Gilsey house last night. James Wescott looked after Smith's interest, and "Parson" Davies was present on behalf of Ryan. Joe Vendig, representing the Florida Athletic club, offered a $5,000 purse for the fight. The men will probably meet in Dallas, Texas, Nov. 1, although another club offered the same amount of money for the fight. George H. Walker, a well known theatrical manager of Galveston, was present, and said that the Corbett Fitzsimmons fight could not be pulled off in Dalias. Galveston would be the place chosen. Work on the amphitheater in Dallas will begin in a few days. Reports from there say that over $35,000 worth of tickets have been sold.

Washington Fire.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—At 5 o'clock this morning fire started in and destroyed the building occupied by the Young Men's Christian association, on New York avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, also damaging buildings adjoining. Fire now under control. The other buildings damaged were the grocery store of C. C. Bryan and the hardware store of J. B. Lambie. Both concerns carried large and valuable stocks. The loss is heavy.

Spanish Troops Arrive.

MADRID, July 24.—Official advices received here from Havana announce that a gun boat has arrived at Santiago de Cuba from Manzanillo, bringing information that two columns of Spanish troops, one under General Navarro and the other under Colonel Aldave, commanded jointly by General Lachambre and comprising 4,000 infantry, 300 cavalry and three guns, arrived on Sunday last at Nuevitas, the port of Puerto Principe; the dispatch adds that the town of Bayamo, in the province of Santiago de Cuba, where Captain General de Camposo is assembling troops, has been provided with fresh stores of ammunition and provisions.

MINERS WILL STRIKE.

The Scenes of a Year Ago to be Repeated.

The United Mine Workers of America Demand an Advance of Wages or a Walkout.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24.—Secretary Patrick McBride, of the United Mine Workers of America, returned today from Pittsburg, and says that if the demand there for an advance of wages August 1 is not conceded, a strike will be the result. His mail today contained a half dozen letters from as many different places, requesting a national suspension to be ordered. The Indiana miners are now out. He says: "If the Pittsburg operators grant the advance August 1, a similar advance will be granted in Ohio and Indiana. If the advance is not conceded and a strike is ordered in Pennsylvania, there can be no question but that it will extend to Ohio, and for my own part I see nothing but the calling of the different state officials together and the ordering of a general stoppage of work."

TWO BAD NEGROES.

One Will be Legally Executed at Columbus,

And the Other Will be Swung Up to a Tree if a Mob Can Get Hold of Him.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24.—Governor McKinley having refused to interfere, Wm. Taylor, aged twenty-one, a Pocahontas coal region negro, is to be executed here at midnight for killing Farmer Yoakum, of this county, to rob him.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., July 24.—Ed., alias Bud Knight, who tried to outrage Nora Hall in Adairville last night, has been captured and is in jail here. Knight laid in waiting for his victim in the outskirts of the town and attempted to carry here to a secluded spot, but her screams brought help and the villain ran. Both are colored. The negros are greatly worked up and will lynch the prisoner tonight if they can lay hands on him.

FIVE CENTS HIGHER.

Wheat Prices Take an Unexpected Bound.

Shorts Frightened Into a Wild Scramble for Cover—Other Farm Products Firm.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Wheat went up with a wild rush today, closing almost 5 cents higher than yesterday, at 72½c. The principal cause for the sensational advance was the very light movement of winter wheat, which, with higher foreign markets, scared the shorts into a wild scramble for cover. The market started with unusual vim, opening about 1 cent higher, at 68¾c. For a time trade was light, but the speculators were nervous, and every trade of any magnitude showed an immediate effect upon prices. The receipts of new wheat were very light the total receipts with last year's comparison being as follows: Chicago, receipts, 37,000, last year, 324 000; St. Louis receipts, today, 69,000, last year, 191,000; Toledo receipts, today, 41,000, last year 237,000; Detroit receipts today 5,000, last year 56,000. Total receipts today 152,000, last year 808,000. Out of the twenty-one cars received in Chicago only eighteen were new wheat and some of these contract. In addition to light receipts there was reports of crop damage and the unexpected advance abroad to aid in the rout of bears. Pardridge, who was said to be heavily short, was a liberal buyer and other big shorts also were in the run. The price had several tumbles during the day, on taking of profits, but near the finish there was a frantic rush for cover by scared shorts and the price shot skywards, closing with September at 72½c as compared with 67½ last night.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Close.—Wheat, July, 71½c; Aug., 71½c; Sept., 72½c; Dec., 74⅝c.

Corn, July, 44¾c; Sept., 44¾c asked; Oct., 43c; Dec, 35¾c; May, 35¾c@36c asked.

Oats, July, 24½c; Sept., 23½c; May, 26⅝c.

Pork, July, $10.75; Sept., $10.85 asked; Jan., $10.82.

Lard, July, $6.25; Sept., $6 32@35; Oct., $6 40; Jan., $6 80 bid.

Ribs, July, $6 10; Sept., $6.17; Oct., $6.15@17; Jan., $5.67 bid.

Cash wheat, 71½c; corn, 44⅝c; oats 24½c; pork, $10.75; lard, $6.25; ribs, $6 10.

He Built 7,000 Miles of Railroad During Life.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 24.—Robert Bruce Langdon, the well known railroad contractor and a prominent figure in the history of Minneapolis and in the politics of Minnesota, died today of hemorrhage of the bladder, aged sixty-eight. Langdon was a Vermonter and a self made man. He has built 7 000 miles of railroad. At the time of his death he was engaged in carrying out a $2,000,000 irrigation canal contract near Phoenix, Ariz. He was related by marriage to General R. A. Alger, of Detroit.

FAMILY POISONED.

Frank Brown, Wife and Son Made Very Sick.

Tim Moran, a Small Boy, Falls From a Crabapple Tree—Bicycle Accident Last Evening.

Frank Brown, porter at the city Y. M. C. A. building, together with his wife and little son, were made very ill Monday by eating pork which was unwholesome. The family lives at No. 281 East Washington street, and Sunday Mrs. Brown cooked a piece of pork with some turnips. They all ate heartily of the meat. Monday the little boy was taken critically ill and later in the day Mr. Brown was taken sick while at work and was compelled to go home. His wife ran to the nearest drug store and while getting some medicine for the rest of the family was also taken critically ill and had to be taken home in a carrisge. A physician was hastily summoned and found all three in an alarming condition. Yesterday Mr. Brown was some better and today was able to come down town, but his wife and boy are still very sick.

CONCUSSION OF THE BRAIN.

This morning as a twelve-year-old lad named Tim Moran, residing at No. 113 West Williams street, was picking crab apples at the residence of Pat Murphy, also of Williams street, he fell a distance of fifteen feet, alighting on his head and suffering a severe concussion of the brain. The lad was carried home and Dr. Enslen called to attend him. The boy was much better at noon and will likely be able to be out in a day or so.

A BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

A bicycle accident happened on the corner of Madison and Lafayette streets last evening in which a rider who refused to give his name ran into a delivery wagon owned by the Fair department store. The vehicle was struck squarely in the middle, and the force of the collision was so great that it was turned completely over, and the occupants, the driver and a young lady companion, thrown to the pavement. The wheelman was also thrown down and his machine almost totally demolished. Passers by who witnessed the accident hastened to the assistance of the unfortunates, and they were extricated from beneath the wreckage. The bicyclist was run over by the wagon wheels but did not seem to be dangerously hurt. Neither of the occupants of the vehicle were hurt.

HURT HIS FOOT.

Isaac Manheimer, a well known traveling salesman, is suffering from the effects of an accident which occurred some days ago. A trunk dropped upon his foot and serious complications have resulted. He has been confined to his bed ever since the accident.

VERY STRANGE ACTIONS

Feeble Minded Boy Arrested at the Wabash Yards.

Imagined He Was Switching Cars—Thought to Have Escaped From a California Institution.

This morning as Dr. Tinkham was driving along Fairfield avenue his attention was called to a young man who was creating a great deal of excitement by his strange actions in the Wabash yards. The individual was well dressed but from his actions it was very evident that he was mentally deranged. The young fellow ran up and down the tracks signalling trains, attempting to throw switches and at the same time making a noise with his mouth which sounded very much like an engine exhausting steam. The yard men took after the stranger and after a hard chase finally captured him. He said his name was Eagel and that his home was in Los Angeles, Cal. He was placed in Dr. Tinkham's rig and taken to the jail. When searched it was found that his clothing was marked Wm Rogers and that he had evidently been an inmate of a state asylum near Los Angeles. Rogers claimed that he was discharged and sent east but the officers think he has escaped. The institution in California will be notified. The lad was put to work about the jail doing chores.

WAS CAUGHT HERE.

Yesterday afternoon the sheriff's deputies arrested Walter Pricket, a young man whose home is in Columbia City and whose parents are highly respected. The arrest was made upon an indictment from the Whitley county grand jury charging the young man with being implicated, with three other boys, in an assault upon a half witted girl named Schulte last April. All the boys recently disappeared from their homes. Three days ago it was reported that Pricket was in Fort Wayne and the sheriff of Whitley county notified Sheriff Clausmeier to be on the lookout for him. Yesterday it was learned that he was at the Muncie junction, and accordingly Deputy Sheriff Harrod, Pennsylvania Detectice Stoll and Deputy Sheriff Clapham, of Whitley county, proceeded to the place and found their man. He was placed under arrest and lodged in jail here until evening, when he was taken to Columbia City for trial.

BURLINGTON HAS NO TRAINS.

New Jersey City Over 200 Years Old Without Local Accommodations.

BURLINGTON, N. J., July 24.—Burlington is more than 200 years old, and Monday, for the first time in its long history, express trains refused to stop at the old station in the heart of the city. Instead, they stop at East Burlington, nearly half a mile distant, and those who want to take a fast train for New York or Philadelphia must walk there to board it. This is because the residents of East Broad street refused to allow the Pennsylvania Railroad company to lay another railroad track in front of their homes. The company made efforts to secure the right of way, but the Broad street property owners fought and the second track is not likely to be laid. The company threatened to remove the station to East Burlington, and did so.

FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Against Justice Chas. A. Hays, Constables John Wise and Fred W. Roembke, in the Superior Court.

A. H. Bittinger, acting as attorney for Jerome C. Caswell, has brought suit in the superior court against Charles A. Hays, John Wise and Frederick W. Roembke for damages in the sum of $2 500 for unlawful arrest and false imprisonment.

The plaintiff charges that on the 16th day of July he was arrested by said Wise, on a warrant sworn out by said Roembke before said Hays as a justice of the peace, and unlawfully deprived of his liberty for a space of two hours.

He said that after his arrest, upon the advice of said officers, the affidavit was changed from adultery to prostitution and that he was influenced to plead guilty to said latter charge and gave the defendants security for his fine and costs. For this arrest and imprisonment he asks the damages for which he sues.

SURRENDERED.

W. F. Barrett Confesses to the Murder of the Lamont and Williams Girls.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., July 24.—W. F. Barrett surrendered himself to the sheriff today as the murderer of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. He tells a straight story.

MORE EVIDENCE.

A Skull Unearthed in the Cellar of Holmes.

George Reed Kills His Wife Because She Remained Out All Night.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The police assistants at work on the H. H. Holmes building under the drug store in the basement today uncovered a number of pieces of what they think are parts of a human skeleton. One piece they say held two teeth. They think they have parts of a number of ribs.

HOLMES' CASTLE WILL BE DESTROYED.

The famous "Castle" built by H. H. Holmes at Sixty-third and Wallace streets has been marked for destruction by the building department. Inspector Laughlin has sent a letter to Building Commissioner Downey, calling attention to the many defects in the structure and pronouncing it a menace to life and limb. During the exploration of the secret rooms and concealed stairways the flimsy and inflammable nature of the building was discovered.

PITZEL WAS MURDERED.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—Detective Geyer had not arrived here up to noon, but is expected today or tomorrow, as he had written police officials that he would come as soon as he had concluded his investigations in Detroit. Both Geyer and the local detectives believe that Howard Pitzel was murdered by Holmes in the Circle house here, and his body shipped away in a trunk. Their coming investigation will be to find out here where the trunk was sent. A thorough search for the young Pitzel boy will be made here, also, although there is no hope of being successful.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 24.—George Reed, a painter, shot and killed his wife today as the result of jealous rage. The murderer was arrested. He said his wife stayed out all night and on her return home this morning he asked her where she had been. An evasive answer was given and a quarrel resulted when he taxed her with being untrue to him.

MERITED REWARD.

SALES OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkhams Vegetable Compound and never in the history of Mrs. Pinkhams wonderful Compound has the demand for it been so great as it is today. From Maine to California, from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, come the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it; and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it WILL and does positively cure those painful

Ailments of Women.

It will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life.

Every time it will cure

Backache.

It has cured more cases of leucorrhœa by removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development; and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

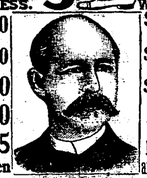

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills work in unison with the Compound, and are a sure cure for constipation and sick-headache. Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash is frequently found of great value for local application. Correspondence is freely solicited by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., and the strictest confidence assured. All druggists sell the Pinkham's remedies. The Vegetable Compound in three forms, — Liquid, Pills, and Lozenges.

This year's trotting horse hasn't made that two-minute gait yet.

It is safe to say that no more cedar block pavements will be laid in Fort Wayne. Look at patched-up Calhoun street.

The train robbers are getting in their work again. It is about time for two or three more of these fellows to be killed.

The courts of Allen county can grind out divorces pretty nearly as fast as our ministers can perform marriage ceremonies.

People have forgotten all about Pennington's flying machine since the lady bicyclists have adopted the bloomer costume.

When the summer has gone the board of public works will begin to talk about the erection of those drinking fountains.

Our funny pictures will make you laugh. Look at the one in today's issue at the top of our railroad column on the third page.

Wedding trips are now being taken on bicycles. This is well, as the honeymoon is the exclusive season when a happy young couple can live on air.

The Ohio republicans will open the political campaign in that state on August 10 at Springfield, the home of General Bushnell their candidate for governor.

Many of our Fort Wayne people are taking summer lake trips. There is no more delightful or more healthful way of spending a vacation than in a trip on the lakes.

While the board of health are discussing measures looking to the prevention of the spread of diphtheria, they ought to see to it that the sewers of the city are flushed.

The other counties in this congressional district are hereby notified that the next democratic candidate for congress from the Twelfth district will have his residence in Fort Wayne.

Ohio is getting crazy hot over the elections held in that state this fall. Indiana is as cool as a cucumber, at least as far as politics are concerned. Every other year is enough for us Hoosiers.

We notice that some of our exchanges still speak of the Kentucky election as due to occur in August. Under the old constitution they would have been right, but the new constitution fixes election day on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

An Ohio man, who is being sued for breach of promise, makes the defense that he proposed and was accepted on Sunday, and that according to the laws of that state contracts made on Sunday are not legally binding.

J. F. H. Tatman has sold a one-third interest in the Connersville Times and News to William F. Downs and Mrs. Della C. Hull. Mr. Downs will look after the editorial management of both papers and B. L. Tatman, city editor for three years, will retire to take a long contemplated course in college.

If the people of this country do not soon become familiar with the pros and cons on the silver question it will not be the fault of the champions of gold and silver. Horr and Harvey get a whack at newspaper readers every day and this is supplemented about every other day with a speech or an interview on the financial issues from some one of the "big guns" of the nation.

Readers of The Sentinel who fail to look over our railroad columns each day miss half the local news. They always contain interesting reading matter about people whom almost everybody knows. The inside of The Sentinel is just as newsy as the outside, and that is the feature that has sent its circulation up to the point it is. Our aim is to cover the news of the whole city and in this we have been successful.

Mayor Cromer, of Muncie, is setting his foot down on pernicious papers that come into that city for circulation by fining the agent of one of these filthy sheets $25 and costs. He held that papers whose chief motive is to chronicle crime and lewd acts come within the prohibitory statutes of Indiana. Mayor Oakley ought to wake up on this subject and be as vigorous in enforcing the law against this evil as he is in enforcing the law in other directions. That he has not done so leaves him subject to the severest censure.

The Chicago Times-Herald favors a short presidential campaign next year and says the national nominating conventions ought not to be held earlier than the second week in September. As a preliminary to these, the state and district conventions for the appointment of delegates should be called about the first of September. The Sentinel is with the Times-Herald on this subject. There is not a bit of use in having the country turned upside down for six months simply because of a presidential election. This was an idea inaugurated by our forefathers when stage coaches were the fastest means of travel and the telegraph was unknown. The people of today are ready to nominate candidates in September and vote for them in November.

It is to be regretted that the officials of any church should be so foolish as to place under ban in this country the Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Sons of Temperance and forbid their members from joining these charitable and benevolent societies, and in doing so they are certainly following bad advice and acting upon information given them concerning these orders which is altogether untrue. The three orders named above do not antagonize religion, nor do the principles which they teach and practice conflict with any denomination of the church which recognizes a supreme being and the brotherhood of man. Their purpose is to make better citizens, to extend the helping hand in time of distress and misfortune and as such they ought to have the indorsement and hearty co-operation of every religious denomination. The churches that oppose these societies are simply working against the best interests of mankind and showing their ignorance of the principles upon which these fraternal organizations are founded.

The general fall in prices of all kinds of commodities in this country between 1873 and 1894 was 43 per cent. It is interesting to note that wheat fell 62 per cent, nearly 20 per cent more than the general average, showing how the sudden opening up of the great wheatfields of the northwest for a time glutted the world's markets and drove prices down. Meat foods, on the other hand, fell off during the periods named only 27 per cent, indicating, if meat producers had had the intuition to discern it, that the population was increasing faster than the beef, mutton and pork supply. The fact that for a year or two beef cattle were very low in price does not alter the general conclusion. The demand for animal food of all kinds, both meat and dairy products, is still crowding the supply very close. Next to animal products the articles that fell off least in the general decline were tea, coffee and sugar, 39 per cent. Textile fabrics declined nearly half, while metals and minerals in general, owing to the unprecedented discoveries of rich silver and other mines in the west, declined 56 per cent, nearly as much as wheat.

The decision of Archbishop Kain of the St. Louis diocese in reference to Roman Catholic G. A. R. members will settle in time a question that has been an issue between the church and the veterans for a number of years. In some places priests forbade the burial with G. A. R. rites and ceremonies of comrades who were members of their flock. They would not permit the comrades of the deceased to appear in church at his funeral wearing the uniforms and insignia of the order; neither would they officiate at funerals where the G. A. R. burial service was read. By the decision of Archbishop Kain hereafter in his diocese the G. A. R. veterans may enter Catholic churches wearing their uniforms and may read their burial service over the body of a deceased comrade in Roman Catholic cemeteries.

The failing sight of Gladstone was the greatest calamity that could have overtaken the Liberal party and Ireland. The passing of the Liberals was undoubtedly owing to the unseemly quarreling of the Irish factions, but that would not have brought matters to such a pass had there been one man in the Liberal party with brains enough to hold it together.

STATE NEWS.

Three long gravel roads are to be constructed from Elwood to other points, aggregating ten miles in length. The contracts for their construction, have been let, L. A. Haines, getting one, and Newton Burke, of Anderson, the others. The cost of building them will be $7,000.

Richmond has a branch of the Good Citizens' league which, though but two weeks old, has become very active. There is a large membership, and the league has determined that it will give aid to the police officers in the enforcement of the Nicholson liquor law. The members do not intend to make war upon the saloonists themselves but will see to it that the officers of the city shall prosecute all violators, and they will insist that this be done without delay.

Postoffice Inspector Lawrence Leatherman, while at his home at Valparaiso, was awakened at night by the presence of a burglar in his room, who held a cocked revolver to his head and coolly orkered him to be quiet. Leatherman observed the caution while the burglar slowly backed from the room and made his escape. Leatherman then sprung to his valise for his revolver, only to find that the burglar had possessed himself of the weapon, $106 50 cash and other valuables.

Elder Covert, of Anderson, who is warring on spiritualism and is making a special fight because of the spiritualistic camp meeting at Chesterfield, has ordered a tent capable of seating 3,000 people, which he will pitch close by the camp grounds. He will also go to Benton Harbor and Bangor, Mich., to pay his respects to Medium King, who is particularly well known in that section. Yesterday he posted notices reflecting very severely on Medium Foster, of Columbus, Ohio, whom he warned against venturing inside the state.

The Catholics of Richmond are taking great interest in the movement looking to calling a national conference of representative Catholics who are members of the endowment or insurance societies of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias, Sons of Temperance and other secret societies, which have been placed under the ban by the church at Rome, the idea being to prepare a statement to be laid before the pontiff, showing the great injustice that will be done to a large army of faithful Catholics if the proscription is enforced as rigorously as the action of many prelates in America would signify. It is estimated that there are fully 3,000,000 Catholics in the United States who carry endowments in these various societies, the majority of whom are no longer young, and who could not at this late day secure reinsurance in standard companies. The proposed conference will be held in September.

MONROEVILLE NEWS.

Local Affairs in That Town—Township Trustees in That Section.

Monroeville, Ind., July 22.

The summer normal at the Knouse college, west of town, closed today.

Farmers have completed the lightest harvest ever experienced here. With the exception of wheat the harvest was an exceptional light one.

J. W. Smith, the reliable Monroeville merchant, has charge of conveying the "darkies" to and from the camp grounds.

A picnic and festival will be given at Robinson's grove Thursday, Aug. 15.

A colored camp meeting is in progress at Robinson's grove, east of this place, but it is not meeting with much success financially. It is not conducted in a proper manner and its character is not such as to commend it to any community.

The Nicholson liquor law is meeting with favor among our liquor men and they report business as brisk as before the law was enforced, although they act in obedience to the law. Much of the carousing is dispensed with and a stricter cash business can be maintained.

George B. Lawrence, of Lafayette township, the actuary for the Allen County Farmers' Mutual Insurance company, was in town Wednesday and adjusted satisfactorily the damage caused by lightning a few days ago to the residence on the Cole farm, west of town.

The street improvements here will be completed in a few days, so says Assistant Engineer Rollins. It will add much to the appearance of our little city, although it will go deep into the pockets of the property owners along the said improvements. The sidewalks along these improved streets have by an ordinance been ordered constructed anew, of either brick, block stone or cement. Jacob Baltes and J. H. Jones, contractors of Fort Wayne, already have a number of walks contracted for.

The outgoing township trustees are busy preparing their final report which will be submitted to the county commissioners August 1. We are confident that the township affairs in the southeastern part of the county were never better managed. Trustee O'Rourke, of Jefferson township, was elected for the short term and the limited experience given him, makes him the coming man in '98. Credit is due Trustee McConnel, of Jackson, for the business like method introduced in the affairs of the township. Mr. McConnel served the people of Jackson as trustee with diguity and honor for seven years and four months. The affairs of Monroe township were faithfully cared for by Trustee C. Hoffman. His interest in the schools and public highways were always for the best, and the poor under his charge did not suffer. A better public officer Madison never had than Trustee Franke. His ever watchful eye, his diligence, his integrity made him friends among both democrats and republicans and he will retire on August 5th with the esteem of all.

CHILD MURDERED.

Little Ida Gebhard Found in a Tool Chest.

The Poor Little One Horribly Cut and Mutilated Before Life Had Left the Body.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 24.—The mystery surrounding the murder of Little Ida Gebhard, whose mutilated body was found in a tool chest last night, is still unsolved. Early this morning, John F. Linson, formerly a railroad engineer, who, according to his own story, has been a wanderer all over the world, was arrested for the crime, but an almost complete alibi has been established for him. He was recently released from the Elgin, Ills., insane hospital, and is a morphine fiend. The post mortem today developed the fact that the child had been horribly cut with sharp knife after the manner of the London ripper. She was thus mutilated before the assault.

A BIG THIEF.

Frederick T. Smith Robbed His Employers.

Put the Firm's Jewelry and Diamonds in "Soak" in the Sum of $25,000.

Denver, Col., July 24.—Evidence has been secured which indicates that Frederick T. Smith, the missing manager of the John W. Knox Jewelry company, and son in law of John W. Knox, fled to Mexico, intending to sail thence to Japan. Benedict and Phelps, attorneys for Knox, say that Smith ran the company into debt $40,000 to $50 000 They also say that he raised $25,000 before his departure by putting up the company's diamonds as collateral.

HEAVY RAINS.

Causing Floods in Nebraska and Colorado.

Chadron, Neb., July 24.—A hard rain last evening near Hot Springs, S. D., raised Fall river several feet, washing three bridges and considerable of the grade of the Elkhorn railroad, on the Hot Springs branch.

Lajunta, Colo., July 24—The heavy rains have flooded the country east of Nephesta to Lakin, Kas., swelling the Arkansas river four inches higher than ever known here. The county wagon bridge here, nearly 2,000 feet in length, has gone out and the families in the low lands have moved to higher ground. Thousands of dollars worth of flumes and bridges will be lost. The Santa Fe railroad bridge is damaged so that trains cannot cross.

BLOOMERS IN CHICAGO.

How the Unique Club Disciplined Two Members Who Appeared In Skirts.

The Unique Cycling club of Chicago is all that its name implies. One of its laws is that on all runs bloomers and knickerbockers shall be worn, and two members who disobeyed this rule recently met with a punishment that they will not forget soon. Union park was the rendezvous for the last run, and 50 members turned out. The president, Mrs. Langdon, and the captain, Miss Bunker, observed two women wearing short skirts over their bloomers.

"Take the skirts off," ordered Captain Bunker.

"Indeed we won't," was the reply.

A crowd of 200 had collected to see the start. The president and the captain held a consultation, and then, taking several strong armed members with them, fell on the skirt wearers and stripped them down to their bloomers.

"It was done in all seriousness," said Mrs. Langdon. "The club rules are made to be kept and not to be broken. Why did we take off the skirts in public? For no other reason but to make examples of the offenders. They publicly defied our rules and were punished accordingly."—American Wheelman.

DON'TS FOR WOMEN RIDERS.

ALL KINDS OF MONEY.

UNITED STATES TREASURY EXHIBIT AT THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

Curious Old Bonds and Notes—England's Check For Damages Done by the Alabama—Rare Old Colonial Notes—An Interesting Array.

Register J. Fount Tillman of the United States treasury will send from his bureau to the Atlanta exposition one of the most interesting and attractive exhibits to be furnished for that occasion by the United States government. The exhibit—then rather incomplete in some of its details—attracted widespread attention at the Columbian exposition in Chicago.

Since then many new features have been added until now it forms the most complete collection of all issues of money of this government in existence. It is not only valuable to those interested in the financial history of this country, but it serves as well to illustrate the great and rapid advance made in the art of engraving. The first attempts to engrave notes were crude and rough, while the later efforts are the beautiful works of art with which every one is familiar.

The exhibit contains specimens of treasury issues of every form, made on account of the various loans, since the foundation of the government, grouped and arranged in chronological order. Added to this is a full and well preserved collection of colonial money, which is valuable as well as interesting. The government was compelled to purchase this collection by piecemeal from various persons who were holding the money as souvenirs, and a good price was paid for the necessary pieces to complete the collection. One of the features of the exhibit is the continental money. All the issues of the 13 original states are represented, embracing all dates, denominations and conditions of payment. The exhibit includes continental money, colonial money, specimens of the issues of the late Confederate States, both currency and bonds; United States bonds, United States currency, national bank notes, bills of broken wildcat banks in active operation before the civil war, and the check which England made out in favor of this country for depredations committed by the steamer Alabama on the commerce of the United States.

The earliest issue of bonds, then known as "loan office certificates," as shown in the exhibit, was made in 1776 on account of the first loan this government negotiated with France. Then follow in order of date specimens of bonds issued to replenish the treasury from time to time during the progress of the Revolutionary and civil wars down to the present time, the last loan being that of 1895, redeemable in 1925. As shown by the specimens, the earliest coupon bonds were issued in 1842. It was then that this government adopted the two forms of bonds, now so popular, the coupon and registered. The specimens of the bonds, notes, fractional currency and other evidences of debt under all acts of congress issued on account of the heavy loans entailed by the civil war form a fine and historic collection of the reminders of those stirring times.

The "loan office certificates" are probably as interesting as any other feature of this collection. Many have the interest figured out on the edge of the note, showing that the holders had puzzled their heads to find out what Uncle Sam owed them. On one of the colonial notes, issued in 1774, are inscribed the words, "To counterfeit is death." Some severe penalty was necessary, for any ordinary schoolboy with a quill pen could have reproduced the note exactly, so crude and rough was its execution. Among the bonds are found a great number of District of Columbia notes of indebtedness, issued for all sorts of purposes. The bonds of the large 4 per cent loan of the late war times have a place in the exhibit, and they take up quite a good deal of space. They are both coupon and registered bonds, the highest denomination of the former being $1,000, and that of the latter being $50,000. The $50,000 registered bond is the largest ever issued by this government. No coupon bond is issued with a higher denomination than $1,000. The last loan, that of 1895-1925, is a 4 per cent one, and the bonds are beautiful works of art. They are made in the shape of a United States flag, with the coupons taking the place of the stripes, and one of these bonds takes up the entire space on a single leaf of the exhibit.

The check which England paid to this country on account of the Alabama claims is a gold certificate and is made out for the sum of $15,500,000. On the back is indorsed by many names, the most prominent of which are those of Edward Thornton, then the English minister to this country; Hamilton Fish, secretary of state, and William A. Richardson, secretary of the treasury.

The collection is mounted on two separate columns, each 7 feet high. Thirty-two frames are swung on hinges to these columns, and in these frames the notes are mounted. They are well arranged and are lettered and grouped in an artistic manner.—Washington Star.

Bismarck on Women.

Here is what Prince Bismarck said to a deputation of Silesian ladies on May 13:

"I always regret that so little influence in politics is allowed to the better half of the human race. I do not expect ladies to deliver speeches in parliament, but I believe that the results of our elections would be more national and more satisfactory if they were more under female influence than now. Honest German women, wives and mothers, do not appear in public as socialists, and I therefore believe that female sympathy with our political institutions is a much stronger bulwark against social democracy than our revolution bill would have been if it had been passed."—Review of Reviews.

NO BLOOMERS FOR LILLIAN.

A Simple Suit and a Skirt Are the Prima Donna's Choice For Cycling.

Having smashed masculine hearts, hypnotized managers, charmed obdurate critics and swayed vast audiences, sumptuous Lillian Russell has subjugated the some time refractory wheel. To the velvet voiced prima donna the saddle of a bicycle is but a newer throne, taking the place of that property dais from which she has so often calmly surveyed her triumph over doubting first nighters. And Miss Russell on a wheel is as potent a drawing card as she has been upon the operatic stage.

She took her third lesson recently, and, mark you, wheeling sisters, she does not "wabble." Miss Russell's little girl, Lillian, Jr., better known as Daughty, took her first lesson at the same time, and enthusiasts declared that the child's first attempt was something really wonderful. At any rate, both mother and daughter were well pleased with their progress. Miss Russell said in one breath that she considered cycling the most exhilarating of experiences, and that she could never adopt bloomers. Her intention is to get a quiet, simple suit with a skirt. While she thinks that many women look well in double barreled petticoats, Miss Russell will none of them on her own ample figure, and her sisters agree with her in this opinion.

"Who would have thought it?" said a chic looking enthusiast, while adjusting her own well fitting bloomers. "I was nearly knocked flat when I heard her veto bloomers. Why, I had felt sure that she would adopt knickerbockers of the most ultra cut."—New York Sun.

MILLIONS OF BIBLES.

The Work of the American Bible Society For the Past Year.

The seventy-ninth annual report of the American Bible society, which covers the work of that organization in printing and circulating the Scriptures during the past year, has just been published. The society has distributed more volumes in China during the year than in any preceding year since it began its operations there. In Japan, too, the Bible committee has been able to accomplish a great deal of work among the soldiers of the Japanese army. More than 1,500,000 Bibles, Testaments and integral portions of the Bible were printed by the society within the year, and over 1,000,000 of them were printed on the presses in the Bible House, New York, and more than 500,000 were printed in foreign lands. Through purchases of additional volumes the total number printed and procured by the society amounted to 1,958,674 copies. Of these 947,103 volumes were issued from the Bible House and 634,025 in foreign lands. Of the volumes issued from the Bible house 101,196 copies were sent to foreign lands and are not counted among the issues in foreign countries.

Of the issues of 947,103 volumes from the Bible House 845,907 have been for the home supply. On account of the falling off of the receipts the society was compelled to restrict its colportage work to a considerable extent. Only 27 colporteurs have been employed for the whole or a part of the year in 12 states and two territories. The colporteurs visited 71,073 families and found 12,634 without the Scriptures. The number of families visited by the American Bible society and its auxiliaries was 516,798, of which 119,244 were found to be without the Scriptures. Destitute families were supplied to the number of 34,299, and individuals in addition to the number of 19,982.

SUSAN'S LAST DITCH.

How the Woman Suffragists Have Taken the Bull by the Horns.

Susan B. Anthony has assumed a position that is truly advanced. At a large gathering of equal suffrage women in Topeka, she drafted and had passed a resolution setting forth that, as the men of Kansas had refused to permit women to vote, it was the duty of every self respecting woman in the state to fold her hands and refuse to help any moral, religious or charitable reform until the adjective "male" is stricken from the constitution.

This resolution, which received a unanimous vote, will do more, if carried out conscientiously, than anything woman has yet done to liberate her sex from the irksome duties that appertain to a moral, religious or charitable life. Susan, to put it plainly, has taken the suffrage bull by the horns. When a woman puts her foot down and says distinctly that if she cannot have her own way, then she will not bother about such things as moral, religious or charitable obligations, you may know, as the old saying is, that she doesn't care whether school keeps or not.

Viewed calmly, this is a straight cut to complete emancipation. The spectacle of 100,000 resolute Kansas women with their hands folded, stubbornly refusing to do unto others as they would be done by and dismissing all interest in their immortal souls to "get square" with man, is one to make the saints squirm and the devil chuckle.

Susan B. Anthony is a tireless fighter, and she appears to have taken to the last ditch.—New York World.

New Sort of Poker.

A new variation of poker has sprung up. It deals out the entire pack in equal numbers to all players. If five are playing, for example, each will get ten cards at the start. If seven are playing, each get seven, the three cards left over being put aside. Then, instead of drawing, each player discards as he likes from his hand so that he shall have five cards to play with, making the best hand possible out of those dealt him. Hands are apt to run high in this sort of game. It is called Peculiar.

A poker in which six cards were dealt, discards and draws being so regulated that only five cards constituted the final hand, has been known for some time, but this is a further development of that idea. It is said to have originated along the shores of Long Island.—New York Sun.

The Proper Care of Tire Valves.

No small percentage of the trouble that cyclists experience with their tires is caused by the valves and the lack of judgment that the riders display in the use of them. A valve should never be screwed up with a wrench, pair of pliers or not even as tight as it can be screwed with the fingers. Such procedure will in a brief time ruin the rubber washer, and then all the tightening in the world will not prevent its leaking.—Chicago Tribune.

CURES DYSPEPSIA.

A New Preparation, Pleasant, Harmless, Simple, Prepared Solely for Weak Digestion.

A new remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion, very highly recommended by Dr. Harland and Dr. Jennison and other prominent physicians is a combination in tablet form of vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin and Golden Seal. One of these tablets should be dissolved in the mouth after each meal and according to Dr. Jennison the effect seems to be that the food is perfectly and promptly digested, before it has time to sour and ferment, which causes all the mischief.

So popular have these tablets become with people who have any form of indigestion that they are now sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are not a secret patent medicine, but as related above contain vegetable and fruit essences, pepsin and Golden Seal in a form absolutely safe and pleasant to take.

A few of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be carried in the pocket and taken after meals and whenever there is any pain or discomfort in the stomach. They cure sour stomach, heartburn, bloating, gas, palpitation and all symptoms arising from disordered digestion. All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 Cents for full sized package, or sent prepaid by mail from Stuart's Co., Marshall, Mich.

BROU'S INJECTION. A PERMANENT CURE of the most obstinate cases guaranteed in from 3 to 6 days; no other treatment required, and without the nauseating results of dosing with Cubebs, Copaiba or Sandal Wood. J. Ferré & Co., (successors to Brou), Pharmacien, Paris. At all druggists.

The Laboring Man Speaks.

Monon, Ind., May 10, 1894.

Lyon Medicine Co., Indianapolis, Ind.:

Gents—I think it my duty to send this statement to you of the benefit I have received from LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. I have been afflicted for twenty years with stomach trouble of the severest nature. Would have seasons of the severest suffering from one to two months at a time. Between these times of suffering was never longer than three months. There was never any time that I was entirely free from misery more or less. These spells of great suffering would sometimes come on with sickness and vomiting, and other times would come on in form of rheumatism, but would finally center itself in my stomach. I have doctored with a great many physicians, but none of them could tell me what the trouble was. I was unable to get relief until I got LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. It is now sixty days since I began taking this medicine, and am now for the first time in twenty years free from pain and misery. I am compelled to say it is a blessing to a poor man.

BOOMING TIMES.

The Pittsburg Shops Come Out From Their Lethargy,

And the Men Now Have All the Work They Can Do—Affairs on the Rail and in the Office.

Affairs in the Pittsburg shop begin to assume the proportions of a boom. The force of workmen is larger and the work days longer than they have been since the early part of 1893. This state of affairs is due to improvement in the business on the road and the demand for rolling stock. Seven class R engines are to be built here this year, and so far only one of them has been completed. The others will be turned out as fast as possible, and to hasten matters the men engaged in building frames for them have been instructed to work thirteen hours per day until the work is done. In the car shop the car builders are also busy. The force has been doubled in certain departments and twenty cars will be turned out each week, instead of ten, as had been the rule for some months. At present the carpenters are working upon an order for 200 gondola cars.

BRIEF MENTION.

Nickel Plate Fireman Dixon is enjoying a brief vacation.

Boilermaker M. J. Groves, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

Blacksmith Anthony Girard, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

Mrs. T. Z. Babcock, wife of the engineer at the electric works, is quite ill.

Ed Shaw, of the electric works, is in St. Louis, looking after the interests of the company.

The Lake Shore people are in the market for thirty new engines of the ten-wheel type.

Nickel Plate Conductor D. B. Benbow, who had a hand burned some days ago, is at work again.

Nickel Plate Engineer Lee Larrimore went out on his run yesterday, after a ten days' vacation.

The Pittsburg shops turned out engines 1 and 156 this morning and took in for repairs engines 904 and 120.

Gus Tassler, who had a finger mashed a few days ago resumed work in the Pittsburg tank shop this morning.

Conductor John Trease and Brakeman J. W. Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, are taking a few days' vacation.

George E. Campbell, transfer clerk at the Lake Shore warehouses, is with the Zollinger battery at the encampment.

Conductors Holly, Mollman and R. A. Myers, of the Nickel Plate, resumed their train duties yesterday, after a few days' lay off.

William Godarke, section foreman on the Pittsburg road at Washington, Ohio, had a leg broken yesterday by a rail falling upon it.

A. G. Guion, general manager of the Monon at Lafayette, who has been very ill for some weeks, is improving, and on Sunday rode out for a short distance.

The removal of George H. Judy from the city created a vacancy in the board of directors of the Fort Wayne Building, Loan and Savings association, and at the meeting last night Jasper Metzner, a conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, was elected to the board.

Contractor Herman Tapp is building the abutments for a bridge for the Pennsylvania company at Washington, Ohio.

H. L. Magee, general superintendent of the Wabash lines, is spending a couple of weeks with his wife at Excelsior Springs.

I. P. Kickley, Pennsylvania passenger conductor, has taken a vacation and will visit Washington, D. C., and other eastern cities.

Frederick H. Boester, the contractor, is preparing to build an addition to the house of Mrs. Nora B. Hughes, at 284 West Wayne street.

Wabash Plaindealer: "Herbert Law, of Fort Wayne, is in the city putting up the electric fixtures in the residences of E. E. Kennedy and W. P. Jones."

E. G. Cotner, a painter in the Pittsburg shops, left for Logansport last evening, upon the receipt of a telegram stating that his sister died at noon yesterday.

A dispatch from St. Paul says President Hill, of the Great Northern, has gone to New York to resume negotiations for acquiring control of the Northern Pacific.

President Jeffrey, of the Denver and Rio Grande, and Vice President Thompson, of the Pennsylvania, have returned from their European trip and are at their posts of duty again.

The Sunday excursion business on Indianapolis lines has grown to immense proportions. Last Sunday it required 174 coaches to handle the incoming and outgoing excursionists.

Lawrence Carbaugh recently was promoted to a fireman on the Wabash road and is today moving his family to Andrews. For some time Lawrence had been employed in the Wabash shops.

The Lake Erie and Western is running its shops full time and full handed, and its entire equipment is being put in the best condition. A number of its engines have recently been thoroughly rebuilt.

Brakeman J. W. Bowdine, of the Nickel Plate, is confined to his room with a sprained ankle. Monday night he jumped off his train at Glasgow avenue switch, stepped upon a round stone and turned his ankle with the above result.

Charles Damon, night engineer at the Bass works, is still unable to work on account of the serious condition of one of his daughters, who was prostrated by inhaling the fumes of burning drugs applied by burglars a few nights ago. The other members of the family have recovered from the poison.

Reliable and official information is that upon investigation the reports of forest fires in northern Michigan are found to be greatly exaggerated and misleading. There is little, if any, more fire than is usual at this season of the year and tourists need apprehend no danger or inconvenience on that account.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "The class P engine recently sent west by the Pennsylvania to run on the Vandalia on Sunday made the run from Clayton to the union station, Indianapolis, in twenty-one minutes; distance, twenty miles. The nineteen miles from Clayton to the Belt road was run in a little less than seventeen minutes. The train consisted of eight cars, including two sleepers."

The Wabash is rebuilding engine No. 470 from the ground up. The tank is already complete.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Braungard—a son. The father is a turner at the Fort Wayne furniture works.

Mrs. W. H. Moore, wife of the Wabash engineer, will go to Toledo tomorrow to spend a few days with friends.

Conductor Jehiel Fox, of the Pittsburg road, has gone to California for a sojourn of several weeks on the Pacific coast.

During the absence of John Murphy, who is sick, John Feiderspeil is running the drill press at the electric works.

Machinist Alex Muirhead, of the Wabash shops, and his family will be the guest of friends at Churubusco over Sunday.

Conductor George Fosler, who has charge of the Wabash's New Haven run, has returned from Toledo, where he was the guest of relatives for about one month.

Last Sunday the Pennsylvania company ran an excursion from Indianapolis to Louisville, making the rate for the round trip $1 50. There were 1,874 tickets sold.

Matt Klaren, who has worked some months in the Wabash shops and yards, has been promoted to fireman and given a run on the eastern division of the main line.

Miss Rose Weber, of the transformer department of the electric works, has gone to Rome City to remain several weeks, in the hopes that a sojourn there will restore her health.

The lawn social which was to have been given on the 23d by the ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. at the home of Mrs. A. K. Makepease, has been postponed until Thursday, the 25th.

Townley, a station on the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western road, fifteen miles east of this city, is to be abolished and a new town named Tillman is to be established twelve miles east of Fort Wayne.

C. L. Daseler, Fred and Henry Mennewisch, of the Pittsburg shops, are members of an orchestra which will accompany the Catholic Benevolent Legion's excursion party to Bawbees lake tomorrow.

The Trunk Line association has voted to abolish all outstanding contracts. Shippers will have no redress, as such contracts, unless reported to the interstate commerce commission, are in violation of the law.

The Orpheus Singing society and a number of their friends are enjoying an outing at Rome City today. There were seventy-five in the party which went down to the resort this morning and others went this afternoon.

William Sherbondy, the electrician at the Pittsburg shops, and Miss Augusta Stephan, the accomplished daughter of Julius C. Stephan, clerk in the Pittsburg freight house, were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, 32 Wall street. After a reception and banquet the bride and groom left over the Grand Rapids road for Macinac Island, where they will remain about two weeks. Upon their return here they will go to housekeeping.

General Foreman W. S. Cooper, of the Wabash shops, is entertaining Mr. W. M. King, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr King is a locomotive engineer and is employed on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road.

The Pennsylvania company has issued a new time table book, which beats its predecessors in neatness of work and general make up. A large colored map is found in the center of the book, showing the parent road and all its branches and connecting lines

E. C. Penningroth has resigned his position in the Wabash shops to engage in the grocery business on South Hanna street. He worked ten years in the shops, commencing as an apprentice in the machine department, and is highly esteemed by the shopmen, who wish him success in his new enterprise.

Miss Emilie A. Tyler, telegrapher at the Wabash office, is enjoying her annual vacation. She went to West Lebanon, Ind., this morning, where her parents reside, expecting to be absent about a month. Miss Fredericka H. Schotemeyer, who is the night operator, has taken Miss Tyler's place at the instrument.

R. F. Smith, superintendent of the voluntary relief department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, has prepared a statement showing the per cent of employes in the different branches of the service that are members of the relief department, as follows: Officers, agents and clerks, 53 per cent; telegraph operators, 52; conductors, 89; brakemen, 79; enginemen, 85; firemen, 65; yardmen, 67; shopmen, 65; trackmen, 30.

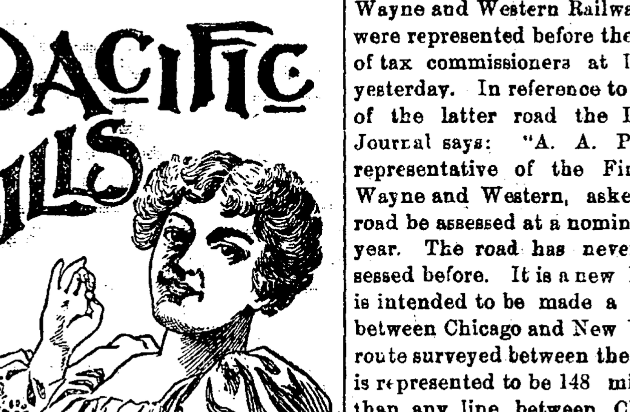

Thomas H. Hibbins, who has charge of the depot stoves along the line of the Pittsburg road, Crestline to Chicago, has fixed his car up and will in a few days, start out on his annual tour, which usually consumes eight or ten weeks. He will be accompanied this year by A. Beyrau. The car is one of the ordinary baggage cars, equipped with berths, stoves, ice box and all the culinary implements and while out on the road Messrs. Hibbins and Beyrau will live in it.

The controversy existing between the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western railroad and Francis Parnin, of Jackson township, concerning right-of-way, has been amicably settled and taken out of court. One year ago the railroad company selected three men, who appraised the damage for right-of-way at $300, while at the same time Mr Parnin selected sixteen men, who appraised the damage at $854. The company, a few days ago, settled by paying Mr. Parnin $800.

The Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway company and the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western Railway company were represented before the state board of tax commissioners at Indianapolis yesterday. In reference to the report of the latter road the Indianapolis Journal says: "A. A. Purman, the representative of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western, asked that his road be assessed at a nominal sum this year. The road has never been assessed before. It is a new line, which is intended to be made a trunk line between Chicago and New York. The route surveyed between the two cities is represented to be 148 miles shorter than any line between Chicago and New York now in operation. Seven teen miles of the road in Indiana has been completed and is in operation."

The first Niagara Falls excursion of 1895 will be run over the Nickel Plate road, August 19. Ask agents for time and rates. 15tf

OUR SOLDIER BOYS.

How They Pass Their Time at the Encampment.

Last night's Indianapolis Sun contains the following concerning the encampment in that city:

"Life in the white duck town of Fairview was more endurable Tuesday than at any time since the encampment opened. For two days the soldiers sweltered in their winter weight uniforms, but Tuesday morning it was cool and cloudy. Since Sunday morning the troops have had plenty of work to do, from 5:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., and they have, since the change in the weather' carried on camp duties with more vim. There were a number of prostrations from the heat Monday, and the Second regiment hospital had fifty calls for aid.

"An order has been issued by General McKee that soldiers shall not leave the camp unless for sickness or on pressing business. It has caused some of the troops to complain, as the Indianapolis girls who invaded the camp Sunday, made a number of prisoners and dates. There was, consequently, a heavy demand for permits to go to town Monday night, but the officers were obdurate.

"Company B, Third regiment, of Fort Wayne, composes the population of "Chinatown." The mess tents are named Old Homestead, Gentle Five, Blue Bull, Five Old Soaks, Peggydo Little, Hard Pan, Unknown and Sleepy Two.

"'We's de toughest blokes in de camp—see?' said one of the privates. 'We's got a reputation to keep up and we's goin' to do it.'

"From 4 p. m. to 'taps' is the most pleasant part of the day in camp. Just before sundown the regimental parades occur, when 2,000 men appear on the drill ground in uniform. At 6 o'clock the coal black coffee is served. By 7 o'clock the bands are ready to give their concerts. The Fort Wayne and Marion bands played Monday night, while hundreds of young soldiers lay on the ground about them. When 'taps' is sounded the camp becomes very quiet. The soldiers are sung to sleep by the tree toads and all of the troops, the 'shirkers' excepted, are glad for an opportunity to crawl into their mess tents to rest on their racks of straw.

"Adjt. Gen. Robbins, the hero of four wars—the rebellion, Cannelton, Roby and Hammond—says this encampment is an unusual one in its attendance. By changes in the law the membership of each company has been increased to a limit of eighty six men. Some of the companies have the full number and many run to seventy or seventy-five.

"Everybody at the state house was out of humor with the state militia Monday morning. About 500 soldiers slept on the floors of the capital Saturday night, because of the rain. The building was a sight when the janitors started to work with mops. It seemed that every soldier chewed tobacco and did not strike a cospidor all the time they were in the capitol. Mud had been tracked in and it will take the half dozen janitors two or three days to cleanse the first and second floors. Twenty-four half pint and eighteen pint bottles were found in nooks and corners."

Last evening the directors of the city Y. M. C. A. postponed action in the matter of the resignation of Secretary McCaughey. That gentleman was before the board and stated that the reasons of his tendering his resignation were of entirely a personal nature. Considerable discussion followed but the matter was put off for a full attendance of the board.

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Miss Loretta Martin, in which games and music wore the features of the afternoon and evening. The guests were Ellen C. Gallegher, Kaddie M. McCaffery, Nellie B. Dalton, Mary Mulharen, Lizzie Taylor, Nora Rhanen, Mary Burnes, Mary Ryan, Nellie Woulf, Cecelia Bear, Katie Gallegher, Agnes Coolican, Julia Hogan, Florence Hughes, Emma Hughes, Mary Detrick, Anna Hayes, Master James Creigh.

A few weeks ago Miss Lily Vordermark, daughter of Henry Vordermark, of Maumee avenue, went to Toledo to visit relatives. Yesterday word was received in this city that she had been married in Toledo to S. D. Zeis, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne, but now in the collection business in Toledo. The marriage was kept a profound secret, but leaked out last evening when the young lady did not return home to attend a party to be given in her honor. This morning her father and brother said they new nothing of the affair, and would not believe the marriage to have taken place.

A well known Fort Wayne physician unconsciously made himself the center of a great deal of attention yesterday and came near being arrested in the bargain. The physician was called to Butler street by an obstetrical case, which required his attention nearly the entire day. He left his horse hitched to the post in front of the residence. After the animal had stood there three or four hours, some of the women in the neighborhood began to be concerned and notified the police that a horse "looking as though it had been driven all night had been standing hitched for several hours." The police forthwith notified the humane officer and he in turn hunted up the doctor. What the physician's feelings were when the officer of the law knocked at the door can best be imagined, at any rate he laughed at the ridiculousness of the thing later on. He informed the officer that the good ladies were unnecessarily concerned and that he usually treated his horse humanely, but the necessity of the present case left him no other alternative but to let the horse stand.

Mrs. B. P. Smith, of Douglas avenue, is quite ill.

Miss Grace Lukens is visiting friends in southern Ohio.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Bunker, of Holton avenue, a daughter.

The diphtheria card has been taken down from No. 41 Pontiac street.

The Union Sunday school of South Lafayette street will give a social at the school house tomorrow evening.

J. C. Koegle, the Broadway jeweler, has returned from Cincinnati, where he went a few days ago to purchase some goods.

The Rathbone Sisters will give an ice cream social tomorrow evening at the home of C. Gearys, No. 132 West Main street.

The Misses Mamie and Louise Tower, who are visiting relatives and friends in Springfield, Ill., will return home Saturday.

Messrs. Rastetter & Son have taken out a permit to erect a two story brick structure, 50x170 feet, in Swinney's addition, costing $10,000.

Miss Cora Ludington, who attended school in Chicago during the past year, returned here last night and will keep house for her father, James A. Ludington.

Miss Mary Didierjoh, who has been ill at Columbia City, was brought home yesterday afternoon and is now lying very low at her home on Maumee avenue.

John Lohmann, of the Centlivre Brewing company, and his sister, Emma, left this morning for Wabash to attend the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Brackenhammer.

The Church of Christ Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at the High banks tomorrow all day. The children of the primary department will be given a treat of ice cream.

The Epworth league of the Trinity M. E. church will give an ice cream social tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knight, corner of Sixth and Harrison streets.

Peter, the nine month-old son of Richard Brady, died this morning at the parents' home, on West Wayne street. Funeral Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral.

Degree of Honor No. 2 will give an ice cream social at the home of Mrs. A. J. Ford, 76 East Williams street, Friday evening, July 26. All members and friends are cordially requested to attend.

The following new entries for the coming bicycle races were received this morning by Secretary Steger: L. D Cabanne, St. Louis; F. J. Tities, New York; E. Kiser, Dayton, Ohio; L. A. Callahan, Buffalo; L. C. and E. C. Johnson; W. F. Sims, Washington; Roy McDonald, New York, and E. C. Ball, Buffalo.

There were three cases on trial at police court this morning, all drunks, John Barry, George Long and William Johnson. Barry was arrested on Gay street for abusing his family, by Officer Richardson. He was fined $2 and costs. The other two prisoners were arrested yesterday by Officer Hines. They were fined $1 and costs each.

His Little Joke.

A dapper young man with two big square satchels of the variety usually carried by commercial salesmen stopped on a city hall corner to get a drink of cherry phosphate.

He placed the satchels at his feet, pulled a penny from his pocket and dropped it in the slot of the machine. Then as he raised the glass to his lips a man darted quickly up behind him, seized one of the satchels and ran around the corner with it.

When the dapper young man had finished his drink, he discovered his loss.

"Police! Police!" he yelled.

Then he rushed around the corner and saw a man hurrying away with the satchel. Immediately he ran after him, calling:

"Stop thief! Stop thief!"

In two minutes half the pedestrians on the walk were chasing the man with the satchel, and it wasn't long before he was caught, gasping and breathless.

When the dapper young man, who had lost his hat in the chase, arrived, he threw up both hands in amazement.

"Why, Jones!" he exclaimed.

The man who had run with the satchel looked down sheepishly. A policeman had just seized him roughly by the collar.

"Yes, Sam," he said, laughing feebly, "I've got your satchel. Thought I'd play a little practical joke on you. Wanted to frighten you."

The dapper young man explained to the policeman that Jones was his employer, Jones of Binks & Smith, wholesale jewelers, but both the men were compelled to get out their cards and papers to prove the case before the policeman would let them go.

And when they were free they went back to the place near the phosphate machine, where the dapper young man had left the other satchel.

It was gone.

There was $300 worth of jewelry in it.

Mr. Jones will not soon play another practical joke.—Chicago Record.

Mrs. O'Leary wanted to be forgotten, but the world, or Chicago—and Chicagoans consider the terms synonymous—would not have it that way. It is thus that some poor, shrinking souls have celebrity thrust upon them. Peace to Mrs. O'Leary's ashes.—New York Sun.

THE STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Improvements Making With Money Appropriated By Legislature.

The state benevolent, reformatory and penal institutions will soon have completed the improvements authorized by the last legislature. In speaking of these improvements the Indianapolis News says:

"Two wings are being added to the northern hospital for the insane, at Logansport. One of these is for men, the other for women. There will be accommodations for forty-two persons in each. The foundation walls for the additions are building. The cost will be $10,000 each.

"The improvements at the eastern hospital for the insane, at Richmond, consist of a big general kitchen, two large dining rooms and a large store room for supplies, and employes' quarters. The legislature appropriated $50,000 for buildings and the necessary increase in the heating plant. The scheme for increasing the capacity of this institution is to abandon most of the dining rooms in the cottages, and have the patients eat in the large dining rooms. The rooms in the cottages that have been used for dining rooms and kitchens will be converted into living rooms. It is believed that the capacity of the institution will be increased about 100. The worst class of patients will continue to take their meals in the cottages.

The Southern Hospital for the Insane received an appropriation of $30,000 for improvements, but plans for the addition have not yet been adopted.

"The Home for the Feeble Minded got $30 000 for the purchase of land and for improvements. The trustees have bought a farm of 225 acres, which makes 310 acres now owned by the institution. The land cost about $2C,000 The trustees are building a large addition to the hospital. The old hospital was built when the capacity of the home was only 350. There are now over 500 children in the home, and the hospital is much too small. About $10,000 will be invested in the hospital building and equipment.

"At the state prison south seventy-two cells are being constructed for the accommodation of those prisoners that do not have a decent place to sleep. The prison officers say that this addition is very small as compared with what is needed. There are over 800 prisoners and not near enough cells for them.

"The state prison north got $5,000 for improvements. This money is being used in putting on some new roof and in other repairs.

"The reform school for boys, by authority from the legislature, has purchased another farm of 195 acres, making a total of 420 acres now owned by the institution.

"The reform school for girls and woman's prison got from the legislature $5,000, with which to put in new boilers, and the money is being expended for the purpose designated. The new boilers are much larger than the old ones. The trustees of the institution are also having a large veranda built along the front of the building.

"The other state institutions did not succeed in getting from the legislature any money for betterments."

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED.

Social of Lady Maccabees at the Home of Mrs. J. W. Hippenhammer.

The Fort Wayne hive, No. 6, of the Ladies of Maccabees gave a social and entertainment last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hippenhammer, 17 Breckinridge street, which was attended by nearly one hundred ladies and gentlemen. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served from 8:30 to 11 o'clock and an interesting musical and literary program was rendered. It consisted of a violin and piano duet rendered by the Misses Ethel and Etta Hill, recitations by Miss Josie Ropp, Miss Blanche Hippenhammer and Miss Sadie Chambers, and an instrumental and vocal selection by Evylin and Blanche Hippenhammer. The social was a most pleasant one indeed and proved Mrs. Hippenhammer to be a most charming entertainer These socials are given every few weeks by the Fort Wayne hive, which is increasing rapidly in membership, so Miss Ferguson, one of the officers, tells THE SENTINEL, since they have been granted a special dispensation from the supreme hive to receive new members without the initiation fee.

JOY FROM LOSS.

Sam Fishman Parts With an Old Companion.

The Shaker Doctor, now at the Rich hotel, this morning removed from S. Fishman a monster parasite which the reporter saw in the doctor's rooms. The monster is in a tangle which shows that it made herculean efforts to resist the medicine.

The following statement explains itself:

"It is with great pleasure that I make this statement. I have been a great sufferer for the past nine years from stomach troubles, which have interferred with my earning a living for my family. I have been doctored many times by different doctors, who all said I could not be cured. I heard the Shaker Doctor talk last Saturday night I called on him Sunday, and to my great surprise, he told me that I had a tape worm, which I could not believe at the time. I called on him this morning and he gave me one dose of his Shaker Herbs, and to my great surprise and joy, it removed a monster worm, head and all, in less than three hours, without sickness, pain or inconvenience of any kind, and I will say, God bless the Shaker Doctor and the medicine he sells.

HELD UP!

Bandits Stop a Lake Shore Train

At Reece's Station, Near Wauseon, Ohio.

The Express Messenger Forced to Open the Safe,

But It Is Believed That the Robbers Did Not Secure More Than $100—They Make Their Escape.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 24.—Shortly after midnight train No. 37, on the Lake Shore road, to which was attached an express car which runs between Buffalo and Chicago, was stopped at Reece's switch, midway between Archbold and Stryker, forty-four miles west of this city.

When some distance from the switch the engineer saw the switch was turned, displaying the red light, and as he turned on the air brakes several shots were fired at the cab. One of the shots put out the headlight.

When the train stopped four robbers went to the express car in charge of Messenger C. B. Nettleman, of Buffalo, and ordered him to come out Nettleman refused and the robbers threatened to blow up the car. He then came out. When the door was opened the four men entered. They secured the contents of the local safe, amounting to $50 and then went at the big safe, which contained considerable money.

Since the Kendallville robbery the express company has supplied its cars with dynamite proof safes and this safe stood the test of four dynamite cartridges fired by the robbers. This discouraged them and they jumped from the train and disappeared.

James P. Stark, a clerk in Superintendent Johnson's office, of the Lake Shore road, was on the train at the time of the robbery. He was seen at his home this morning and gave the following account of the robbery:

"I think it must have been about 1 o'clock this morning when it happened. I was sleeping in the smoking car at the time and was awakened by hearing several shots as the train came to a standstill. The conductor said the train was being held up. I did not go outside to investigate, being satisfied from what I heard that something was going on.

"Shortly after hearing the shots I heard four explosions of dynamite and then all was still, and soon the train pulled out for Stryker, where we arrived at 1:20. I went into the express car afterwards and the messenger said he saw only four men. The interior of the car did not appear to be damaged, except that the windows had been shot full of holes. The only evidence about the through safe was a small dent in the door. The robbers did not make any attempt to get into the passenger coaches. When the robbers left the express car one of them shook hands with the messenger and apologized for putting him to so much trouble."

CHICAGO, July 24.—The passengers' story is that the train was nearing Reece siding, a lonely spot in the woods near Wauseon, Ohio, when the engineer saw the red light showing at the switch. He reversed his engine, and as the train came to a standstill a volley of shots rattled round the locomotive cab and express car.

Engineer Tiernan was ordered to stand out on the tender in full view, and when Conductor Darling appeared he was sent back inside his coach with a half-dozen bullets as pacemakers. While one man covered the engineer the other three poured a few rounds of shot into the express car as an eye opener for the messenger, and ordering him to open the door, threatened to blow the whole train into Indiana.

Messenger C. B. Nettleton fired one shot at the robbers and then slowly opened the door. Two of the men sprang into the car and pitched Nettleton in a heap out of the door and began operations on the big safe. Several attempts to blow it open were made, but the big steel doors stood fast and with an oath the dynamiters finally gave it up. They then turned their attention to the small way safe.

Meanwhile the robbers outside were keeping up an irregular fire to prevent an attack from the passengers. Finding the small safe securely locked, two of the men picked up Messenger Nettleton and dumped him back into his car, with an imperative order to unlock the safe doors. With the cold muzzle of a revolver at the back of his neck, the messenger promptly complied and the robbers quickly cleaned out the compartments. After a few uncomplimentary remarks regarding the construction of the large safe, the men backed into the woods lining the road and, with a parting volley, disappeared in the woods.

The trainmen believe that the desperadoes were old railroad men, but as all were masked with handkerchiefs, none were recognized. The large safe which resisted the attacks of the robbers contained a large amount of money. How much, the officials refuse to say, but had the safe been opened the loss would have been very large.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern express train which was robbed at Reece's siding, Ohio, shortly after midnight, arrived in Chicago today about on time, but with the express car in a badly shattered condition. Every window in the car was broken, the big safe, though unopened, showed the marks of dynamite, and the smaller way safe lay open in the center of the car, while the train crew and passengers showed plainly the effect of their midnight's scare. The express company's statement was to the effect that but $150 had been stolen. The trainmen were ordered to avoid newspaper notoriety. The messenger was taken to the United States express headquarters and closeted with the officials.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 24.—The agent of the United States Express company in this city has received a telegram, giving brief particulars of the train robbery at Reece station last night The exact amount of money secured could not be ascertained, as it is not known how much local money the express car carried The opinion prevails, however, that the robbers secured between $800 and $1,000 from the United State Express company. A representative of the express company said:

"The robbery was committed near the village of Kendallville, Ind., where the big express robbery occurred about two years ago, and in the opinion of the company it was perpetrated by the same gang The express train pulled out of Cleveland at 6:50 last evening and arrived at Reece near midnight It is a lonely region through that section of country, well adapted to the advantages desired by thieves. Had the company not been supplied with stationary safes a large sum of money would have been taken. But those through safes are so arranged that even the messenger was unable to open them, notwithstanding that he had a revolver placed at his head and was threatened with death."

CLEVELAND, July 24.—Later a telegram was received by Superintendent Mitchell, of the United States Express company, from the messenger in charge of the car attacked by the robbers, saying that only a few packages in the local safe had been secured by the bandits. All of the money collections made between Cleveland and Toledo and at Toledo were in the large safe and the only money in the small safe was that picked up at stations between Toledo and Reece's siding It is now believed that the largest amount possible for the robbers to have secured is but little more than $100

FIVE MEN ARRESTED.

WAUSEON, Ohio, July 24.—Five men are under arrest here on suspicion of being connected with the holdup of the Lake Shore train at Reece station last night. The detectives refused to state what evidence there is against them Two tramps who were on the train jumped off when the shooting began and ran back to Archibald and notified the Lake Shore people there, and in less than three hours a special train carrying the sheriff of the county and a posse with several Lake Shore officials and detectives arrived at the scene of the holdup. The sheriff and his men, as well as the detectives, immediately started to scour the adjacent country.

THE KESSLER GANG AGAIN.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Lake Shore detectives who were put on the case immediately after the robbery occurred believe that the work was done by the same gang of farmer brigands which held up a train at Kessler, Ind., some time ago. Several chisels, a towel in which the tools were carried and other clews were left behind when the men left the train and were secured by the detectives. The description of the leader of the bandits tallies exactly with that of the tall countryman who led the Kessler raid. His men, in both robberies, addressed him as "Jim" and in both instances displayed the same daro devil bravado and absolute authority over his men. The railroad secret service men were confident that they would soon have the entire gang under arrest

SAFE BLOWING SCENE.

ELKHART, Ind., July 24.—Particulars of the train robbery, received here, say there were two hundred passengers aboard the train. The robbers drove back all who attempted to get out, while four of the robbers went to the express car. During the attempted safe blowing the robbers seemed afraid of a rescue. For the last explosion a terrific charge was used. The steel chest did not yield, but the car was raised from the track, the sides bulged out and the three inch plank floor spattered There were nine in the party. They were jocose with the train crew, saying all were disappointed at the failure, but would call again before the snow flies. While the explosions were taking place the fireman slipped away, but had gone only a few rods when the robbers gave up. He was called back and proceeded with the train. The obstruction on the track was found to consist of ties. Reece is an abandoned side track in a hollow with dense woods on each side. Years ago an organized gang of horse thieves operated in the vicinity and was broke up only by vigilantes, who hung some of the leaders. Many of the same band are said to still reside there. It is unofficially stated here that the through safe contained $75 000 in gold.

Married, July 17, at Olympia, Wash., Miss Carrie D Green to Mr James Renrick Pattison, of Spokane, Wash They will reside in Olympia Miss Green formerly lived in this city and has relatives and many friends here. Mr. Pattison was a son-in-law of Mr. John Ferguson.

WAR IN EARNEST

Between the Indians and the Whites in the West.

The Secretary of the Interior Requests the War Department to Send Troops to Wyoming.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 24.—The Indian war has broken out in earnest Union Pacific Engineer Robert Fitzpatrick, who pulled the north bound freight into Pocatello last night, confirmed the report that the Bannock Indians killed a settler, his wife and child in the Salt river valley, and that the white men who are pursuing the Indians killed six of them before they escaped to the mountains. Mail Carrier Vail, who arrived at Montpelier from Star valley, also told the same story.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The secretary of the interior has requested the secretary of war to send troops to the scene of the Indian disturbance in Wyoming, and it is understood that the request will be granted as soon as the official papers are issued by the secretary of war, and the troops will be ordered instantly to the vicinity of the trouble. The action of the interior department was taken upon the receipt of the following dispatch from Indian Agent Teter, who was ordered to go from the Fort Hall reservation, in Idaho, and investigate the trouble between the whites and Indians in Wyoming and to induce the Indians to return to their reservations:

FORT HALL, Idaho, July 28.—Browning, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington:—I have investigated the troubles between the Indians and settlers in Wyoming, and advise that troops be sent there immediately to protect the law abiding citizens.

"The lawless element among the settlers seemed determined to cause a conflict with the Indians. The settlers have killed four to seven Indians, which has greatly incensed the Indians, who have gathered to the number of 200 or 300 near Fall river, Unitah county, and refuse to return to their reservation.

"I find that the Indians have killed game unlawfully, according to the laws of Wyoming, though not unlawfully according to the treaty of the Indians with the United States, thus usurping the prerogatives of the settlers, which caused the trouble Nothing but the intervention of soldiers will settle the difficulty and save the lives of innocent persons and the destruction of property.

[Signed] "TETER, Agent."

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 24.—Governor Richards has received the following dispatches from Adjutant General Stitser, who is investigating the Indian troubles. The governor will at once take action to put state troops in the field, should advices make it necessary:

MARYSVILLE, Wyo., July 24.
Governor Richards, Cheyenne, Wyo

The Indians are in force at the junction of Granite creek and Fall river. All passes into Jackson Hole are now guarded by Indians. Captain Smith has just come in wounded in the right breast by Indians. Prospectors are driven from the mountains Pickets are guarding the various passes. Horses are equipped ready to mount and everybody armed to the teeth.

[Signed [STITZER.

TETON BASIN, Wyo., July 23.
Gov Richards, Cheyenne, Wyo.:

Arrived here today on the return trip. The settlers in the Basin are very uneasy. It is reported here that many Indians are leaving for the Hall to join those in the mountains. Indians from other reservations are also reported to be joining them. Letters and couriers have been sent out from Jackson's Hole to the various settlements asking for aid, and settlers have decided to go into the mountains to fight the Indians tomorrow. The settlers have given up all hope of saving their crops and are preparing to move their children and women out of Jackson Hole. (Signed) STITZER.

The various companies of the national guards at different points in Wyoming have been advised to hold themselves in readiness for prompt movement.

GEN. COPPINGER ORDERED OUT.

Secretary Lamont, during the afternoon, ordered General Coppinger to the scene of the disturbances and to make such disposition under his command as may be necessary to protect the settlers and secure the return of the Indians to their reservation.

YOUNG THIEF CAUGHT.

L. R. Stafford Stole $1,000 From an Arkansas County Collector.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 24.—L R. Stafford, aged sixteen years, was taken from Springfield to New Lewisville, Ark., a little town on the Cotton Belt railroad, on the charge of stealing nearly $1,000 from C. C. Von Rose, county collector there. He admitted his guilt and gave up the remainder of his plunder, $124. Mr. Von Rose said that as county collector he is compelled to have large sums of money either in his house or in his office. Stafford was a friend of his children, and through them learned of the money in the house. Early last week he got his hands on it and disappeared. Young Stafford is a son of J. W. Stafford, well known in Missouri and Arkansas.

BIG STREET RAILROAD DEAL.

Philadelphia Companies Representing $40,000,000 to Consolidate.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 23.—A great street railroad consolidation scheme, representing more than $40,000,000, has been under consideration for some time past and is now practically complete. The companies interested are the Philadelphia, the Peoples and the Electric Traction companies, and the Hestonville, Mantua and Fairmount street railroad companies. The matter has been referred to counsel, who will draw up contracts and agreements for the biggest street railway combination ever perfected in this country. It is expected that millions of dollars will be saved by the new deal. High priced management will be dispensed with, competition prevented, and litigation and the lobbyists' fees abolished, while the cost of operating the roads will be materially reduced. Peter A. B Widener, of the Philadelphia Traction company, will probably be the head of the new company.

COLLINS SENTENCED.

Gets Twenty Years for Killing Fred Ohl.

Received the News With Stolidity and Apparently Glad That He is Let Down so Easy.

TRENTON, N. J., July 24.—John S Collins, the negro who shot and killed Student Frederick Ohl at Princeton last June, and who was a few days ago convicted of murder in the second degree, today received a sentence of twenty years at hard labor in the state prison. Before the sentence he was required to plead to the indictment for atrocious assault upon Garrett Cochran, another student, whom he shot at the same time, and his counsel entered a plea of non vult contendre. Upon this plea Collins was sentenced to ten years more, but Justice Gummer announced that he and his associates had decided to allow the sentences to run concurrent, thus making the term only twenty years altogether No plea for leniency was made by Collins' counsel. The negro received his sentence stolidly, and was unmoved even when Justice Gummer said that a verdict of murder in the first degree would have been proper.

JAMES W. FRENCH.

He Will be Warden of the Government Prison.

Attorney General Harmon Makes the Appointment and Incidentally Praises the Appointee's Efficiency.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Attorney General Harmon has returned from a brief visit to his home in Cincinnati, and this morning announced that he had decided to appoint as warden of the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., Mr. James W. French, of Indiana. Mr. French was for five years warden of the Michigan City, Ind., penitentiary, but was recently legislated out of office He is said to be efficient and progressive and is well known as a prison reformer. Mr. French will soon be called to Washington, when the appointment of other officials and employes will be discussed. Mr. Harmon has had an extensive correspondence with the best known prison officials throughout the country with a view to get suggestions as to prison reform, and it is his purpose to make the first United States penitentiary, if possible, the model of all the penitentiary institutions in the country.

NEW DRIVER PUT UP.

The Corporal Wins the Stake at Detroit.

DETROIT, July 24.—Sensational racing and the unexpected termination of the stake race were the features of yesterday's card at the Detroit Driving club. It was the day on which the $8,000 merchants' and manufacturers' purse for 2:24 trotters was to be decided.

The 2:10 pace furnished three heat winners and the finish occurs today. Ben D., fresh from a field of victory at Tiffin, stepped a mile in 2 06¾ beating Guinette a neck, and in the next one Coleridge came through the stretch and played the same trick on Ben D. Angie D. shot to the front right at the start of the third heat and won it all the way. She was selling at 100 to 1, and Welch was hit for $3,000 on the heat. The summaries

Three-year old Trotting, Purse, $2,500—Larable, first; Oakland Baron, second; Boreal, third. Time—2.16¼, 2.14, 2.16¾, 2.17¼ 2.17. Killona, Scourine, Miss Kate, Fred Kohl and Hampton finished as named. Derby Princess distanced.

2:24 class trotting, merchants' and manufacturers' stake; purse $8,000—The Corporal, first; Don L., second; Iron Bar, third Time—2.15, 2.13¾, 2.13¾, 2.13¾, 2.14¾, 2.15½. Franklin, Rosetta Soap, Tempter and Clara G. finished as named. El Rami drawn. Spinaway, Red Nutting and Aldonzo distanced.

2:10 class, pacing; purse $2,000 (unfinished—Ben D, first; Coleridge, second; Angie D, third. Time—2.06¾, 2.06¾ 2.07. Paul, Guinette, Moonstone, Dudley, Badge, Starplex and H. J. Rockwell finished as named. Direction, Joe He and Atlantic King distanced.

Bandit Surrounded.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24 — John Brady, one of the bandits who held up a Southern Pacific train in Tehama county and murdered Sheriff Bogard, a few weeks ago, is said to have been surrounded by a posse near Sacramento. It is expected that he will be captured today, but as the robber is heavily armed, a desperate conflict is likely to take place.

RIVER RISING.

The Licking Goes Up Nine Feet.

Heavy Rains and Waterspouts Deluge the Upper Kentucky Regions and Cause a Flood.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—Licking river, which empties into the Ohio, opposite this city, rose nine feet from midnight to 6 a. m and is still rising. This rise threatens great damage to coal and lumber interests that are caught unawares. River men have telegraphed up the Licking, and find there was a rainfall of one and one half inches at some points in Kentucky last night with several water spouts reported Telegraphic communication has been so interrupted that no details of damage are available, but it is thought the storm extended to the mountains in Virginia

FOUL WORK OF A FIEND.

Little Child Murdered and the Body Concealed in a Stable.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 23.—The three-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs Gebhard, of West Indianapolis, disappeared very suddenly and mysteriously last Saturday. The parents and friends made an active and systematic search, and last evening came to the conclusion that the child had been kidnaped

Today Mr. Gebhard found the straw hat worn by his child, all crumpled and torn and lying not far from his home, and this led him to believe that the little one had been murdered and thrown into the river. During the day a strange odor was observable about the stable, in rear of a double tenement not far from the Gebhard home, and when it was investigated the badly decomposed remains were found crammed in a box. All of the clothing had been torn away, and the body showed the most abuse The alarm spread and a mob gathered beside itself with rage because of no object upon which to spend its force

In some way suspicion fell upon John R Linson, a worthless character, who went away this morning, presumably for Brightwood. The police superintendent left for that point at once. Meanwhile the bloodhounds at Seymour were telegraphed for, and the dogs will arrive early tomorrow. The suburb is crazy with excitement, and, although there is no evidence against Linson, upon which he could be convicted, he would be lynched instanter were he returned there for trial. If captured he will be kept on this side of the river.

REPORTED FOR SELLING LIQUOR.

Druggists and Saloonkeepers Are to be Prosecuted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24.—The local unions of the State Liquor League held a meeting yesterday and made reports in the cases found against druggists and saloonkeepers for selling intoxicants contrary to law, and the list of names was afterward handed to the police superintendent to be given to the grand jury. The saloonkeepers say that they are determined to enforce the law, and an incident of the meeting, which led to Secretary Victor's resignation yesterday, proves that they are in earnest. Among the names presented for violations was that of Victor himself, and it was charged in the meeting that he persistently violated the law. Sam Dinnin, one of the members of the league, said that he sent four men to Victor's on Sunday to buy liquor and all of them got it.

It also developed that one of the members saw Victor make several sales last Sunday. Victor demanded that he be not reported, but finding that no exception would be made in his favor he resigned and left the meeting. The unions have at last succeeded in getting the brewers to agree to not deliver beer on Sunday.

SMITH AND RYAN MATCHED.

They Will Probably Meet in Dallas, November 1.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A match for the welter weight championship between "Mysterious" Billy Smith and Tommy Ryan was arranged at the Gilsey house last night. James Wescott looked after Smith's interest, and "Parson" Davies was present on behalf of Ryan. Joe Vendig, representing the Florida Athletic club, offered a $5,000 purse for the fight. The men will probably meet in Dallas, Texas, Nov. 1, although another club offered the same amount of money for the fight. George H. Walker, a well known theatrical manager of Galveston, was present, and said that the Corbett Fitzsimmons fight could not be pulled off in Dallas. Galveston would be the place chosen. Work on the amphitheater in Dallas will begin in a few days. Reports from there say that over $35,000 worth of tickets have been sold.

Washington Fire.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—At 5 o'clock this morning fire started in and destroyed the building occupied by the Young Men's Christian association, on New York avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, also damaging buildings adjoining Fire now under control The other buildings damaged were the grocery store of C C. Bryan and the hardware store of J. B. Lambie. Both concerns carried large and valuable stocks. The loss is heavy.

Spanish Troops Arrive.

MADRID, July 24.—Official advices received here from Havana announce that a gun boat has arrived at Santiago de Cuba from Manzanillo, bringing information that two columns of Spanish troops, one under General Navarro and the other under Colonel Aldave, commanded jointly by General Lachambre and comprising 4 000 infantry, 300 cavalry and three guns, arrived on Sunday last at Nuevitas, the port of Puerto Principe, the dispatch adds that the town of Bayamo, in the province of Santiago de Cuba, where Captain General de Camposo is assembling troops, has been provided with fresh stores of ammunition and provisions

MINERS WILL STRIKE.

The Scenes of a Year Ago to be Repeated.

The United Mine Workers of America Demand an Advance of Wages or a Walkout.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24.—Secretary Patrick McBride, of the United Mine Workers of America, returned today from Pittsburg, and says that if the demand there for an advance of wages August 1 is not conceded, a strike will be the result His mail today contained a half dozen letters from as many different places, requesting a national suspension to be ordered The Indiana miners are now out. He says "If the Pittsburg operators grant the advance August 1, a similar advance will be granted in Ohio and Indiana. If the advance is not conceded and a strike is ordered in Pennsylvania, there can be no question but that it will extend to Ohio, and for my own part I see nothing but the calling of the different state officials together and the ordering of a general stoppage of work."

TWO BAD NEGROES.

One Will be Legally Executed at Columbus,

And the Other Will be Swung Up to a Tree if a Mob Can Get Hold of Him.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24.—Governor McKinley having refused to interfere, Wm. Taylor, aged twenty-one, a Pocahontas coal region negro, is to be executed here at midnight for killing Farmer Yoakum, of this county, to rob him.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky, July 24.—Ed., alias Bud Knight, who tried to outrage Nora Hall in Adamville last night, has been captured and is in jail here. Knight laid in waiting for his victim in the outskirts of the town and attempted to carry here to a secluded spot, but her screams brought help and the villain ran. Both are colored. The negroes are greatly worked up and will lynch the prisoner tonight if they can lay hands on him.

FIVE CENTS HIGHER.

Wheat Prices Take an Unexpected Bound.

Shorts Frightened Into a Wild Scramble for Cover—Other Farm Products Firm.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Wheat went up with a wild rush today, closing almost 5 cents higher than yesterday, at 72½c The principal cause for the sensational advance was the very light movement of winter wheat, which, with higher foreign markets, scared the shorts into a wild scramble for cover. The market started with unusual vim, opening about 1 cent higher, at 68¾c. For a time trade was light, but the speculators were nervous, and every trade of any magnitude showed an immediate effect upon prices. The receipts of new wheat were very light the total receipts with last year's comparison being as follows: Chicago, receipts, 37,000, last year, 324 000, St. Louis receipts, today, 69,000, last year, 191,000, Toledo receipts, today, 41,000, last year 237 000, Detroit receipts today 5,000, last year 56,000 Total receipts today 152,000, last year 808,000. Out of the twenty one cars received in Chicago only eighteen were new wheat and some of these contract In addition to light receipts there was reports of crop damage and the unexpected advance abroad to aid in the rout of bears. Pardridge, who was said to be heavily short, was a liberal buyer and other big shorts also were in the run. The price had several tumbles during the day, on taking of profits, but near the finish there was a frantic rush for cover by scared shorts and the price shot skywards, closing with September at 72½c as compared with 67½ last night.

LANGDON DEAD.

He Built 7,000 Miles of Railroad During Life.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 24.—Robert Bruce Langdon, the well known railroad contractor and a prominent figure in the history of Minneapolis and in the politics of Minnesota, died today of hemorrhage of the bladder, aged sixty-eight. Langdon was a Vermonter and a self made man. He has built 7 000 miles of railroad At the time of his death he was engaged in carrying out a $2 000,000 irrigation canal contract near Phoenix, Ariz He was related by marriage to General R A. Alger, of Detroit.

FAMILY POISONED.

Frank Brown, Wife and Son Made Very Sick.

Tim Moran, a Small Boy, Falls From a Crabapple Tree—Bicycle Accident Last Evening.

Frank Brown porter at the city Y. M C A. building, together with his wife and little son, were made very ill Monday by eating pork which was unwholesome The family lives at No. 281 East Washington street, and Sunday Mrs Brown cooked a piece of pork with some turnips. They all ate heartily of the meat Monday the little boy was taken critically ill and later in the day Mr. Brown was taken sick while at work and was compelled to go home. His wife ran to the nearest drug store and while getting some medicine for the rest of the family was also taken critically ill and had to be taken home in a carriage A physician was hastily summoned and found all three in an alarming condition Yesterday Mr. Brown was some better and today was able to come down town, but his wife and boy are still very sick

CONCUSSION OF THE BRAIN

This morning as a twelve year old lad named Tim Moran, residing at No 113 West Williams street, was picking crab apples at the residence of Pat Murphy, also of Williams street, he fell a distance of fifteen feet, alighting on his head and suffering a severe concussion of the brain The lad was carried home and Dr. Ruslen called to attend him The boy was much better at noon and will likely be able to be out in a day or so.

A BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

A bicycle accident happened on the corner of Madison and Lafayette streets last evening in which a rider who refused to give his name ran into a delivery wagon owned by the Fair department store. The vehicle was struck squarely in the middle, and the force of the collision was so great that it was turned completely over, and the occupants, the driver and a young lady companion, thrown to the pavement. The wheelman was also thrown down and his machine almost totally demolished. Passers by who witnessed the accident hastened to the assistance of the unfortunates, and they were extricated from beneath the wreckage. The bicyclist was run over by the wagon wheels but did not seem to be dangerously hurt. Neither of the occupants of the vehicle were hurt.

HURT HIS FOOT.

Isaac Manheimer, a well known traveling salesman, is suffering from the effects of an accident which occurred some days ago. A trunk dropped upon his foot and serious complications have resulted. He has been confined to his bed ever since the accident.

VERY STRANGE ACTIONS

Feeble Minded Boy Arrested at the Wabash Yards.

Imagined He Was Switching Cars—Thought to Have Escaped From a California Institution.

This morning as Dr Tinkham was driving along Fairfield avenue his attention was called to a young man who was creating a great deal of excitement by his strange actions in the Wabash yards. The individual was well dressed but from his actions it was very evident that he was mentally deranged The young fellow ran up and down the tracks signalling trains, attempting to throw switches and at the same time making a noise with his mouth which sounded very much like an engine exhausting steam. The yard men took after the stranger and after a hard chase finally captured him He said his name was Eagel and that his home was in Los Angeles, Cal. He was placed in Dr. Tinkham's rig and taken to the jail. When searched it was found that his clothing was marked Wm Rogers and that he had evidently been an inmate of a state asylum near Los Angeles. Rogers claimed that he was discharged and sent east but the officers think he has escaped. The institution in California will be notified The lad was put to work about the jail doing chores

WAS CAUGHT HERE.

Yesterday afternoon the sheriff's deputies arrested Walter Pricket, a young man whose home is in Columbia City and whose parents are highly respected. The arrest was made upon an indictment from the Whitley county grand jury charging the young man with being implicated, with three other boys, in an assault upon a half witted girl named Schultz last April. All the boys recently disappeared from their homes Three days ago it was reported that Pricket was in Fort Wayne and the sheriff of Whitley county notified Sheriff Clausmeier to be on the lookout for him. Yesterday it was learned that he was at the Muncie junction, and accordingly Deputy Sheriff Harrod, Pennsylvania Detective Stoll and Deputy Sheriff Clapham, of Whitley county, proceeded to the place and found their man He was placed under arrest and lodged in jail here until evening, when he was taken to Columbia City for trial.

BURLINGTON HAS NO TRAINS.

New Jersey City Over 200 Years Old Without Local Accommodations.

BURLINGTON, N J, July 24.—Burlington is more than 200 years old, and Monday, for the first time in its long history, express trains refused to stop at the old station in the heart of the city. Instead, they stop at East Burlington, nearly half a mile distant, and those who want to take a fast train for New York or Philadelphia must walk there to board it This is because the residents of East Broad street refused to allow the Pennsylvania Railroad company to lay another railroad track in front of their homes The company made efforts to secure the right of way, but the Broad street property owners fought and the second track is not likely to be laid. The company threatened to remove the station to East Burlington, and did so

FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Against Justice Chas. A. Hays, Constables John Wise and Fred W. Roembke, in the Superior Court.

A H. Bittinger, acting as attorney for Jerome C Caswell, has brought suit in the superior court against Charles A. Hays, John Wise and Frederick W. Roembke for damages in the sum of $2 500 for unlawful arrest and false imprisonment

The plaintiff charges that on the 16th day of July he was arrested by said Wise, on a warrant sworn out by said Roembke before said Hays as a justice of the peace, and unlawfully deprived of his liberty for a space of two hours.

He said that after his arrest, upon the advice of said officers, the affidavit was changed from adultery to prostitution and that he was influenced to plead guilty to said latter charge and gave the defendants security for his fine and costs. For this arrest and imprisonment he asks the damages for which he sues.

SURRENDERED.

W. F. Barrett Confesses to the Murder of the Lamont and Williams Girls.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal, July 24.—W. F. Barrett surrendered himself to the sheriff today as the murderer of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. He tells a straight story.

MORE EVIDENCE.

A Skull Unearthed in the Cellar of Holmes.

George Reed Kills His Wife Because She Remained Out All Night.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The police assistants at work on the H. H. Holmes building under the drug store in the basement today uncovered a number of pieces of what they think are parts of a human skeleton. One piece they say held two teeth. They think they have parts of a number of ribs.

HOLMES' CASTLE WILL BE DESTROYED.

The famous "Castle" built by H. H. Holmes at Sixty-third and Wallace streets has been marked for destruction by the building department. Inspector Laughlin has sent a letter to Building Commissioner Downey, calling attention to the many defects in the structure and pronouncing it a menace to life and limb. During the exploration of the secret rooms and concealed stairways the flimsy and inflammable nature of the building was discovered.

FITZEL WAS MURDERED.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—Detective Geyer had not arrived here up to noon, but is expected today or tomorrow, as he had written police officials that he would come as soon as he had concluded his investigations in Detroit. Both Geyer and the local detectives believe that Howard Pitzel was murdered by Holmes in the Circle house here, and his body shipped away in a trunk. Their coming investigation will be to find out here where the trunk was sent. A thorough search for the young Pitzel boy will be made here, also, although there is no hope of being successful.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 24.—George Reed, a painter, shot and killed his wife today as the result of jealous rage. The murderer was arrested. He said his wife stayed out all night and on her return home this morning he asked her where she had been. An evasive answer was given and a quarrel resulted when he taxed her with being untrue to him.

MERITED REWARD.

SALES OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS]

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never in the history of Mrs. Pinkham's wonderful Compound has the demand for it been so great as it is today. From Maine to California, from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, come the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it; and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it WILL and does positively cure those painful

Ailments of Women.

It will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life.

Every time it will cure

Backache.

It has cured more cases of leucorrhœa by removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

THIS year's trotting horse hasn't made that two-minute gait yet.

IT IS SAID to say that no more cedar block pavements will be laid in Fort Wayne. Look at patched-up Calhoun street.

THE train robbers are getting in their work again. It is about time for two or three more of these fellows to be killed.

THE courts of Allen county can grind out divorces pretty nearly as fast as our ministers can perform marriage ceremonies.

PEOPLE have forgotten all about Pennington's flying machine since the lady bicyclists have adopted the bloomer costume.

WHEN the summer has gone the board of public works will begin to talk about the erection of those drinking fountains.

OUR funny pictures will make you laugh. Look at the one in today's issue at the top of our railroad column on the third page.

WEDDING trips are now being taken on bicycles. This is well, as the honeymoon is the exclusive season when a happy young couple can live on air.

THE Ohio republicans will open the political campaign in that state on August 10 at Springfield, the home of General Bushnell their candidate for governor.

MANY of our Fort Wayne people are taking summer lake trips. There is no more delightful or more healthful way of spending a vacation than in a trip on the lakes.

WHILE the board of health are discussing measures looking to the prevention of the spread of diphtheria, they ought to see to it that the sewers of the city are flushed.

THE other counties in this congressional district are hereby notified that the next democratic candidate for congress from the Twelfth district will have his residence in Fort Wayne.

OHIO is getting crazy hot over the elections held in that state this fall. Indiana is as cool as a cucumber, at least as far as politics are concerned. Every other year is enough for us Hoosiers.

WE notice that some of our exchanges still speak of the Kentucky election as due to occur in August. Under the old constitution they would have been right, but the new constitution fixes election day on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in November

AN Ohio man, who is being sued for breach of promise, makes the defense that he proposed and was accepted on Sunday, and that according to the laws of that state contracts made on Sunday are not legally binding.

J. F. H. TATMAN has sold a one third interest in the Connersville Times and News to William F. Downs and Mrs. Della C. Hull. Mr. Downs will look after the editorial management of both papers and B L. Tatman, city editor for three years, will retire to take a long contemplated course in college.

IF THE people of this country do not soon become familiar with the pros and cons on the silver question it will not be the fault of the champions of gold and silver. Horr and Harvey get a whack at newspaper readers every day and this is supplemented about every other day with a speech or an interview on the financial issues from some one of the "big guns" of the nation.

READERS of THE SENTINEL who fail to look over our railroad columns each day miss half the local news. They always contain interesting reading matter about people whom almost everybody knows. The inside of THE SENTINEL is just as newsy as the outside, and that is the feature that has sent its circulation up to the point it is. Our aim is to cover the news of the whole city and in this we have been successful.

MAYOR CROMER, of Muncie, is setting his foot down on pernicious papers that come into that city for circulation by fining the agent of one of these filthy sheets $25 and costs. He held that papers whose chief motive is to chronicle crime and lewd acts come within the prohibitory statutes of Indiana Mayor Oakley ought to wake up on this subject and be as vigorous in enforcing the law against this evil as he is in enforcing the law in other directions. That he has not done so leaves him subject to the severest censure.

THE Chicago Times-Herald favors a short presidential campaign next year and says the national nominating conventions ought not to be held earlier than the second week in September. As a preliminary to these, the state and district conventions for the appointment of delegates should be called about the first of September. THE SENTINEL is with the Times-Herald on this subject. There is not a bit of use in having the country turned upside down for six months simply because of a presidential election. This was an idea inaugurated by our forefathers when stage coaches were the fastest means of travel and the telegraph was unknown. The people of today are ready to nominate candidates in September and vote for them in November.

IT IS to be regretted that the officials of any church should be so foolish as to place under ban in this country the Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Sons of Temperance and forbid their members from joining these charitable and benevolent societies, and in doing so they are certainly following bad advice and acting upon information given them concerning these orders which is altogether untrue. The three orders named above do not antagonize religion, nor do the principles which they teach and practice conflict with any denomination of the church which recognizes a supreme being and the brotherhood of man. Their purpose is to make better citizens, to extend the helping hand in time of distress and misfortune and as such they ought to have the indorsement and hearty co-operation of every religious denomination. The churches that oppose these societies are simply working against the best interests of mankind and showing their ignorance of the principles upon which these fraternal organizations are founded.

THE general fall in prices of all kinds of commodities in this country between 1873 and 1894 was 43 per cent. It is interesting to note that wheat fell 62 per cent. nearly 20 per cent more than the general average, showing how the sudden opening up of the great wheatfields of the northwest for a time glutted the world's markets and drove prices down. Meat foods, on the other hand, fell off during the periods named only 27 per cent, indicating, if meat producers had had the intuition to discern it, that the population was increasing faster than the beef, mutton and pork supply. The fact that for a year or two beef cattle were very low in price does not alter the general conclusion. The demand for animal food of all kinds, both meat and dairy products, is still crowding the supply very close. Next to animal products the articles that fell off least in the general decline were tea, coffee and sugar, 30 per cent. Textile fabrics declined nearly half, while metals and minerals in general, owing to the unprecedented discoveries of rich silver and other mines in the west, declined 50 per cent, nearly as much as wheat.

The decision of Archbishop Kain of the St. Louis diocese in reference to Roman Catholic G. A. R. members will settle in time a question that has been an issue between the church and the veterans for a number of years. In some places priests forbade the burial with G. A. R. rites and ceremonies of comrades who were members of their flock. They would not permit the comrades of the deceased to appear in church at his funeral wearing the uniforms and insignia of the order, neither would they officiate at funerals where the G. A. R. burial service was read. By the decision of Archbishop Kain hereafter in his diocese the G. A. R. veterans may enter Catholic churches wearing their uniforms and may read their burial service over the body of a deceased comrade in Roman Catholic cemeteries.

The failing sight of Gladstone was the greatest calamity that could have overtaken the Liberal party and Ireland. The passing of the Liberals was undoubtedly owing to the unseemly quarreling of the Irish factions, but that would not have brought matters to such a pass had there been one man in the Liberal party with brains enough to hold it together.

STATE NEWS.

Three long gravel roads are to be constructed from Elwood to other points, aggregating ten miles in length. The contracts for their construction, have been let, L A Haines, getting one, and Newton Burke, of Anderson, the others. The cost of building them will be $7,000

Richmond has a branch of the Good Citizens' league which, though but two weeks old, has become very active. There is a large membership, and the league has determined that it will give aid to the police officers in the enforcement of the Nicholson liquor law. The members do not intend to make war upon the saloonists themselves but will see to it that the officers of the city shall prosecute all violators, and they will insist that this be done without delay.

Postoffice Inspector Lawrence Leatherman, while at his home at Valparaiso, was awakened at night by the presence of a burglar in his room, who held a cocked revolver to his head and coolly ordered him to be quiet. Leatherman observed the caution while the burglar slowly backed from the room and made his escape. Leatherman then sprung to his valise for his revolver, only to find that the burglar had possessed himself of the weapon, $106 50 cash and other valuables.

Elder Covert, of Anderson, who is warring on spiritualism and is making a special fight because of the spiritualistic camp meeting at Chesterfield, has ordered a tent capable of seating 3,000 people, which he will pitch close by the camp grounds. He will also go to Benton Harbor and Bangor, Mich, to pay his respects to Medium King, who is particularly well known in that section. Yesterday he posted notices reflecting very severely on Medium Foster, of Columbus, Ohio, whom he warned against venturing inside the state.

The Catholics of Richmond are taking great interest in the movement looking to calling a national conference of representative Catholics who are members of the endowment or insurance societies of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias, Sons of Temperance and other secret societies, which have been placed under the ban by the church at Rome, the idea being to prepare a statement to be laid before the pontiff, showing the great injustice that will be done to a large army of faithful Catholics if the proscription is enforced as rigorously as the action of many prelates in America would signify. It is estimated that there are fully 3,000,000 Catholics in the United States who carry endowments in these various societies, the majority of whom are no longer young, and who could not at this late day secure reinsurance in standard companies. The proposed conference will be held in September.

MONROEVILLE NEWS.

Local Affairs in That Town—Township Trustees in That Section.

MONROEVILLE, Ind., July 22.

The summer normal at the Knouse college, west of town, closed today.

Farmers have completed the largest harvest ever experienced here. With the exception of wheat the harvest was an exceptional light one.

J. W. Smith, the reliable Monroeville merchant, has charge of conveying the "darkies" to and from the camp grounds.

A picnic and festival will be given at Robinson's grove Thursday, Aug. 15.

A colored camp meeting is in progress at Robinson's grove, east of this place, but it is not meeting with much success financially. It is not conducted in a proper manner and its character is not such as to commend it to any community.

The Nicholson liquor law is meeting with favor among our liquor men and they report business as brisk as before the law was enforced, although they act in obedience to the law. Much of the carousing is dispensed with and a stricter cash business can be maintained.

George B. Lawrence, of Lafayette township, the actuary for the Allen County Farmers' Mutual Insurance company, was in town Wednesday and adjusted satisfactorily the damage caused by lightning a few days ago to the residence on the Cole farm, west of town.

The street improvements here will be completed in a few days, so says Assistant Engineer Rollins. It will add much to the appearance of our little city, although it will go deep into the pockets of the property owners along the said improvements. The sidewalks along these improved streets have by an ordinance been ordered constructed anew, of either brick, block stone or cement. Jacob Baltes and J. H. Jones, contractors of Fort Wayne, already have a number of walks contracted for.

The outgoing township trustees are busy preparing their final report which will be submitted to the county commissioners August 1. We are confident that the township affairs in the southeastern part of the county were never better managed. Trustee O'Rourke, of Jefferson township, was elected for the short term and the limited experience given him, makes him the coming man in '98. Credit is due Trustee McConnel, of Jackson, for the business like method introduced in the affairs of the township. Mr. McConnel served the people of Jackson as trustee with dignity and honor for seven years and four months. The affairs of Monroe township were faithfully cared for by Trustee C. Hoffman. His interest in the schools and public highways were always for the best, and the poor under his charge did not suffer. A better public officer Madison never had than Trustee Franke. His ever watchful eye, his diligence, his integrity made him friends among both democrats and republicans and he will retire on August 5th with the esteem of all.

CHILD MURDERED.

Little Ida Gebhard Found in a Tool Chest.

The Poor Little One Horribly Cut and Mutilated Before Life Had Left the Body.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24.—The mystery surrounding the murder of Little Ida Gebhard, whose mutilated body was found in a tool chest last night, is still unsolved Early this morning, John F. Linson, formerly a railroad engineer, who, according to his own story, has been a wanderer all over the world, was arrested for the crime, but an almost complete alibi has been established for him. He was recently released from the Elgin, Ills., insane hospital, and is a morphine fiend. The post mortem today developed the fact that the child had been horribly cut with sharp knife after the manner of the London ripper. She was thus mutilated before the assault.

A BIG THIEF.

Frederick T. Smith Robbed His Employers.

Put the Firm's Jewelry and Diamonds in "Soak" in the Sum of $25,000.

DENVER, Col., July 24.—Evidence has been secured which indicates that Frederick T. Smith, the missing manager of the John W. Knox Jewelry company, and son in law of John W. Knox, fled to Mexico, intending to sail thence to Japan. Benedict and Phelps, attorneys for Knox, say that Smith ran the company into debt $40,000 to $50 000 They also say that he raised $25,000 before his departure by putting up the company's diamonds as collateral.

HEAVY RAINS.

Causing Floods in Nebraska and Colorado.

CHADRON, Neb, July 24.—A hard rain last evening near Hot Springs, S. D, raised Fall river several feet, washing three bridges and considerable of the grade of the Elkhorn railroad, on the Hot Springs branch.

LAJUNTA, Colo, July 24.—The heavy rains have flooded the country east of Nephesta to Lakin, Kas, swelling the Arkansas river four inches higher than ever known here. The county wagon bridge here, nearly 2,000 feet in length, has gone out and the families in the low lands have moved to higher ground. Thousands of dollars worth of flumes and bridges will be lost. The Santa Fe railroad bridge is damaged so that trains cannot cross.

BLOOMERS IN CHICAGO.

How the Unique Club Disciplined Two Members Who Appeared In Skirts.

The Unique Cycling club of Chicago is all that its name implies. One of its laws is that on all runs bloomers and knickerbockers shall be worn, and two members who disobeyed this rule recently met with a punishment that they will not forget soon. Union park was the rendezvous for the last run, and 50 members turned out. The president, Mrs. Langdon, and the captain, Miss Bunker, observed two women wearing short skirts over their bloomers.

"Take the skirts off," ordered Captain Bunker.

"Indeed we won't," was the reply.

A crowd of 200 had collected to see the start. The president and the captain held a consultation, and then, taking several strong armed members with them, fell on the skirt wearers and stripped them down to their bloomers.

"It was done in all seriousness," said Mrs. Langdon. "The club rules are made to be kept and not to be broken. Why did we take off the skirts in public? For no other reason but to make examples of the offenders. They publicly defied our rules and were punished accordingly."—American Wheelman.

DON'TS FOR WOMEN RIDERS.

Don't be a fright.
Don't faint on the road.
Don't wear a man's cap.
Don't wear tight garters.
Don't forget your toolbag.
Don't attempt a "century."
Don't coast. It is dangerous.
Don't boast of your long rides.
Don't criticise people's "legs."
Don't wear loud hued leggings.
Don't cultivate a "bicycle face."
Don't refuse assistance up a hill.
Don't wear clothes that don't fit.
Don't neglect a "light's out" cry.
Don't wear jewelry while on a tour.
Don't race. Leave that to the scorchers.
Don't wear laced boots. They are tiresome.
Don't imagine everybody is looking at you.
Don't go to church in your bicycle costume.
Don't wear a garden party hat with bloomers.
Don't contest the right of way with cable cars.
Don't chew gum. Exercise your jaws in private.
Don't wear white kid gloves. Silk is the thing.
Don't ask, "What do you think of my bloomers?"
Don't use bicycle slang. Leave that to the boys.
Don't go out after dark without a male escort.
Don't go out without a needle, thread and thimble.
Don't try to have every article of your attire "match."
Don't let your golden hair be hanging down your back.
Don't allow your dear little Fido to accompany you.
Don't scratch a match on the seat of your bloomers.
Don't discuss bloomers with every man you know.
Don't appear in public until you have learned to ride well.

ALL KINDS OF MONEY.

UNITED STATES TREASURY EXHIBIT AT THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

Curious Old Bonds and Notes—England's Check For Damages Done by the Alabama—Rare Old Colonial Notes—An Interesting Array.

Register J. Fount Tillman of the United States treasury will send from his bureau to the Atlanta exposition one of the most interesting and attractive exhibits to be furnished for that occasion by the United States government. The exhibit—then rather incomplete in some of its details—attracted widespread attention at the Columbian exposition in Chicago.

Since then many new features have been added until now it forms the most complete collection of all issues of money of this government in existence. It is not only valuable to those interested in the financial history of this country, but it serves as well to illustrate the great and rapid advance made in the art of engraving. The first attempts to engrave notes were crude and rough, while the later efforts are the beautiful works of art with which every one is familiar.

The exhibit contains specimens of treasury issues of every form, made on account of the various loans, since the foundation of the government, grouped and arranged in chronological order. Added to this is a full and well preserved collection of colonial money, which is valuable as well as interesting. The government was compelled to purchase this collection by piecemeal from various persons who were holding the money as souvenirs, and a good price was paid for the necessary pieces to complete the collection. One of the features of the exhibit is the continental money. All the issues of the 13 original states are represented, embracing all dates, denominations and conditions of payment. The exhibit includes continental money, colonial money, specimens of the issues of the late Confederate States, both currency and bonds; United States bonds, United States currency, national bank notes, bills of broken wildcat banks in active operation before the civil war, and the check which England made out in favor of this country for depredations committed by the steamer Alabama on the commerce of the United States.

The earliest issue of bonds, then known as "loan office certificates," as shown in the exhibit, was made in 1776 on account of the first loan this government negotiated with France. Then follow in order of date specimens of bonds issued to replenish the treasury from time to time during the progress of the Revolutionary and civil wars down to the present time, the last loan being that of 1895, redeemable in 1925. As shown by the specimens, the earliest coupon bonds were issued in 1842. It was then that this government adopted the two forms of bonds, now so popular, the coupon and registered. The specimens of the bonds, notes, fractional currency and other evidences of debt under all acts of congress issued on account of the heavy loans entailed by the civil war form a fine and historic collection of the reminders of those stirring times.

The "loan office certificates" are probably as interesting as any other feature of this collection. Many have the interest figured out on the edge of the note, showing that the holders had puzzled their heads to find out what Uncle Sam owed them. On one of the colonial notes, issued in 1774, are inscribed the words, "To counterfeit is death." Some severe penalty was necessary, for any ordinary schoolboy with a quill pen could have reproduced the note exactly, so crude and rough was its execution. Among the bonds are found a great number of District of Columbia notes of indebtedness, issued for all sorts of purposes. The bonds of the large 4 per cent loan of the late war times have a place in the exhibit, and they take up quite a good deal of space. They are both coupon and registered bonds, the highest denomination of the former being $1,000, and that of the latter being $50,000. The $50,000 registered bond is the largest ever issued by this government. No coupon bond is issued with a higher denomination than $1,000. The last loan, that of 1895-1925, is a 4 per cent one, and the bonds are beautiful works of art. They are made in the shape of a United States flag, with the coupons taking the place of the stripes, and one of these bonds takes up the entire space on a single leaf of the exhibit.

The check which England paid to this country on account of the Alabama claims is a gold certificate and is made out for the sum of $15,500,000. On the back is indorsed by many names, the most prominent of which are those of Edward Thornton, then the English minister to this country; Hamilton Fish, secretary of state, and William A. Richardson, secretary of the treasury.

The collection is mounted on two separate columns, each 7 feet high. Thirty-two frames are swung on hinges to these columns, and in these frames the notes are mounted. They are well arranged and are lettered and grouped in an artistic manner.—Washington Star.

Bismarck on Women.

Here is what Prince Bismarck said to a deputation of Silesian ladies on May 13:

"I always regret that so little influence in politics is allowed to the better half of the human race. I do not expect ladies to deliver speeches in parliament, but I believe that the results of our elections would be more national and more satisfactory if they were more under female influence than now. Honest German women, wives and mothers, do not appear in public as socialists, and I therefore believe that female sympathy with our political institutions is a much stronger bulwark against social democracy than our revolution bill would have been if it had been passed."—Review of Reviews.

NO BLOOMERS FOR LILLIAN.

A Simple Suit and a Skirt Are the Prima Donna's Choice For Cycling.

Having smashed masculine hearts, hypnotized managers, charmed obdurate critics and swayed vast audiences, sumptuous Lillian Russell has subjugated the some time refractory wheel. To the velvet voiced prima donna the saddle of a bicycle is but a newer throne, taking the place of that property dais from which she has so often calmly surveyed her triumph over doubting first nighters. And Miss Russell on a wheel is as potent a drawing card as she has been upon the operatic stage.

She took her third lesson recently, and, mark you, wheeling sisters, she does not "wabble." Miss Russell's little girl, Lillian, Jr., better known as Daughty, took her first lesson at the same time, and enthusiasts declared that the child's first attempt was something really wonderful. At any rate, both mother and daughter were well pleased with their progress. Miss Russell said in one breath that she considered cycling the most exhilarating of experiences, and that she could never adopt bloomers. Her intention is to get a quiet, simple suit with a skirt. While she thinks that many women look well in double barreled petticoats, Miss Russell will none of them on her own ample figure, and her sisters agree with her in this opinion.

"Who would have thought it?" said a chic looking enthusiast, while adjusting her own well fitting bloomers. "I was nearly knocked flat when I heard her veto bloomers. Why, I had felt sure that she would adopt knickerbockers of the most ultra cut."—New York Sun.

MILLIONS OF BIBLES.

The Work of the American Bible Society For the Past Year.

The seventy-ninth annual report of the American Bible society, which covers the work of that organization in printing and circulating the Scriptures during the past year, has just been published. The society has distributed more volumes in China during the year than in any preceding year since it began its operations there. In Japan, too, the Bible committee has been able to accomplish a great deal of work among the soldiers of the Japanese army. More than 1,500,000 Bibles, Testaments and integral portions of the Bible were printed by the society within the year, and over 1,000,000 of them were printed on the presses in the Bible House, New York, and more than 500,000 were printed in foreign lands. Through purchases of additional volumes the total number printed and procured by the society amounted to 1,958,674 copies. Of these 947,103 volumes were issued from the Bible House and 634,025 in foreign lands. Of the volumes issued from the Bible house 101,196 copies were sent to foreign lands and are not counted among the issues in foreign countries.

Of the issues of 947,103 volumes from the Bible House 845,907 have been for the home supply. On account of the falling off of the receipts the society was compelled to restrict its colportage work to a considerable extent. Only 27 colporteurs have been employed for the whole or a part of the year in 12 states and two territories. The colporteurs visited 71,073 families and found 12,634 without the Scriptures. The number of families visited by the American Bible society and its auxiliaries was 516,798, of which 119,244 were found to be without the Scriptures. Destitute families were supplied to the number of 34,399, and individuals in addition to the number of 19,982.

SUSAN'S LAST DITCH.

How the Woman Suffragists Have Taken the Bull by the Horns.

Susan B. Anthony has assumed a position that is truly advanced. At a large gathering of equal suffrage women in Topeka, she drafted and had passed a resolution setting forth that, as the men of Kansas had refused to permit women to vote, it was the duty of every self respecting woman in the state to fold her hands and refuse to help any moral, religious or charitable reform until the adjective "male" is stricken from the constitution.

This resolution, which received a unanimous vote, will do more, if carried out conscientiously, than anything woman has yet done to liberate her sex from the irksome duties that appertain to a moral, religious or charitable life. Susan, to put it plainly, has taken the suffrage bull by the horns. When a woman puts her foot down and says distinctly that if she cannot have her own way, then she will not bother about such things as moral, religious or charitable obligations, you may know, as the old saying is, that she doesn't care whether school keeps or not.

Viewed calmly, this is a straight cut to complete emancipation. The spectacle of 100,000 resolute Kansas women with their hands folded, stubbornly refusing to do unto others as they would be done by and dismissing all interest in their immortal souls to "get square" with man, is one to make the saints squirm and the devil chuckle.

Susan B. Anthony is a tireless fighter, and she appears to have taken to the last ditch.—New York World.

New Sort of Poker.

A new variation of poker has sprung up. It deals out the entire pack in equal numbers to all players. If five are playing, for example, each will get ten cards at the start. If seven are playing, each get seven, the three cards left over being put aside. Then, instead of drawing, each player discards as he likes from his hand so that he shall have five cards to play with, making the best hand possible out of those dealt him. Hands are apt to run high in this sort of game. It is called Peculiar.

A poker in which six cards were dealt, discards and draws being so regulated that only five cards constituted the final hand, has been known for some time, but this is a further development of that idea. It is said to have originated along the shores of Long Island.—New York Sun.

The Proper Care of Tire Valves.

No small percentage of the trouble that cyclists experience with their tires is caused by the valves and the lack of judgment that the riders display in the use of them. A valve should never be screwed up with a wrench, pair of pliers or not even as tight as it can be screwed with the fingers. Such procedure will in a brief time ruin the rubber washer, and then all the tightening in the world will not prevent its leaking.—Chicago Tribune.

CURES DYSPEPSIA.

A New Preparation, Pleasant, Harmless, Simple, Prepared Solely for Weak Digestion.

A new remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion, very highly recommended by Dr. Harland and Dr. Jennison and other prominent physicians is a combination in tablet form of vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin and Golden Seal. One of these tablets should be dissolved in the mouth after each meal and according to Dr. Jennison the effect seems to be that the food is perfectly and promptly digested, before it has time to sour and ferment, which causes all the mischief.

So popular have these tablets become with people who have any form of indigestion that they are now sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are not a secret patent medicine, but as related above contain vegetable and fruit essences, pepsin and Golden Seal in a form absolutely safe and pleasant to take.

A few of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be carried in the pocket and taken after meals and whenever there is any pain or discomfort in the stomach. They cure sour stomach, heartburn, bloating, gas, palpitation and all symptoms arising from disordered digestion. All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 Cents for full sized package, or sent prepaid by mail from Stuart's Co., Marshall, Mich.

MONON, IND., May 10, 1894.

Lyon Medicine Co., Indianapolis, Ind.:

GENTS—I think it my duty to send this statement to you of the benefit I have received from LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. I have been afflicted for twenty years with stomach trouble of the severest nature. Would have seasons of the severest suffering from one to two months at a time. Between these times of suffering was never longer than three months. There was never any time that I was entirely free from misery more or less. These spells of great suffering would sometimes come on with sickness and vomiting, and other times would come on in form of rheumatism, but would finally center itself in my stomach. I have doctored with a great many physicians, but none of them could tell me what the trouble was. I was unable to get relief until I got LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. It is now sixty days since I began taking this medicine, and am now for the first time in twenty years free from pain and misery. I am compelled to say it is a blessing to a poor man.

BOOMING TIMES.

The Pittsburg Shops Come Out From Their Lethargy,

And the Men Now Have All the Work They Can Do—Affairs on the Rail and in the Office.

Affairs in the Pittsburg shop begin to assume the proportions of a boom. The force of workmen is larger and the work days longer than they have been since the early part of 1893. This state of affairs is due to improvement in the business on the road and the demand for rolling stock. Seven class R engines are to be built here this year, and so far only one of them has been completed. The others will be turned out as fast as possible, and to hasten matters the men engaged in building frames for them have been instructed to work thirteen hours per day until the work is done. In the car shop the car builders are also busy. The force has been doubled in certain departments and twenty cars will be turned out each week, instead of ten, as had been the rule for some months. At present the carpenters are working upon an order for 200 gondola cars.

BRIEF MENTION.

Nickel Plate Fireman Dixon is enjoying a brief vacation.

Boilermaker M. J. Groves, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

Blacksmith Anthony Girard, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

Mrs. T. Z. Babcock, wife of the engineer at the electric works, is quite ill.

Ed Shaw, of the electric works, is in St. Louis, looking after the interests of the company.

The Lake Shore people are in the market for thirty new engines of the ten-wheel type.

Nickel Plate Conductor D. B. Benbow, who had a hand burned some days ago, is at work again.

Nickel Plate Engineer Lee Larrimore went out on his run yesterday, after a ten days' vacation.

The Pittsburg shops turned out engines 1 and 156 this morning and took in for repairs engines 904 and 120.

Gus Tassler, who had a finger mashed a few days ago resumed work in the Pittsburg tank shop this morning.

Conductor John Tresse and Brakeman J. W. Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, are taking a few days' vacation.

George E. Campbell, transfer clerk at the Lake Shore warehouses, is with the Zollinger battery at the encampment.

Conductors Holly, Mollman and R. A. Myers, of the Nickel Plate, resumed their train duties yesterday, after a few days' lay off.

William Godarke, section foreman on the Pittsburg road at Washington, Ohio, had a leg broken yesterday by a rail falling upon it.

A. G. Guion, general manager of the Monon at Lafayette, who has been very ill for some weeks, is improving, and on Sunday rode out for a short distance.

The removal of George H. Judy from the city created a vacancy in the board of directors of the Fort Wayne Building, Loan and Savings association, and at the meeting last night Jasper Meitzner, a conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, was elected to the board.

Contractor Herman Tapp is building the abutments for a bridge for the Pennsylvania company at Washington, Ohio.

H. L. Magee, general superintendent of the Wabash lines, is spending a couple of weeks with his wife at Excelsior Springs.

I. P. Kickley, Pennsylvania passenger conductor, has taken a vacation and will visit Washington, D. C., and other eastern cities.

Frederick H. Roester, the contractor, is preparing to build an addition to the house of Mrs. Nora B. Hughes, at 284 West Wayne street.

Wabash Plaindealer: "Herbert Law, of Fort Wayne, is in the city putting up the electric fixtures in the residences of E. E. Kennedy and W. P. Jones."

E. G. Cotner, a painter in the Pittsburg shops, left for Logansport last evening, upon the receipt of a telegram stating that his sister died at noon yesterday.

A dispatch from St. Paul says President Hill, of the Great Northern, has gone to New York to resume negotiations for acquiring control of the Northern Pacific.

President Jeffrey, of the Denver and Rio Grande, and Vice President Thompson, of the Pennsylvania, have returned from their European trip and are at their posts of duty again.

The Sunday excursion business on Indianapolis lines has grown to immense proportions. Last Sunday it required 174 coaches to handle the incoming and outgoing excursionists.

Lawrence Carbaugh recently was promoted to a fireman on the Wabash road and is today moving his family to Andrews. For some time Lawrence had been employed in the Wabash shops.

The Lake Erie and Western is running its shops full time and full handed, and its entire equipment is being put in the best condition. A number of its engines have recently been thoroughly rebuilt.

Brakeman J. W. Bowdine, of the Nickel Plate, is confined to his room with a sprained ankle. Monday night he jumped off his train at Glasgow avenue switch, stepped upon a round stone and turned his ankle with the above result.

Charles Damon, night engineer at the Bass works, is still unable to work on account of the serious condition of one of his daughters, who was prostrated by inhaling the fumes of burning drugs applied by burglars a few nights ago. The other members of the family have recovered from the poison.

Reliable and official information is that upon investigation the reports of forest fires in northern Michigan are found to be greatly exaggerated and misleading. There is little, if any, more fire than is usual at this season of the year and tourists need apprehend no danger or inconvenience on that account.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "The class P engine recently sent west by the Pennsylvania to run on the Vandalia on Sunday made the run from Clayton to the union station, Indianapolis, in twenty-one minutes; distance, twenty miles. The nineteen miles from Clayton to the Belt road was run in a little less than seventeen minutes. The train consisted of eight cars, including two sleepers."

The Wabash is rebuilding engine No. 470 from the ground up. The tank is already complete.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Braungard—a son. The father is a turner at the Fort Wayne furniture works.

Mrs. W. H. Moore, wife of the Wabash engineer, will go to Toledo tomorrow to spend a few days with friends.

Conductor Jehiel Fox, of the Pittsburg road, has gone to California for a sojourn of several weeks on the Pacific coast.

During the absence of John Murphy, who is sick, John Feiderspeil is running the drill press at the electric works.

Machinist Alex Muirhead, of the Wabash shops, and his family will be the guest of friends at Churubusco over Sunday.

Conductor George Fosler, who has charge of the Wabash's New Haven run, has returned from Toledo, where he was the guest of relatives for about one month.

Last Sunday the Pennsylvania company ran an excursion from Indianapolis to Louisville, making the rate for the round trip $1 50. There were 1,874 tickets sold.

Matt Klaren, who has worked some months in the Wabash shops and yards, has been promoted to fireman and given a run on the eastern division of the main line.

Miss Rose Weber, of the transformer department of the electric works, has gone to Rome City to remain several weeks, in the hopes that a sojourn there will restore her health.

The lawn social which was to have been given on the 23d by the ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. at the home of Mrs. A. K. Makepeace, has been postponed until Thursday, the 25th.

Townley, a station on the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western road, fifteen miles east of this city, is to be abolished and a new town named Tillman is to be established twelve miles east of Fort Wayne.

C. L. Daseler, Fred and Henry Mennewisch, of the Pittsburg shops, are members of an orchestra which will accompany the Catholic Benevolent Legion's excursion party to Bawbees lake tomorrow.

The Trunk Line association has voted to abolish all outstanding contracts. Shippers will have no redress, as such contracts, unless reported to the interstate commerce commission, are in violation of the law.

The Orpheus Singing society and a number of their friends are enjoying an outing at Rome City today. There were seventy-five in the party which went down to the resort this morning and others went this afternoon.

William Sherbondy, the electrician at the Pittsburg shops, and Miss Augusta Stephan, the accomplished daughter of Julius C. Stephan, clerk in the Pittsburg freight house, were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, 32 Wall street. After a reception and banquet the bride and groom left over the Grand Rapids road for Macinac Island, where they will remain about two weeks. Upon their return here they will go to housekeeping.

General Foreman W. S. Cooper, of the Wabash shops, is entertaining Mr. W. M. King, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr King is a locomotive engineer and is employed on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road.

The Pennsylvania company has issued a new time table book, which beats its predecessors in neatness of work and general make up. A large colored map is found in the center of the book, showing the parent road and all its branches and connecting lines

E. C. Penningroth has resigned his position in the Wabash shops to engage in the grocery business on South Hanna street. He worked ten years in the shops, commencing as an apprentice in the machine department, and is highly esteemed by the shopmen, who wish him success in his new enterprise.

Miss Emilie A. Tyler, telegrapher at the Wabash office, is enjoying her annual vacation. She went to West Lebanon, Ind., this morning, where her parents reside, expecting to be absent about a month. Miss Fredericka H. Schotemeyer, who is the night operator, has taken Miss Tyler's place at the instrument.

R. F. Smith, superintendent of the voluntary relief department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, has prepared a statement showing the per cent of employes in the different branches of the service that are members of the relief department, as follows: Officers, agents and clerks, 53 per cent.; telegraph operators, 52; conductors, 89; brakemen, 79; enginemen, 85; firemen, 65; yardmen, 67; shopmen, 65; trackmen, 30.

Thomas H. Hibbins, who has charge of the depot stoves along the line of the Pittsburg road, Crestline to Chicago, has fixed his car up and will, in a few days, start out on his annual tour, which usually consumes eight or ten weeks. He will be accompanied this year by A. Beyrau. The car is one of the ordinary baggage cars, equipped with berths, stoves, ice box and all the culinary implements and while out on the road Messrs. Hibbins and Beyrau will live in it.

The controversy existing between the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western railroad and Francis Parnin, of Jackson township, concerning right of way, has been amicably settled and taken out of court. One year ago the railroad company selected three men, who appraised the damage for right-of-way at $300, while at the same time Mr Parnin selected sixteen men, who appraised the damage at $854. The company, a few days ago, settled by paying Mr. Parnin $800.

The Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway company and the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western Railway company were represented before the state board of tax commissioners at Indianapolis yesterday. In reference to the report of the latter road the Indianapolis Journal says: "A. A. Purman, the representative of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western, asked that his road be assessed at a nominal sum this year. The road has never been assessed before. It is a new line, which is intended to be made a trunk line between Chicago and New York. The route surveyed between the two cities is represented to be 148 miles shorter than any line between Chicago and New York now in operation. Seventeen miles of the road in Indiana has been completed and is in operation."

The first Niagara Falls excursion of 1895 will be run over the Nickel Plate road, August 19. Ask agents for time and rates. 15tf

OUR SOLDIER BOYS.

How They Pass Their Time at the Encampment.

Last night's Indianapolis Sun contains the following concerning the encampment in that city:

"Life in the white duck town of Fairview was more endurable Tuesday than at any time since the encampment opened. For two days the soldiers sweltered in their winter weight uniforms, but Tuesday morning it was cool and cloudy. Since Sunday morning the troops have had plenty of work to do, from 5:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., and they have, since the change in the weather carried on camp duties with more vim. There were a number of prostrations from the heat Monday, and the Second regiment hospital had fifty calls for aid.

"An order has been issued by General McKee that soldiers shall not leave the camp unless for sickness or on pressing business. It has caused some of the troops to complain, as the Indianapolis girls who invaded the camp Sunday, made a number of prisoners and dates. There was, consequently, a heavy demand for permits to go to town Monday night, but the officers were obdurate.

"Company B, Third regiment, of Fort Wayne, composes the population of 'Chinatown.' The mess tents are named Old Homestead, Gentle Five, Blue Bull, Five Old Soaks, Peggydo Little, Hard Pan, Unknown and Sleepy Two.

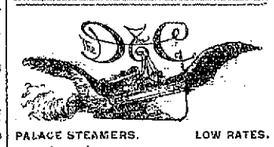

"'We's de toughest blokes in de camp—see?' said one of the privates. 'We's got a reputation to keep up and we's goin' to do it.'

"From 4 p. m. to 'taps' is the most pleasant part of the day in camp Just before sundown the regimental parades occur, when 2,000 men appear on the drill ground in uniform. At 6 o'clock the coal black coffee is served. By 7 o'clock the bands are ready to give their concerts. The Fort Wayne and Marion bands played Monday night, while hundreds of young soldiers lay on the ground about them. When 'taps' is sounded the camp becomes very quiet. The soldiers are sung to sleep by the tree toads and all of the troops, the 'shirkers' excepted, are glad for an opportunity to crawl into their mess tents to rest on their racks of straw.

"Adjt. Gen. Robbins, the hero of four wars—the rebellion, Cannelton, Roby and Hammond—says this encampment is an unusual one in its attendance. By changes in the law the membership of each company has been increased to a limit of eighty six men. Some of the companies have the full number and many run to seventy or seventy-five.

"Everybody at the state house was out of humor with the state militia Monday morning. About 500 soldiers slept on the floors of the capital Saturday night, because of the rain. The building was a sight when the janitors started to work with mops. It seemed that every soldier chewed tobacco and did not strike a cospidor all the time they were in the capitol. Mud had been tracked in and it will take the half dozen janitors two or three days to cleanse the first and second floors. Twenty-four half pint and eighteen pint bottles were found in nooks and corners."

A few weeks ago Miss Lily Vordermark, daughter of Henry Vordermark, of Maumee avenue, went to Toledo to visit relatives. Yesterday word was received in this city that she had been married in Toledo to S D. Zeis, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne, but now in the collection business in Toledo. The marriage was kept a profound secret, but leaked out last evening when the young lady did not return home to attend a party to be given in her honor. This morning her father and brother said they new nothing of the affair, and would not believe the marriage to have taken place.

A well known Fort Wayne physician unconsciously made himself the center of a great deal of attention yesterday and came near being arrested in the bargain. The physician was called to Butler street by an obstetrical case, which required his attention nearly the entire day. He left his horse hitched to the post in front of the residence. After the animal had stood there three or four hours, some of the women in the neighborhood began to be concerned and notified the police that a horse "looking as though it had been driven all night had been standing hitched for several hours" The police forthwith notified the humane officer and he in turn hunted up the doctor. What the physician's feelings were when the officer of the law knocked at the door can best be imagined, at any rate he laughed at the ridiculousness of the thing later on. He informed the officer that the good ladies were unnecessarily concerned and that he usually treated his horse humanely, but the necessity of the present case left him no other alternative but to let the horse stand.

There were three cases on trial at police court this morning, all drunks, John Barry, George Long and William Johnson. Barry was arrested on Gay street for abusing his family, by Officer Richardson. He was fined $2 and costs. The other two prisoners were arrested yesterday by Officer Hines. They were fined $1 and costs each.

His Little Joke.

A dapper young man with two big square satchels of the variety usually carried by commercial salesmen stopped on a city hall corner to get a drink of cherry phosphate.

He placed the satchels at his feet, pulled a penny from his pocket and dropped it in the slot of the machine. Then as he raised the glass to his lips a man darted quickly up behind him, seized one of the satchels and ran around the corner with it.

When the dapper young man had finished his drink, he discovered his loss.

"Police! Police!" he yelled

Then he rushed around the corner and saw a man hurrying away with the satchel. Immediately he ran after him, calling:

"Stop thief! Stop thief!"

In two minutes half the pedestrians on the walk were chasing the man with the satchel, and it wasn't long before he was caught, gasping and breathless.

When the dapper young man, who had lost his hat in the chase, arrived, he threw up both hands in amazement.

"Why, Jones!" he exclaimed.

The man who had run with the satchel looked down sheepishly. A policeman had just seized him roughly by the collar.

"Yes, Sam," he said, laughing feebly, "I've got your satchel. Thought I'd play a little practical joke on you. Wanted to frighten you."

The dapper young man explained to the policeman that Jones was his employer, Jones of Binks & Smith, wholesale jewelers, but both the men were compelled to get out their cards and papers to prove the case before the policeman would let them go

And when they were free they went back to the place near the phosphate machine, where the dapper young man had left the other satchel.

It was gone.

There was $300 worth of jewelry in it.

Mr. Jones will not soon play another practical joke.—Chicago Record

Mrs. O'Leary wanted to be forgotten, but the world, or Chicago—and Chicagoans consider the terms synonymous—would not have it that way. It is thus that some poor, shrinking souls have celebrity thrust upon them. Peace to Mrs. O'Leary's ashes.—New York Sun.

THE STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Improvements Making With Money Appropriated By Legislature.

The state benevolent, reformatory and penal institutions will soon have completed the improvements authorized by the last legislature. In speaking of these improvements the Indianapolis News says:

'Two wings are being added to the northern hospital for the insane, at Logansport One of these is for men, the other for women There will be accommodations for forty-two persons in each The foundation walls for the additions are building. The cost will be $10 000 each.

"The improvements at the eastern hospital for the insane, at Richmond, consist of a big general kitchen, two large dining rooms and a large store room for supplies and employes' quarters. The legislature appropriated $50,000 for buildings and the necessary increase in the heating plant. The scheme for increasing the capacity of this institution is to abandon most of the dining rooms in the cottages, and have the patients eat in the large dining rooms. The rooms in the cottages that have been used for dining rooms and kitchens will be converted into living rooms. It is believed that the capacity of the institution will be increased about 100 The worst class of patients will continue to take their meals in the cottages.

The Southern Hospital for the Insane received an appropriation of $30,000 for improvements, but plans for the addition have not yet been adopted.

"The Home for the Feeble Minded got $30 000 for the purchase of land and for improvements. The trustees have bought a farm of 225 acres, which makes 310 acres now owned by the institution. The land cost about $26,000 The trustees are building a large addition to the hospital. The old hospital was built when the capacity of the home was only 350 There are now over 500 children in the home, and the hospital is much too small. About $10,000 will be invested in the hospital building and equipment.

"At the state prison south seventy-two cells are being constructed for the accommodation of those prisoners that do not have a decent place to sleep. The prison officers say that this addition is very small as compared with what is needed. There are over 800 prisoners and not near enough cells for them.

"The state prison north got $5,000 for improvements. This money is being used in putting on some new roof and in other repairs.

"The reform school for boys, by authority from the legislature, has purchased another farm of 195 acres, making a total of 420 acres now owned by the institution

'The reform school for girls and woman's prison got from the legislature $5,000, with which to put in new boilers, and the money is being expended for the purpose designated. The new boilers are much larger than the old ones. The trustees of the institution are also having a large veranda built along the front of the building.

"The other state institutions did not succeed in getting from the legislature any money for betterments."

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED.

Social of Lady Maccabees at the Home of Mrs. J. W. Hippenhammer.

The Fort Wayne hive, No 6, of the Ladies of Maccabees gave a social and entertainment last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs J. W. Hippenhammer, 17 Breckinridge street, which was attended by nearly one hundred ladies and gentlemen. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served from 8:30 to 11 o'clock and an interesting musical and literary program was rendered. It consisted of a violin and piano duet rendered by the Misses Ethel and Etta Hill, recitations by Miss Josie Ropp, Miss Blanche Hippenhammer and Miss Sadie Chambers, and an instrumental and vocal selection by Evylin and Blanche Hippenhammer. The social was a most pleasant one indeed and proved Mrs. Hippenhammer to be a most charming entertainer These socials are given every few weeks by the Fort Wayne hive, which is increasing rapidly in membership, so Miss Ferguson, one of the officers, tells THE SENTINEL, since they have been granted a special dispensation from the supreme hive to receive new members without the initiation fee.

JOY FROM LOSS.

The Shaker Doctor, now at the Rich hotel, this morning removed from S Fishman a monster parasite which the reporter saw in the doctor's rooms The monster is in a tangle which shows that it made herculean efforts to resist the medicine.

The following statement explains itself:

"It is with great pleasure that I make this statement. I have been a great sufferer for the past nine years from stomach troubles, which have interferred with my earning a living for my family. I have been doctored many times by different doctors, who all said I could not be cured I heard the Shaker Doctor talk last Saturday night I called on him Sunday, and to my great surprise, he told me that I had a tape worm, which I could not believe at the time. I called on him this morning and he gave me one dose of his Shaker Herbs, and to my great surprise and joy, it removed a monster worm, head and all, in less than three hours, without sickness, pain or inconvenience of any kind, and I will say, God bless the Shaker Doctor and the medicine he sells.

HELD UP!

At Reece's Station, Near Wauseon, Ohio.

The Express Messenger Forced to Open the Safe,

But It is Believed That the Robbers Did Not Secure More Than $150—They Make Their Escape.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 24.—Shortly after midnight train No. 37, on the Lake Shore road, to which was attached an express car which runs between Buffalo and Chicago, was stopped at Reece's switch, midway between Archbold and Stryker, forty-four miles west of this city.

When some distance from the switch the engineer saw the switch was turned, displaying the red light, and as he turned on the air brakes several shots were fired at the cab. One of the shots put out the headlight.

When the train stopped four robbers went to the express car in charge of Messenger C. B. Nettleman, of Buffalo, and ordered him to come out. Nettleman refused and the robbers threatened to blow up the car. He then came out. When the door was opened the four men entered. They secured the contents of the local safe, amounting to $50 and then went at the big safe, which contained considerable money.

Since the Kendallville robbery the express company has supplied its cars with dynamite proof safes and this safe stood the test of four dynamite cartridges fired by the robbers. This discouraged them and they jumped from the train and disappeared.

James P. Stark, a clerk in Superintendent Johnson's office, of the Lake Shore road, was on the train at the time of the robbery. He was seen at his home this morning and gave the following account of the robbery:

"I think it must have been about 1 o'clock this morning when it happened. I was sleeping in the smoking car at the time and was awakened by hearing several shots as the train came to a standstill. The conductor said the train was being held up. I did not go outside to investigate, being satisfied from what I heard that something was going on.

"Shortly after hearing the shots I heard four explosions of dynamite and then all was still, and soon the train pulled out for Stryker, where we arrived at 1:30. I went into the express car afterwards and the messenger said he saw only four men. The interior of the car did not appear to be damaged, except that the windows had been shot full of holes. The only evidence about the through safe was a small dent in the door. The robbers did not make any attempt to get into the passenger coaches. When the robbers left the express car one of them shook hands with the messenger and apologised for putting him to so much trouble."

CHICAGO, July 24.—The passengers' story is that the train was nearing Reece siding, a lonely spot in the woods near Wauseon, Ohio, when the engineer saw the red light showing at the switch. He reversed his engine, and as the train came to a standstill a volley of shots rattled round the locomotive cab and express car.

Engineer Tiernan was ordered to stand out on the tender in full view, and when Conductor Darling appeared he was sent back inside his coach with a half dozen bullets as pacemakers. While one man covered the engineer the other three poured a few rounds of shot into the express car as an eye opener for the messenger, and ordering him to open the door, threatened to blow the whole train into Indiana.

Messenger C. B. Nattleton fired one shot at the robbers and then slowly opened the door. Two of the men sprang into the car and pitched Nettleton in a heap out of the door and began operations on the big safe. Several attempts to blow it open were made, but the big steel doors stood fast and with an oath the dynamiters finally gave it up. They then turned their attention to the small way safe.

Meanwhile the robbers outside were keeping up an irregular fire to prevent an attack from the passengers. Finding the small safe securely locked, two of the men picked up Messenger Nettleton and dumped him back into his car, with an imperative order to unlock the safe doors. With the cold muzzle of a revolver at the back of his neck, the messenger promptly complied and the robbers quickly cleaned out the compartments. After a few uncomplimentary remarks regarding the construction of the large safe, the men backed into the woods lining the road and, with a parting volley, disappeared in the woods.

The trainmen believe that the desperadoes were old railroad men, but as all were masked with handkerchiefs, none were recognized. The large safe which resisted the attacks of the robbers contained a large amount of money. How much, the officials refuse to say, but had the safe been opened the loss would have been very large.

CHICAGO, July 24—The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern express train which was robbed at Reece's siding, Ohio, shortly after midnight, arrived in Chicago today about on time, but with the express car in a badly shattered condition. Every window in the car was broken, the big safe, though unopened, showed the marks of dynamite, and the smaller way safe lay open in the center of the car, while the train crew and passengers showed plainly the effect of their midnight's scare. The express company's statement was to the effect that but $150 had been stolen. The trainmen were ordered to avoid newspaper notoriety. The messenger was taken to the United States express headquarters and closeted with the officials.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 24—The agent of the United States Express company in this city has received a telegram, giving brief particulars of the train robbery at Reece station last night. The exact amount of money secured could not be ascertained, as it is not known how much local money the express car carried. The opinion prevails, however, that the robbers secured between $800 and $1,000 from the United State Express company. A representative of the express company said:

"The robbery was committed near the village of Kendallville, Ind., where the big express robbery occurred about two years ago, and in the opinion of the company it was perpetrated by the same gang. The express train pulled out of Cleveland at 6:50 last evening and arrived at Reece near midnight. It is a lonely region through that section of country, well adapted to the advantages desired by thieves. Had the company not been supplied with stationary safes a large sum of money would have been taken. But those through safes are so arranged that even the messenger was unable to open them, notwithstanding that he had a revolver placed at his head and was threatened with death."

CLEVELAND, July 24.—Later a telegram was received by Superintendent Mitchell, of the United States Express company, from the messenger in charge of the car attacked by the robbers, saying that only a few packages in the local safe had been secured by the bandits. All of the money collections made between Cleveland and Toledo and at Toledo were in the large safe and the only money in the small safe was that picked up at stations between Toledo and Reece's siding. It is now believed that the largest amount possible for the robbers to have secured is but little more than $100

FIVE MEN ARRESTED.

WAUSEON, Ohio, July 24—Five men are under arrest here on suspicion of being connected with the holdup of the Lake Shore train at Reece station last night. The detectives refused to state what evidence there is against them. Two tramps who were on the train jumped off when the shooting began and ran back to Archibald and notified the Lake Shore people there, and in less than three hours a special train carrying the sheriff of the county and a posse with several Lake Shore officials and detectives arrived at the scene of the holdup. The sheriff and his men, as well as the detectives, immediately started to scour the adjacent country.

THE KESSLER GANG AGAIN.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Lake Shore detectives who were put on the case immediately after the robbery occurred believe that the work was done by the same gang of farmer brigands which held up a train at Kessler, Ind., some time ago. Several chisels, a towel in which the tools were carried and other clews were left behind when the men left the train and were secured by the detectives. The description of the leader of the bandits tallies exactly with that of the tall countryman who led the Kessler raid. His men, in both robberies, addressed him as "Jim" and in both instances displayed the same dare-devil bravado and absolute authority over his men. The railroad secret service men were confident that they would soon have the entire gang under arrest.

SAFE BLOWING SCENE.

ELKHART, Ind., July 24.—Particulars of the train robbery, received here, say there were two hundred passengers aboard the train. The robbers drove back all who attempted to get out, while four of the robbers went to the express car. During the attempted safe blowing the robbers seemed afraid of a rescue. For the last explosion a terrific charge was used. The steel chest did not yield, but the car was raised from the track, the sides bulged out and the three inch plank floor spattered. There were nine in the party. They were jocose with the train crew, saying all were disappointed at the failure, but would call again before the snow flies. While the explosions were taking place the fireman slipped away, but had gone only a few rods when the robbers gave up. He was called back and proceeded with the train. The obstruction on the track was found to consist of ties. Reece is an abandoned side track in a hollow with dense woods on each side. Years ago an organized gang of horse thieves operated in the vicinity and was broke up only by vigilantes, who hung some of the leaders. Many of the same band are said to still reside there. It is unofficially stated here that the through safe contained $75,000 in gold.

Married, July 17, at Olympia, Wash., Miss Carrie D. Green to Mr. James Kenrick Pattison, of Spokane, Wash. They will reside in Olympia. Miss Green formerly lived in this city and has relatives and many friends here. Mr. Pattison was a son-in-law of Mr. John Ferguson.

WAR IN EARNEST

Between the Indians and the Whites in the West.

The Secretary of the Interior Requests the War Department to Send Troops to Wyoming.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 24.—The Indian war has broken out in earnest. Union Pacific Engineer Robert Fitzpatrick, who pulled the north bound freight into Pocatello last night, confirmed the report that the Bannock Indians killed a settler, his wife and child in the Salt river valley, and that the white men who are pursuing the Indians killed six of them before they escaped to the mountains. Mail Carrier Vail, who arrived at Montpelier from Star valley, also told the same story.

WASHINGTON, July 24—The secretary of the interior has requested the secretary of war to send troops to the scene of the Indian disturbance in Wyoming, and it is understood that the request will be granted as soon as the official papers are issued by the secretary of war, and the troops will be ordered instantly to the vicinity of the trouble. The action of the interior department was taken upon the receipt of the following dispatch from Indian Agent Teter, who was ordered to go from the Fort Hall reservation, in Idaho, and investigate the trouble between the whites and Indians in Wyoming and to induce the Indians to return to their reservations:

FORT HALL, Idaho, July 23.—Browning, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington:—I have investigated the troubles between the Indians and settlers in Wyoming, and advise that troops be sent there immediately to protect the law abiding citizens.

"The lawless element among the settlers seemed determined to cause a conflict with the Indians. The settlers have killed four to seven Indians, which has greatly incensed the Indians, who have gathered to the number of 200 or 300 near Fall river, Uintah county, and refuse to return to their reservation.

"I find that the Indians have killed game unlawfully, according to the laws of Wyoming, though not unlawfully according to the treaty of the Indians with the United States, thus usurping the prerogatives of the settlers, which caused the trouble. Nothing but the intervention of soldiers will settle the difficulty and save the lives of innocent persons and the destruction of property.

[Signed] "TETER, Agent."

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 24—Governor Richards has received the following dispatches from Adjutant General Stitzer, who is investigating the Indian troubles. The governor will at once take action to put state troops in the field, should advices make it necessary:

MARYSVILLE, Wyo., July 24.
Governor Richards, Cheyenne, Wyo:

The Indians are in force at the junction of Granite creek and Fall river. All passes into Jackson Hole are now guarded by Indians. Captain Smith has just come in wounded in the right breast by Indians. Prospectors are driven from the mountains. Pickets are guarding the various passes. Horses are equipped ready to mount and everybody armed to the teeth.

[Signed.] STITZER.

TETON BASIN, Wyo., July 23.
Gov. Richards, Cheyenne, Wyo:

Arrived here today on the return trip. The settlers in the Basin are very uneasy. It is reported here that many Indians are leaving for the Hall to join those in the mountains. Indians from other reservations are also reported to be joining them. Letters and couriers have been sent out from Jackson's Hole to the various settlements asking for aid, and settlers have decided to go into the mountains to fight the Indians tomorrow. The settlers have given up all hope of saving their crops and are preparing to move their children and women out of Jackson Hole. (Signed.)

STITZER.

The various companies of the national guards at different points in Wyoming have been advised to hold themselves in readiness for prompt movement.

GEN. COPPINGER ORDERED OUT.

Secretary Lamont, during the afternoon, ordered General Coppinger to the scene of the disturbances and to make such disposition under his command as may be necessary to protect the settlers and secure the return of the Indians to their reservation.

YOUNG THIEF CAUGHT.

L. R. Stafford Stole $1,000 From an Arkansas County Collector.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 24—L. R. Stafford, aged sixteen years, was taken from Springfield to New Lewisville, Ark., a little town on the Cotton Belt railroad, on the charge of stealing nearly $1,000 from C. C. Von Rose, county collector there. He admitted his guilt and gave up the remainder of his plunder, $124. Mr. Von Rose said that as county collector he is compelled to have large sums of money either in his house or in his office. Stafford was a friend of his children, and through them learned of the money in the house. Early last week he got his hands on it and disappeared. Young Stafford is a son of J. W. Stafford, well known in Missouri and Arkansas.

BIG STREET RAILROAD DEAL.

Philadelphia Companies, Representing $40,000,000 to Consolidate.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 23.—A great street railroad consolidation scheme, representing more than $40,000,000, has been under consideration for some time past and is now practically complete. The companies interested are the Philadelphia, the Peoples and the Electric Traction companies, and the Hestonville, Mantua and Fairmount street railroad companies. The matter has been referred to counsel, who will draw up contracts and agreements for the biggest street railway combination ever perfected in this country. It is expected that millions of dollars will be saved by the new deal. High priced management will be disposed with, competition prevented, and litigation and the lobbyists' fees abolished, while the cost of operating the roads will be materially reduced. Peter A. B. Widener, of the Philadelphia Traction company, will probably be the head of the new company.

COLLINS SENTENCED.

Gets Twenty Years for Killing Fred Ohl.

Received the News With Stolidity and Apparently Glad That He is Let Down so Easy.

TRENTON, N. J., July 24.—John B. Collins, the negro who shot and killed Student Frederick Ohl at Princeton last June, and who was a few days ago convicted of murder in the second degree, today received a sentence of twenty years at hard labor in the state prison. Before the sentence he was required to plead to the indictment for atrocious assault upon Garrett Cochran, another student, whom he shot at the same time, and his counsel entered a plea of non vult contendre. Upon this plea Collins was sentenced to ten years more, but Justice Gummer announced that he and his associates had decided to allow the sentences to run concurrent, thus making the term only twenty years altogether. No plea for leniency was made by Collins' counsel. The negro received his sentence stolidly, and was unmoved even when Justice Gummer said that a verdict of murder in the first degree would have been proper.

He Will be Warden of the Government Prison.

Attorney General Harmon Makes the Appointment and Incidentally Praises the Appointee's Efficiency.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Attorney General Harmon has returned from a brief visit to his home in Cincinnati, and this morning announced that he had decided to appoint as warden of the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., Mr. James W. French, of Indiana. Mr. French was for five years warden of the Michigan City, Ind., penitentiary, but was recently legislated out of office. He is said to be efficient and progressive and is well known as a prison reformer. Mr. French will soon be called to Washington, when the appointment of other officials and employes will be discussed. Mr. Harmon has had an extensive correspondence with the best known prison officials throughout the country with a view to get suggestions as to prison reform, and it is his purpose to make the first United States penitentiary, if possible, the molder of all the penitentiary institutions in the country.

NEW DRIVER PUT UP.

The Corporal Wins the Stake at Detroit.

DETROIT, July 24—Sensational racing and the unexpected termination of the stake race were the features of yesterday's card at the Detroit Driving club. It was the day on which the $8,000 merchants' and manufacturers' purse for 2:24 trotters was to be decided.

The 2:10 pace furnished three heat winners and the finish occurs today. Ben D., fresh from a field of victory at Tiffin, stepped a mile in 2:06¼, beating Guinette a neck, and in the next one Coleridge came through the stretch and played the same trick on Ben D. Angie D. shot to the front right at the start of the third heat and won it all the way. She was selling at 100 to 1, and Welch was hit for $3,000 on the heat. The summaries:

Three-year-old Trotting; Purse, $2,500—Larabie, first; Oakland Baron, second; Boreal, third. Time—2:16¼, 2:14, 2:16¾, 2:17½ 2:17. Killona, Scourine, Miss Kate, Fred Kohl and Hampton finished as named. Derby Princess distanced.

2:24 class trotting, merchants' and manufacturers' stake; purse $8,000—The Corporal, first; Don L., second; Iron Bar, third. Time—2:16, 2:18¼, 2:13¼, 2:13½, 2:14¼, 2:15½. Franklin, Rosetta Soap, Tempter and Clara G. finished as named. El Rami drawn. Spinaway, Red Nutting and Aldonzo distanced.

2:10 class, pacing; purse $2,000 (unfinished)—Ben D., first; Coleridge, second; Angie D., third. Time—2:06¼, 2:06¾, 2:07. Paul, Guinette, Moonstone, Dudley, Badge, Starplex and H. J. Rockwell finished as named. Direction, Joe Bo and Atlantic King distanced.

Bandit Surrounded.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24 — John Brady, one of the bandits who held up a Southern Pacific train in Tehama county and murdered Sheriff Bogard, a few weeks ago, is said to have been surrounded by a posse near Sacramento. It is expected that he will be captured today, but as the robber is heavily armed, a desperate conflict is likely to take place.

RIVER RISING.

The Licking Goes Up Nine Feet.

Heavy Rains and Waterspouts Deluge the Upper Kentucky Regions and Cause a Flood.

CINCINNATI, July 24—Licking river, which empties into the Ohio, opposite this city, rose nine feet from midnight to 6 a. m. and is still rising. This rise threatens great damage to coal and lumber interests that are caught unawares. River men have telegraphed up the Licking, and find there was a rainfall of one and one-half inches at some points in Kentucky last night with several water spouts reported. Telegraphic communication has been so interrupted that no details of damage are available, but it is thought the storm extended to the mountains in Virginia.

FOUL WORK OF A FIEND.

Little Child Murdered and the Body Concealed in a Stable.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 23—The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gebhard, of West Indianapolis, disappeared very suddenly and mysteriously last Saturday. The parents and friends made an active and systematic search, and last evening came to the conclusion that the child had been kidnaped.

Today Mr. Gebhard found the straw hat worn by his child, all crumpled and torn and lying not far from his home, and this led him to believe that the little one had been murdered and thrown into the river. During the day a strange odor was observable about the stable, in rear of a double tenement not far from the Gebhard home, and when it was investigated the badly decomposed remains were found crammed in a box. All of the clothing had been torn away, and the body showed the most abuse. The alarm spread and a mob gathered beside itself with rage because of no object upon which to spend its force.

In some way suspicion fell upon John R. Linson, a worthless character, who went away this morning, presumably for Brightwood. The police superintendent left for that point at once. Meanwhile the bloodhounds at Seymour were telegraphed for, and the dogs will arrive early tomorrow. The suburb is crazy with excitement, and, although there is no evidence against Linson, upon which he could be convicted, he would be lynched instanter were he returned there for trial. If captured he will be kept on this side of the river.

REPORTED FOR SELLING LIQUOR.

Druggists and Saloonkeepers Are to be Prosecuted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24—The local unions of the State Liquor League held a meeting yesterday and made reports in the cases found against druggists and saloonkeepers for selling intoxicants contrary to law, and the list of names was afterward handed to the police superintendent to be given to the grand jury. The saloonkeepers say that they are determined to enforce the law, and an incident of the meeting, which led to Secretary Victor's resignation yesterday, proves that they are in earnest. Among the names presented for violations was that of Victor himself, and it was charged in the meeting that he persistently violated the law. Sam Dinnin, one of the members of the league, said that he sent four men to Victor's on Sunday to buy liquor and all of them got it.

It also developed that one of the members saw Victor make several sales last Sunday. Victor demanded that he be not reported, but finding that no exception would be made in his favor he resigned and left the meeting. The unions have at last succeeded in getting the brewers to agree to not deliver beer on Sunday.

SMITH AND RYAN MATCHED.

They Will Probably Meet in Dallas, November 1.

NEW YORK, July 24—A match for the welter weight championship between "Mysterious" Billy Smith and Tommy Ryan was arranged at the Gilsey house last night. James Wescott looked after Smith's interest, and "Parson" Davies was present on behalf of Ryan. Joe Vendig, representing the Florida Athletic club, offered a $5,000 purse for the fight. The men will probably meet in Dallas, Texas, Nov. 1, although another club offered the same amount of money for the fight. George H. Walker, a well known theatrical manager of Galveston, was present, and said that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight could not be pulled off in Dallas. Galveston would be the place chosen. Work on the amphitheater in Dallas will begin in a few days. Reports from there say that over $35,000 worth of tickets have been sold.

Washington Fire.

WASHINGTON, July 24—At 5 o'clock this morning fire started in and destroyed the building occupied by the Young Men's Christian association, on New York avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, also damaging buildings adjoining. Fire now under control. The other buildings damaged were the grocery store of C. C. Bryan and the hardware store of J. B. Lambie. Both concerns carried large and valuable stocks. The loss is heavy.

Spanish Troops Arrive.

MADRID, July 24—Official advices received here from Havana announce that a gun boat has arrived at Santiago de Cuba from Manzanillo, bringing information that two columns of Spanish troops, one under General Navarro and the other under Colonel Aldave, commanded jointly by General Lachambre and comprising 4,000 infantry, 300 cavalry and three guns, arrived on Sunday last at Nuevitas, the port of Puerto Principe; the dispatch adds that the town of Bayamo, in the province of Santiago de Cuba, where Captain General de Campos is assembling troops, has been provided with fresh stores of ammunition and provisions.

MINERS WILL STRIKE.

The United Mine Workers of America Demand an Advance of Wages or a Walkout.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24—Secretary Patrick McBride, of the United Mine Workers of America, returned today from Pittsburg, and says that if the demand there for an advance of wages August 1 is not conceded, a strike will be the result. His mail today contained a half dozen letters from as many different places, requesting a national suspension to be ordered. The Indiana miners are now out. He says: "If the Pittsburg operators grant the advance August 1, a similar advance will be granted in Ohio and Indiana. If the advance is not conceded and a strike is ordered in Pennsylvania, there can be no question but that it will extend to Ohio, and for my own part I see nothing but the calling of the different state officials together and the ordering of a general stoppage of work."

TWO BAD NEGROES.

One Will be Legally Executed at Columbus,

And the Other Will be Swung Up to a Tree if a Mob Can Get Hold of Him.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 24.—Governor McKinley having refused to interfere, Wm. Taylor, aged twenty-one, a Pocahontas coal region negro, is to be executed here at midnight for killing Farmer Yoakum, of this county, to rob him.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., July 24—Ed., alias Bud Knight, who tried to outrage Nora Hall in Adairville last night, has been captured and is in jail here. Knight laid in waiting for his victim in the outskirts of the town and attempted to carry here to a secluded spot, but her screams brought help and the villain ran. Both are colored. The negroes are greatly worked up and will lynch the prisoner tonight if they can lay hands on him.

FIVE CENTS HIGHER.

Shorts Frightened Into a Wild Scramble for Cover—Other Farm Products Firm.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Wheat went up with a wild rush today, closing almost 5 cents higher than yesterday, at 72½c. The principal cause for the sensational advance was the very light movement of winter wheat, which, with higher foreign markets, scared the shorts into a wild scramble for cover. The market started with unusual vim, opening about 1 cent higher, at 68½c. For a time trade was light, but the speculators were nervous, and every trade of any magnitude showed an immediate effect upon prices. The receipts of new wheat were very light the total receipts with last year's comparison being as follows: Chicago, receipts, 37,000, last year, 324,000; St. Louis receipts, today, 63,000, last year, 191,000; Toledo receipts, today, 41,000, last year 237,000; Detroit receipts today 5,000, last year 56,000. Total receipts today 152,000, last year 808,000. Out of the twenty-one cars received in Chicago only eighteen were new wheat and some of these contract. In addition to light receipts there was reports of crop damage and the unexpected advance abroad to aid in the rout of bears. Pardridge, who was said to be heavily short, was a liberal buyer and other big shorts also were in the run. The price had several tumbles during the day, on taking of profits, but near the finish there was a frantic rush for cover by scared shorts and the price shot skywards, closing with September at 72½c as compared with 67½ last night.

CHICAGO, July 24—Close.—Wheat, July, 71½c; Aug., 71½c; Sept., 72½c; Dec., 74½c.

Corn, July, 44½c; Sept., 44½c asked; Oct., 43c; Dec., 35½c; May, 35½c@35c asked.

Oats, July, 24½c; Sept., 23½c; May, 26½c.

Pork, July, $10.75; Sept., $10.85 asked; Jan., $10.82.

Lard, July, $6.25; Sept., $6.32@35; Oct., $6.40; Jan., $6.50 bid.

Ribs, July, $6.10; Sept., $6.17; Oct., $6.15@17; Jan., $5.67 bid.

Cash wheat, 71½c; corn, 44½c; oats 24½c; pork, $10.75; lard, $6.25; ribs, $6.10.

He Built 7,000 Miles of Railroad During Life.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 24—Robert Bruce Langdon, the well known railroad contractor and a prominent figure in the history of Minneapolis and in the politics of Minnesota, died today of hemorrhage of the bladder, aged sixty-eight. Langdon was a Vermonter and a self made man. He has built 7,000 miles of railroad. At the time of his death he was engaged in carrying out a $2,000,000 irrigation canal contract near Phoenix, Ariz. He was related by marriage to General R. A. Alger, of Detroit.

FAMILY POISONED.

Frank Brown, Wife and Son Made Very Sick.

Tim Moran, a Small Boy, Falls From a Crabapple Tree—Bicycle Accident Last Evening.

Frank Brown, porter at the city Y. M. C. A. building, together with his wife and little son, were made very ill Monday by eating pork which was unwholesome. The family lives at No. 281 East Washington street, and Sunday Mrs. Brown cooked a piece of pork with some turnips. They all ate heartily of the meat. Monday the little boy was taken critically ill and later in the day Mr. Brown was taken sick while at work and was compelled to go home. His wife ran to the nearest drug store and while getting some medicine for the rest of the family was also taken critically ill and had to be taken home in a carriage. A physician was hastily summoned and found all three in an alarming condition. Yesterday Mr. Brown was some better and today was able to come down town, but his wife and boy are still very sick.

CONCUSSION OF THE BRAIN.

This morning as a twelve-year-old lad named Tim Moran, residing at No 113 West Williams street, was picking crab apples at the residence of Pat Murphy, also of Williams street, he fell a distance of fifteen feet, alighting on his head and suffering a severe concussion of the brain. The lad was carried home and Dr. Enslen called to attend him. The boy was much better at noon and will likely be able to be out in a day or so.

A BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

A bicycle accident happened on the corner of Madison and Lafayette streets last evening in which a rider who refused to give his name ran into a delivery wagon owned by the Fair department store. The vehicle was struck squarely in the middle, and the force of the collision was so great that it was turned completely over, and the occupants, the driver and a young lady companion, thrown to the pavement. The wheelman was also thrown down and his machine almost totally demolished. Passers by who witnessed the accident hastened to the assistance of the unfortunates, and they were extricated from beneath the wreckage. The bicyclist was run over by the wagon wheels but did not seem to be dangerously hurt. Neither of the occupants of the vehicle were hurt.

HURT HIS FOOT.

Isaac Masheimer, a well known traveling salesman, is suffering from the effects of an accident which occurred some days ago. A trunk dropped upon his foot and serious complications have resulted. He has been confined to his bed ever since the accident.

VERY STRANGE ACTIONS

Feeble Minded Boy Arrested at the Wabash Yards.

Imagined He Was Switching Cars—Thought to Have Escaped From a California Institution.

This morning as Dr. Tinkham was driving along Fairfield avenue his attention was called to a young man who was creating a great deal of excitement by his strange actions in the Wabash yards. The individual was well dressed but from his actions it was very evident that he was mentally deranged. The young fellow ran up and down the tracks signalling trains, attempting to throw switches and at the same time making a noise with his mouth which sounded very much like an engine exhausting steam. The yard men took after the stranger and after a hard chase finally captured him. He said his name was Engel and that his home was in Los Angeles, Cal. He was placed in Dr. Tinkham's rig and taken to the jail. When searched it was found that his clothing was marked Wm Rogers and that he had evidently been an inmate of a state asylum near Los Angeles. Rogers claimed that he was discharged and sent east but the officers think he has escaped. The institution in California will be notified. The lad was put to work about the jail doing chores.

WAS CAUGHT HERE.

Yesterday afternoon the sheriff's deputies arrested Walter Pricket, a young man whose home is in Columbia City and whose parents are highly respected. The arrest was made upon an indictment from the Whitley county grand jury charging the young man with being implicated, with three other boys, in an assault upon a half witted girl named Schultz last April. All the boys recently disappeared from their homes. Three days ago it was reported that Pricket was in Fort Wayne and the sheriff of Whitley county notified Sheriff Clausmeier to be on the lookout for him. Yesterday it was learned that he was at the Muncie junction, and accordingly Deputy Sheriff Harrod, Pennsylvania Detective Stoll and Deputy Sheriff Clapham, of Whitley county, proceeded to the place and found their man. He was placed under arrest and lodged in jail here until evening, when he was taken to Columbia City for trial.

BURLINGTON HAS NO TRAINS.

New Jersey City Over 200 Years Old Without Local Accommodations.

BURLINGTON, N. J., July 24—Burlington is more than 200 years old, and Monday, for the first time in its long history, express trains refused to stop at the old station in the heart of the city. Instead, they stop at East Burlington, nearly half a mile distant, and those who want to take a fast train for New York or Philadelphia must walk there to board it. This is because the residents of East Broad street refused to allow the Pennsylvania Railroad company to lay another railroad track in front of their houses. The company made efforts to secure the right of way, but the Broad street property owners fought and the second track is not likely to be laid. The company threatened to remove the station to East Burlington, and did so.

FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Against Justice Chas. A. Hays, Constables John Wise and Fred W. Roembke, in the Superior Court.

A. H. Bittinger, acting as attorney for Jerome C. Caswell, has brought suit in the superior court against Charles A. Hays, John Wise and Frederick W. Roembke for damages in the sum of $2,500 for unlawful arrest and false imprisonment.

The plaintiff charges that on the 15th day of July he was arrested by said Wise, on a warrant sworn out by said Roembke before said Hays as a justice of the peace, and unlawfully deprived of his liberty for a space of two hours.

He said that after his arrest, upon the advice of said officers, the affidavit was changed from adultery to prostitution and that he was influenced to plead guilty to said latter charge and gave the defendants security for his fine and costs. For this arrest and imprisonment he asks the damages for which he sues.

SURRENDERED.

W. F. Barrett Confesses to the Murder of the Lamont and Williams Girls.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., July 24.—W. F. Barrett surrendered himself to the sheriff today as the murderer of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. He tells a straight story.

MORE EVIDENCE.

A Skull Unearthed in the Cellar of Holmes.

George Reed Kills His Wife Because She Remained Out All Night.

CHICAGO, July 24—The police assistants at work on the H. H. Holmes building under the drug store in the basement today uncovered a number of pieces of what they think are parts of a human skeleton. One piece they say held two teeth. They think they have parts of a number of ribs.

HOLMES' CASTLE WILL BE DESTROYED.

The famous "Castle" built by H. H. Holmes at Sixty-third and Wallace streets has been marked for destruction by the building department. Inspector Laughlin has sent a letter to Building Commissioner Downey, calling attention to the many defects in the structure and pronouncing it a menace to life and limb. During the exploration of the secret rooms and concealed stairways the flimsy and inflammable nature of the building was discovered.

PITZEL WAS MURDERED.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24—Detective Geyer had not arrived here up to noon, but is expected today or tomorrow, as he had written police officials that he would come as soon as he had concluded his investigations in Detroit. Both Geyer and the local detectives believe that Howard Pitzel was murdered by Holmes in the Circle house here, and his body shipped away in a trunk. Their coming investigation will be to find out here where the trunk was sent. A thorough search for the young Pitzel boy will be made here, also, although there is no hope of being successful.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 24.—George Reed, a painter, shot and killed his wife today as the result of jealous rage. The murderer was arrested. He said his wife stayed out all night and on her return home this morning he asked her where she had been. An evasive answer was given and a quarrel resulted when he taxed her with being untrue to him.

LOCAL LINES.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hamlin, of No. 94 Montgomery street, a son.

Dr. C. B. Stemen was called to Payne, Ohio, this afternoon on professional business.

The suit against Gilbert for foreclosure of a chattel mortgage, has been dismissed in the courts.

Misses Bertha Huestis and Lucila Porter go to Warsaw Friday morning to join a camping party for a few days.

Erin, the ten-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Hedges, of 151 Holman street, died last night of summer complaint. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house.

The retail clothing store clerks held a meeting last evening and were temporarily organized by the election of Homer A. Gorsline president and Isadore Friend secretary. The object of the association was fully discussed and it was resolved to secure a set of by-laws from the National Clerks association. About thirty clerks were present.

MERITED REWARD.

SALES OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never in the history of Mrs. Pinkham's wonderful Compound has the demand for it been so great as it is today. From Maine to California, from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, come the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it; and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it WILL and does positively cure those painful

Ailments of Women.

It will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life.

Every time it will cure

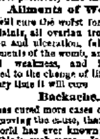

Backache.

It has cured more cases of leucorrhea by removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills work in unison with the Compound, and are a sure cure for constipation and sick-headache. Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash is frequently found of great value for local application. Correspondence is freely solicited by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., and the strictest confidence assured. All druggists sell the Pinkham's remedies. The Vegetable Compound in three forms,—Liquid, Pills, and Lozenges.

This year's trotting horse hasn't made that two-minute gait yet.

It is safe to say that no more cedar block pavements will be laid in Fort Wayne. Look at patched-up Calhoun street.

The train robbers are getting in their work again. It is about time for two or three more of these fellows to be killed.

The courts of Allen county can grind out divorces pretty nearly as fast as our ministers can perform marriage ceremonies.

People have forgotten all about Pennington's flying machine since the lady bicyclists have adopted the bloomer costume.

When the summer has gone the board of public works will begin to talk about the erection of those drinking fountains.

Our funny pictures will make you laugh. Look at the one in today's issue at the top of our railroad column on the third page.

Wedding trips are now being taken on bicycles. This is well, as the honeymoon is the exclusive season when a happy young couple can live on air.

The Ohio republicans will open the political campaign in that state on August 10 at Springfield, the home of General Bushnell their candidate for governor.

Many of our Fort Wayne people are taking summer lake trips. There is no more delightful or more healthful way of spending a vacation than in a trip on the lakes.

While the board of health are discussing measures looking to the prevention of the spread of diphtheria, they ought to see to it that the sewers of the city are flushed.

The other counties in this congressional district are hereby notified that the next democratic candidate for congress from the Twelfth district will have his residence in Fort Wayne.

Ohio is getting crazy hot over the elections held in that state this fall. Indiana is as cool as a cucumber, at least as far as politics are concerned. Every other year is enough for us Hoosiers.

We notice that some of our exchanges still speak of the Kentucky election as due to occur in August. Under the old constitution they would have been right, but the new constitution fixes election day on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

An Ohio man, who is being sued for breach of promise, makes the defense that he proposed and was accepted on Sunday, and that according to the laws of that state contracts made on Sunday are not legally binding.

J. F. H. Tatman has sold a one-third interest in the Connersville Times and News to William F. Downs and Mrs. Della C. Hull. Mr. Downs will look after the editorial management of both papers and B. L. Tatman, city editor for three years, will retire to take a long contemplated course in college.

If the people of this country do not soon become familiar with the pros and cons on the silver question it will not be the fault of the champions of gold and silver. Horr and Harvey get a whack at newspaper readers every day and this is supplemented about every other day with a speech or an interview on the financial issues from some one of the "big guns" of the nation.

Readers of The Sentinel who fail to look over our railroad columns each day miss half the local news. They always contain interesting reading matter about people whom almost everybody knows. The inside of The Sentinel is just as newsy as the outside, and that is the feature that has sent its circulation up to the point it is. Our aim is to cover the news of the whole city and in this we have been successful.

Mayor Cronek, of Muncie, is setting his foot down on pernicious papers that come into that city for circulation by fining the agent of one of these filthy sheets $25 and costs. He held that papers whose chief motive is to chronicle crime and lewd acts come within the prohibitory statutes of Indiana. Mayor Oakley ought to wake up on this subject and be as vigorous in enforcing the law against this evil as he is in enforcing the law in other directions. That he has not done so leaves him subject to the severest censure.

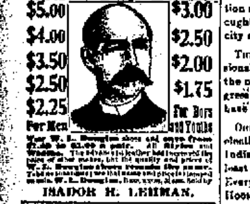

The Chicago Times-Herald favors a short presidential campaign next year and says the national nominating conventions ought not to be held earlier than the second week in September. As a preliminary to these, the state and district conventions for the appointment of delegates should be called about the first of September. The Sentinel is with the Times-Herald on this subject. There is not a bit of use in having the country turned upside down for six months simply because of a presidential election. This was an idea inaugurated by our forefathers when stage coaches were the fastest means of travel and the telegraph was unknown. The people of today are ready to nominate candidates in September and vote for them in November.

It is to be regretted that the officials of any church should be so foolish as to place under ban in this country the Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Sons of Temperance and forbid their members from joining these charitable and benevolent societies, and in doing so they are certainly following bad advice and acting upon information given them concerning these orders which is altogether untrue. The three orders named above do not antagonize religion, nor do the principles which they teach and practice conflict with any denomination of the church which recognizes a supreme being and the brotherhood of man. Their purpose is to make better citizens, to extend the helping hand in time of distress and misfortune and as such they ought to have the indorsement and hearty co-operation of every religious denomination. The churches that oppose these societies are simply working against the best interests of mankind and showing their ignorance of the principles upon which these fraternal organizations are founded.

The general fall in prices of all kinds of commodities in this country between 1873 and 1894 was 43 per cent. It is interesting to note that wheat fell 62 per cent, nearly 20 per cent more than the general average, showing how the sudden opening up of the great wheatfields of the northwest for a time glutted the world's markets and drove prices down. Meat foods, on the other hand, fell off during the periods named only 27 per cent, indicating, if meat producers had had the intuition to discern it, that the population was increasing faster than the beef, mutton and pork supply. The fact that for a year or two beef cattle were very low in price does not alter the general conclusion. The demand for animal food of all kinds, both meat and dairy products, is still crowding the supply very close. Next to animal products the articles that fell off least in the general decline were tea, coffee and sugar, 30 per cent. Textile fabrics declined nearly half, while metals and minerals in general, owing to the unprecedented discoveries of rich silver and other mines in the west, declined 56 per cent, nearly as much as wheat.

The decision of Archbishop Kain of the St. Louis diocese in reference to Roman Catholic G. A. R. members will settle in time a question that has been an issue between the church and the veterans for a number of years. In some places priests forbade the burial with G. A. R. rites and ceremonies of comrades who were members of their flock. They would not permit the comrades of the deceased to appear in church at his funeral wearing the uniforms and insignia of the order; neither would they officiate at funerals where the G. A. R. burial service was read. By the decision of Archbishop Kain hereafter in his diocese the G. A. R. veterans may enter Catholic churches wearing their uniforms and may read their burial service over the body of a deceased comrade in Roman Catholic cemeteries.

The failing sight of Gladstone was the greatest calamity that could have overtaken the Liberal party and Ireland. The passing of the Liberals was undoubtedly owing to the unseemly quarreling of the Irish factions, but that would not have brought matters to such a pass had there been one man in the Liberal party with brains enough to hold it together.

STATE NEWS.

Three long gravel roads are to be constructed from Elwood to other points, aggregating ten miles in length. The contracts for their construction, have been let. L. A. Haines, getting one, and Newton Burke, of Anderson, the others. The cost of building them will be $7,000.

Richmond has a branch of the Good Citizens' league which, though but two weeks old, has become very active. There is a large membership, and the league has determined that it will give aid to the police officers in the enforcement of the Nicholson liquor law. The members do not intend to make war upon the saloonists themselves but will see to it that the officers of the city shall prosecute all violators, and they will insist that this be done without delay.

Postoffice Inspector Lawrence Leatherman, while at his home at Valparaiso, was awakened at night by the presence of a burglar in his room, who held a cocked revolver to his head and coolly ordered him to be quiet. Leatherman observed the caution while the burglar slowly backed from the room and made his escape. Leatherman then sprung to his valise for his revolver, only to find that the burglar had possessed himself of the weapon, $105 50 cash and other valuables.

Elder Covert, of Anderson, who is warring on spiritualism and is making a special fight because of the spiritualistic camp meeting at Chesterfield, has ordered a tent capable of seating 3,000 people, which he will pitch close by the camp grounds. He will also go to Benton Harbor and Bangor, Mich., to pay his respects to Medium King, who is particularly well known in that section. Yesterday he posted notices reflecting very severely on Medium Foster, of Columbus, Ohio, whom he warned against venturing inside the state.

The Catholics of Richmond are taking great interest in the movement looking to calling a national conference of representative Catholics who are members of the endowment or insurance societies of the Masonic, Knights of Pythias, Sons of Temperance and other secret societies, which have been placed under the ban by the church at Rome, the idea being to prepare a statement to be laid before the pontiff, showing the great injustice that will be done to a large army of faithful Catholics if the proscription is enforced as rigorously as the action of many prelates in America would signify. It is estimated that there are fully 3,000,000 Catholics in the United States who carry endowments in these various societies, the majority of whom are no longer young, and who could not at this late day secure reinsurance in standard companies. The proposed conference will be held in September.

MONROEVILLE NEWS.

MONROEVILLE, Ind., July 22.

The summer normal at the Knouse college, west of town, closed today.

Farmers have completed the lightest harvest ever experienced here. With the exception of wheat the harvest was an exceptional light one.

J. W. Smith, the reliable Monroeville merchant, has charge of conveying the "darkies" to and from the camp grounds.

A picnic and festival will be given at Robinson's grove Thursday, Aug. 15.

A colored camp meeting is in progress at Robinson's grove, east of this place, but it is not meeting with much success financially. It is not conducted in a proper manner and its character is not such as to commend it to any community.

The Nicholson liquor law is meeting with favor among our liquor men and they report business as brisk as before the law was enforced, although they act in obedience to the law. Much of the carousing is dispensed with and a stricter cash business can be maintained.

George B. Lawrence, of Lafayette township, the actuary for the Allen County Farmers' Mutual Insurance company, was in town Wednesday and adjusted satisfactorily the damage caused by lightning a few days ago to the residence on the Cole farm, west of town.

The street improvements here will be completed in a few days, so says Assistant Engineer Rollins. It will add much to the appearance of our little city, although it will go deep into the pockets of the property owners along the said improvements. The sidewalks along these improved streets have by an ordinance been ordered constructed anew, of either brick, block stone or cement. Jacob Bailes and J. H. Jones, contractors of Fort Wayne, already have a number of walks contracted for.

The outgoing township trustees are busy preparing their final report which will be submitted to the county commissioners August 1. We are confident that the township affairs in the southeastern part of the county were never better managed. Trustee O'Rourke, of Jefferson township, was elected for the short term and the limited experience given him, makes him the coming man in '98. Credit is due Trustee McConnel, of Jackson, for the business like method introduced in the affairs of the township. Mr. McConnel served the people of Jackson as trustee with dignity and honor for seven years and four months. The affairs of Monroe township were faithfully cared for by Trustee C. Hoffman. His interest in the schools and public highways were always for the best, and the poor under his charge did not suffer. A better public officer Madison never had than Trustee Franke. His ever watchful eye, his diligence, his integrity made him friends among both democrats and republicans and he will retire on August 5th with the esteem of all.

CHILD MURDERED.

Little Ida Gebhard Found in a Tool Chest.

The Poor Little One Horribly Cut and Mutilated Before Life Had Left the Body.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24.—The mystery surrounding the murder of Little Ida Gebhard, whose mutilated body was found in a tool chest last night, is still unsolved. Early this morning, John F. Linson, formerly a railroad engineer, who, according to his own story, has been a wanderer all over the world, was arrested for the crime, but an almost complete alibi has been established for him. He was recently released from the Elgin, Ills., insane hospital, and is a morphine fiend. The post mortem today developed the fact that the child had been horribly cut with sharp knife after the manner of the London ripper. She was thus mutilated before the assault.

A BIG THIEF.

Frederick T. Smith Robbed His Employers.

Put the Firm's Jewelry and Diamonds in "Soak" in the Sum of $25,000.

DENVER, Col., July 24.—Evidence has been secured which indicates that Frederick T. Smith, the missing manager of the John W. Knox Jewelry company, and son in law of John W. Knox, fled to Mexico, intending to sail thence to Japan. Benedict and Phelps, attorneys for Knox, say that Smith ran the company into debt $40,000 to $50,000. They also say that he raised $25,000 before his departure by putting up the company's diamonds as collateral.

HEAVY RAINS.

Causing Floods in Nebraska and Colorado.

CHADRON, Neb., July 24.—A hard rain last evening near Hot Springs, S. D., raised Fall river several feet, washing three bridges and considerable of the grade of the Elkhorn railroad, on the Hot Springs branch.

LAJUNTA, Colo., July 24.—The heavy rains have flooded the country east of Nepheste to Lakin, Kas., swelling the Arkansas river four inches higher than ever known here. The county wagon bridge here, nearly 2,000 feet in length, has gone out and the families in the low lands have moved to higher ground. Thousands of dollars worth of flumes and bridges will be lost. The Santa Fe railroad bridge is damaged so that trains cannot cross.

BLOOMERS IN CHICAGO.

How the Unique Club Disciplined Two Members Who Appeared in Skirts.

The Unique Cycling club of Chicago is all that its name implies. One of its laws is that on all runs bloomers and knickerbockers shall be worn, and two members who disobeyed this rule recently met with a punishment that they will not forget soon. Union park was the rendezvous for the last run, and 50 members turned out. The president, Mrs. Langdon, and the captain, Miss Banker, observed two women wearing short skirts over their bloomers.

"Take the skirts off," ordered Captain Banker.

"Indeed we won't," was the reply.

A crowd of 300 had collected to see the start. The president and the captain held a consultation, and then, taking several strong armed members with them, fell on the skirt wearers and stripped them down to their bloomers.

"It was done in all seriousness," said Mrs. Langdon. "The club rules are made to be kept and not to be broken. Why did we take off the skirts in public? For no other reason but to make examples of the offenders. They publicly defied our rules and were punished accordingly."—American Wheelman.

DON'TS FOR WOMEN RIDERS.

Don't be a fright.
Don't faint on the road.
Don't wear a man's cap.
Don't wear tight garters.
Don't forget your toolbag.
Don't attempt a "century."
Don't coast. It is dangerous.
Don't boast of your long rides.
Don't criticise people's "legs."
Don't wear loud hued leggings.
Don't cultivate a "bicycle face."
Don't refuse assistance up a hill.
Don't wear clothes that don't fit.
Don't neglect a "light's out" cry.
Don't wear jewelry while on a tour.
Don't race. Leave that to the scorchers.
Don't wear laced boots. They are tiresome.
Don't imagine everybody is looking at you.
Don't go to church in your bicycle costume.
Don't wear a garden party hat with bloomers.
Don't contest the right of way with cable cars.
Don't chew gum. Exercise your jaws in private.
Don't wear white kid gloves. Silk is the thing.
Don't ask, "What do you think of my bloomers?"
Don't use bicycle slang. Leave that to the boys.
Don't go out after dark without a male escort.
Don't go out without a needle, thread and thimble.
Don't try to have every article of your attire "match."
Don't let your golden hair be hanging down your back.
Don't allow your dear little Fido to accompany you.
Don't scratch a match on the seat of your bloomers.
Don't discuss bloomers with every man you know.

ALL KINDS OF MONEY.

UNITED STATES TREASURY EXHIBIT AT THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

Curious Old Bonds and Notes—England's Check For Damages Done by the Alabama—Rare Old Colonial Notes—An Interesting Array.

Register J. Fount Tillman of the United States treasury will send from his bureau to the Atlanta exposition one of the most interesting and attractive exhibits to be furnished for that occasion by the United States government. The exhibit—then rather incomplete in some of its details—attracted widespread attention at the Columbian exposition in Chicago.

Since then many new features have been added until now it forms the most complete collection of all issues of money of this government in existence. It is not only valuable to those interested in the financial history of this country, but it serves as well to illustrate the great and rapid advance made in the art of engraving. The first attempts to engrave notes were crude and rough, while the later efforts are the beautiful works of art with which every one is familiar.

The exhibit contains specimens of treasury issues of every form, made on account of the various loans, since the foundation of the government, grouped and arranged in chronological order. Added to this is a full and well preserved collection of colonial money, which is valuable as well as interesting. The government was compelled to purchase this collection by piecemeal from various persons who were holding the money as souvenirs, and a good price was paid for the necessary pieces to complete the collection. One of the features of the exhibit is the continental money. All the issues of the 13 original states are represented, embracing all dates, denominations and conditions of payment. The exhibit includes continental money, colonial money, specimens of the issues of the late Confederate States, both currency and bonds; United States bonds, United States currency, national bank notes, bills of broken wildcat banks in active operation before the civil war, and the check which England made out in favor of this country for depredations committed by the steamer Alabama on the commerce of the United States.

The earliest issue of bonds, then known as "loan office certificates," as shown in the exhibit, was made in 1776 on account of the first loan this government negotiated with France. Then follow in order of date specimens of bonds issued to replenish the treasury from time to time during the progress of the Revolutionary and civil wars down to the present time, the last loan being that of 1895, redeemable in 1925. As shown by the specimens, the earliest coupon bonds were issued in 1842. It was then that this government adopted the two forms of bonds, now so popular, the coupon and registered. The specimens of the bonds, notes, fractional currency and other evidences of debt under all acts of congress issued on account of the heavy loans entailed by the civil war form a fine and historic collection of the reminders of those stirring times.

The "loan office certificates" are probably as interesting as any other feature of this collection. Many have the interest figured out on the edge of the note, showing that the holders had puzzled their heads to find out what Uncle Sam owed them. On one of the colonial notes, issued in 1774, are inscribed the words, "To counterfeit is death." Some severe penalty was necessary, for any ordinary schoolboy with a quill pen could have reproduced the note exactly, so crude and rough was its execution. Among the bonds are found a great number of District of Columbia notes of indebtedness, issued for all sorts of purposes. The bonds of the large 4 per cent loan of the late war times have a place in the exhibit, and they take up quite a good deal of space. They are both coupon and registered bonds, the highest denomination of the former being $1,000, and that of the latter being $50,000. The $50,000 registered bond is the largest ever issued by this government. No coupon bond is issued with a higher denomination than $1,000. The last loan, that of 1895-1925, is a 4 per cent one, and the bonds are beautiful works of art. They are made in the shape of a United States flag, with the coupons taking the place of the stripes, and one of these bonds takes up the entire space on a single leaf of the exhibit.

The check which England paid to this country on account of the Alabama claims is a gold certificate and is made out for the sum of $15,500,000. On the back it is indorsed by many names, the most prominent of which are those of Edward Thornton, then the English minister to this country; Hamilton Fish, secretary of state, and William A. Richardson, secretary of the treasury.

The collection is mounted on two separate columns, each 7 feet high. Thirty-two frames are swung on hinges to these columns, and in these frames the notes are mounted. They are well arranged and are lettered and grouped in an artistic manner.—Washington Star.

Bismarck on Women.

Here is what Prince Bismarck said to a deputation of Silesian ladies on May 18:

"I always regret that so little influence in politics is allowed to the better half of the human race. I do not expect ladies to deliver speeches in parliament, but I believe that the results of our elections would be more national and more satisfactory if they were more under female influence than now. Honest German women, wives and mothers, do not appear in public as socialists, and I therefore believe that female sympathy with our political institutions is a much stronger bulwark against social democracy than our revolution bill would have been if it had been passed."—Review of Reviews.

NO BLOOMERS FOR LILLIAN.

A Simple Suit and a Skirt Are the Prima Donna's Choice For Cycling.

Having smashed masculine hearts, hypnotized managers, charmed obdurate critics and swayed vast audiences, sumptuous Lillian Russell has subjugated the some time refractory wheel. To the velvet voiced prima donna the saddle of a bicycle is but a newer throne, taking the place of that property dais from which she has so often calmly surveyed her triumph over doubting first nighters. And Miss Russell on a wheel is as potent a drawing card as she has been upon the operatic stage.

She took her third lesson recently, and, mark you, wheeling sisters, she does not "wabble." Miss Russell's little girl, Lillian, Jr., better known as Dunghty, took her first lesson at the same time, and enthusiasts declared that the child's first attempt was something really wonderful. At any rate, both mother and daughter were well pleased with their progress. Miss Russell said in one breath that she considered cycling the most exhilarating of experiences, and that she could never adopt bloomers. Her intention is to get a quiet, simple suit with a skirt. While she thinks that many women look well in double barreled petticoats, Miss Russell will none of them on her own ample figure, and her sisters agree with her in this opinion.

"Who would have thought it?" said a chic looking enthusiast, while adjusting her own well fitting bloomers. "I was nearly knocked flat when I heard her veto bloomers. Why, I had felt sure that she would adopt knickerbockers of the most ultra cut."—New York Sun.

MILLIONS OF BIBLES.

The Work of the American Bible Society For the Past Year.

The seventy-ninth annual report of the American Bible society, which covers the work of that organization in printing and circulating the Scriptures during the past year, has just been published. The society has distributed more volumes in China during the year than in any preceding year since it began its operations there. In Japan, too, the Bible committee has been able to accomplish a great deal of work among the soldiers of the Japanese army. More than 1,500,000 Bibles, Testaments and integral portions of the Bible were printed by the society within the year, and over 1,000,000 of them were printed on the presses in the Bible House, New York, and more than 600,000 were printed in foreign lands. Through purchases of additional volumes the total number printed and procured by the society amounted to 1,058,074 copies. Of these 947,103 volumes were issued from the Bible House and 634,098 in foreign lands. Of the volumes issued from the Bible house 101,196 copies were sent to foreign lands and are not counted among the issues in foreign countries.

Of the issues of 947,103 volumes from the Bible House 845,907 have been for the home supply. On account of the falling off of the receipts the society was compelled to restrict its colportage work to a considerable extent. Only 27 colporteurs have been employed for the whole or a part of the year in 12 states and two territories. The colporteurs visited 71,079 families and found 13,634 without the Scriptures. The number of families visited by the American Bible society and its auxiliaries was 516,798, of which 110,244 were found to be without the Scriptures. Destitute families were supplied to the number of 34,290, and individuals in addition to the number of 10,082.

SUSAN'S LAST DITCH.

How the Woman Suffragists Have Taken the Bull by the Horns.

Susan B. Anthony has assumed a position that is truly advanced. At a large gathering of equal suffrage women in Topeka, she drafted and had passed a resolution setting forth that, as the men of Kansas had refused to permit women to vote, it was the duty of every self respecting woman in the state to fold her hands and refuse to help any moral, religious or charitable reform until the adjective "male" is stricken from the constitution.

This resolution, which received a unanimous vote, will do more, if carried out conscientiously, than anything woman has yet done to liberate her sex from the irksome duties that appertain to a moral, religious or charitable life. Susan, to put it plainly, has taken the suffrage bull by the horns. When a woman puts her foot down and says distinctly that if she cannot have her own way, then she will not bother about such things as moral, religious or charitable obligations, you may know, as the old saying is, that she doesn't care whether school keeps or not.

Viewed calmly, this is a straight cut to complete emancipation. The spectacle of 100,000 resolute Kansas women, with their hands folded, stubbornly refusing to do unto others as they would be done by and disclaiming all interest in their immortal souls to "get square" with man, is one to make the saints squirm and the devil chuckle.

Susan B. Anthony is a tireless fighter, and she appears to have taken to the last ditch.—New York World.

New Sort of Poker.

A new variation of poker has sprung up. It deals out the entire pack in equal numbers to all players. If five are playing, for example, each will get ten cards at the start. If seven are playing, each get seven, the three cards left over being put aside. Then, instead of drawing, each player discards as he likes from his hand so that he shall have five cards to play with, making the best hand possible out of those dealt him. Hands are apt to run high in this sort of game. It is called Peculiar.

A poker in which six cards were dealt, discards and draws being so regulated that only five cards constituted the final hand, has been known for some time, but this is a further development of that idea. It is said to have originated along the shores of Long Island.—New York Sun.

The Proper Care of Tire Valves.

No small percentage of the trouble that cyclists experience with their tires is caused by the valves and the lack of judgment that the riders display in the use of them. A valve should never be screwed up with a wrench, pair of pliers or not even as tight as it can be screwed with the fingers. Such procedure will in a brief time ruin the rubber washer, and then all the tightening in the world will not prevent its leaking.—Chicago Tribune.

CURES DYSPEPSIA.

A New Preparation, Pleasant, Harmless, Simple, Prepared Solely for Weak Digestion.

A new remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion, very highly recommended by Dr. Harland and Dr. Jennison and other prominent physicians is a combination in tablet form of vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin and Golden Seal. One of these tablets should be dissolved in the mouth after each meal and according to Dr. Jennison the effect seems to be that the food is perfectly and promptly digested, before it has time to sour and ferment, which causes all the mischief.

So popular have these tablets become with people who have any form of indigestion that they are now sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are not a secret patent medicine, but as related above contain vegetable and fruit essences, pepsin and Golden Seal in a form absolutely safe and pleasant to take.

A few of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be carried in the pocket and taken after meals and whenever there is any pain or discomfort in the stomach. They cure sour stomach, heartburn, bloating, gas, palpitation and all symptoms arising from disordered digestion. All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 Cents for full sized package, or sent prepaid by mail from Stuart's Co., Marshall, Mich.

Lyon Medicine Co., Indianapolis, Ind.:

GENTS—I think it my duty to send this statement to you of the benefit I have received from LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. I have been afflicted for twenty years with stomach trouble of the severest nature. Would have seasons of the severest suffering from one to two months at a time. Between these times of suffering was never longer than three months. There was never any time that I was entirely free from misery more or less. These spells of great suffering would sometimes come on with sickness and vomiting, and other times would cause a form of rheumatism but would finally center itself in my stomach. I have doctored with a great many physicians, but none of them could tell me what the trouble was. I was unable to get relief until I got LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. It is now sixty days since I began taking this medicine, and am now for the first time in twenty years free from pain and misery. I am compelled to say it is a blessing to a poor man.

BOOMING TIMES.

The Pittsburg Shops Come Out From Their Lethargy.

And the Men Now Have All the Work They Can Do—Affairs on the Road and in the Office.

Affairs in the Pittsburg shop begin to assume the proportions of a boom. The force of workmen is larger and the work days longer than they have been since the early part of 1893. This state of affairs is due to improvement in the business on the road and the demand for rolling stock. Seven class K engines are to be built here this year, and so far only one of them has been completed. The others will be turned out as fast as possible, and to hasten matters the men engaged in building frames for them have been instructed to work thirteen hours per day until the work is done. In the car shop the car builders are also busy. The force has been doubled in certain departments and twenty cars will be turned out each week, instead of ten, as had been the rule for some months. At present the carpenters are working upon an order for 200 gondola cars.

RAIL MENTION.

Nickel Plate Fireman Dixon is enjoying a brief vacation.

Boilermaker M. J. Groves, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

Blacksmith Anthony Girard, of the Pittsburg shops, is sick and off duty.

Mrs. T. Z. Babcock, wife of the engineer at the electric works, is quite ill.

Ed Shaw, of the electric works, is in St. Louis, looking after the interests of the company.

The Lake Shore people are in the market for thirty new engines of the ten-wheel type.

Nickel Plate Conductor D. B. Benbow, who had a hand burned some days ago, is at work again.

Nickel Plate Engineer Lee Larimore went out on his run yesterday, after a ten days' vacation.

The Pittsburg shops turned out engines 1 and 156 this morning and took in for repairs engines 904 and 120.

Gus Tassler, who had a finger mashed a few days ago resumed work in the Pittsburg tank shop this morning.

Conductor John Tresse and Brakeman J. W. Murphy, of the Nickel Plate, are taking a few days' vacation.

George E. Campbell, transfer clerk at the Lake Shore warehouses, is with the Zollinger battery at the encampment.

Conductors Holly, Mollman and R. A. Myers, of the Nickel Plate, resumed their train duties yesterday, after a few days' lay off.

William Godarke, section foreman on the Pittsburg road at Washington, Ohio, had a leg broken yesterday by a rail falling upon it.

A. G. Geion, general manager of the Monon at Lafayette, who has been very ill for some weeks, is improving, and on Sunday rode out for a short distance.

The removal of George H. Judy from the city created a vacancy in the board of directors of the Fort Wayne Building, Loan and Savings association, and at the meeting last night Jasper Metsner, a conductor on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, was elected to the board.

Contractor Herman Tapp is building the abutments for a bridge for the Pennsylvania company at Washington, Ohio.

H. L. Magee, general superintendent of the Wabash lines, is spending a couple of weeks with his wife at Excelsior Springs.

I. P. Kickley, Pennsylvania passenger conductor, has taken a vacation and will visit Washington, D. C., and other eastern cities.

Frederick H. Boester, the contractor, is preparing to build an addition to the house of Mrs. Nora B. Hughes, at 244 West Wayne street.

Wabash Plaindealer: "Herbert Law, of Fort Wayne, is in the city putting up the electric fixtures in the residences of M. E. Kennedy and W. P. Jones."

E. G. Cotner, a painter in the Pittsburg shops, left for Logansport last evening, upon the receipt of a telegram stating that his sister died at noon yesterday.

A dispatch from St. Paul says President Hill, of the Great Northern, has gone to New York to resume negotiations for acquiring control of the Northern Pacific.

President Jeffrey, of the Denver and Rio Grande, and Vice President Thompson, of the Pennsylvania, have returned from their European trip and are at their posts of duty again.

The Sunday excursion business on Indianapolis lines has grown to immense proportions. Last Sunday it required 174 coaches to handle the incoming and outgoing excursionists.

Lawrence Carbaugh recently was promoted to a fireman on the Wabash road and is today moving his family to Andrews. For some time Lawrence had been employed in the Wabash shops.

The Lake Erie and Western is running its shops full time and full handed, and its entire equipment is being put in the best condition. A number of its engines have recently been thoroughly rebuilt.

Brakeman J. W. Bowdine, of the Nickel Plate, is confined to his room with a sprained ankle. Monday night he jumped off his train at Glasgow avenue switch, stepped upon a roundstone and turned his ankle with the above result.

Charles Damon, night engineer at the Bass works, is still unable to work on account of the serious condition of one of his daughters, who was prostrated by inhaling the fumes of burning drugs applied by burglars a few nights ago. The other members of the family have recovered from the poison.

Reliable and official information is that upon investigation the reports of forest fires in northern Michigan are found to be greatly exaggerated and misleading. There is little, if any, more fire than is usual at this season of the year and tourists need apprehend no danger or inconvenience on that account.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "The class P engine recently sent west by the Pennsylvania to run on the Vandalia on Sunday made the run from Clayton to the union station, Indianapolis, in twenty-one minutes; distance, twenty miles. The nineteen miles from Clayton to the Belt road was run in a little less than seventeen minutes. The train consisted of eight cars, including two sleepers."

The Wabash is rebuilding engine No. 470 from the ground up. The tank is already complete.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Braungard—a son. The father is a turner at the Fort Wayne furniture works.

Mrs. W. H. Moore, wife of the Wabash engineer, will go to Toledo tomorrow to spend a few days with friends.

Conductor Jehiel Fox, of the Pittsburg road, has gone to California for a sojourn of several weeks on the Pacific coast.

During the absence of John Murphy, who is sick, John Feiderspeil is running the drill press at the electric works.

Machinist Alex Muirhead, of the Wabash shops, and his family will be the guest of friends at Churubusco over Sunday.

Conductor George Fosler, who has charge of the Wabash's New Haven run, has returned from Toledo, where he was the guest of relatives for about one month.

Last Sunday the Pennsylvania company ran an excursion from Indianapolis to Louisville, making the rate for the round trip $1.50. There were 1,874 tickets sold.

Matt Klaren, who has worked some months in the Wabash shops and yards, has been promoted to fireman and given a run on the eastern division of the main line.

Miss Rose Weber, of the transformer department of the electric works, has gone to Rome City to remain several weeks, in the hopes that a sojourn there will restore her health.

The lawn social which was to have been given on the 23d by the ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. at the home of Mrs. A. K. Makepeace, has been postponed until Thursday, the 25th.

Townley, a station on the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western road, fifteen miles east of this city, is to be abolished and a new town named Tillman is to be established twelve miles east of Fort Wayne.

C. L. Deeler, Fred and Henry Mennowisch, of the Pittsburg shops, are members of an orchestra which will accompany the Catholic Benevolent Legion's excursion party to Bawbees lake tomorrow.

The Trunk Line association has voted to abolish all outstanding contracts. Shippers will have no redress, as such contracts, unless reported to the interstate commerce commission, are in violation of the law.

The Orpheus Singing society and a number of their friends are enjoying an outing at Rome City today. There were seventy-five in the party which went down to the resort this morning and others went this afternoon.

William Sherboody, the electrician at the Pittsburg shops, and Miss Augusta Stephan, the accomplished daughter of Julius C. Stephan, clerk in the Pittsburg freight house, were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, 32 Wall street. After a reception and banquet the bride and groom left over the Grand Rapids road for Mackinac Island, where they will remain about two weeks. Upon their return here they will go to housekeeping.

General Foreman W. S. Cooper, of the Wabash shops, is entertaining Mr. W. M. King, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. King is a locomotive engineer and is employed on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road.

The Pennsylvania company has issued a new time table book, which beats its predecessors in neatness of work and general make up. A large colored map is found in the center of the book, showing the parent road and all its branches and connecting lines.

E. C. Penningroth has resigned his position in the Wabash shops to engage in the grocery business on South Hanna street. He worked ten years in the shops, commencing as an apprentice in the machine department, and is highly esteemed by the shopmen, who wish him success in his new enterprise.

Miss Emilie A. Tyler, telegrapher at the Wabash office, is enjoying her annual vacation. She went to West Lebanon, Ind., this morning, where her parents reside, expecting to be absent about a month. Miss Fredericka H. Scholemeyer, who is the night operator, has taken Miss Tyler's place at the instrument.

K. F. Smith, superintendent of the voluntary relief department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, has prepared a statement showing the per cent of employes in the different branches of the service that are members of the relief department, as follows: Officers, agents and clerks, 63 per cent; telegraph operators, 53; conductors, 89; brakemen, 79; enginemen, 85; firemen, 66; yardmen, 67; shopmen, 65; trackmen, 30.

Thomas H. Hibbins, who has charge of the depot stores along the line of the Pittsburg road, Crestline to Chicago, has fixed his car up and will in a few days, start out on his annual tour, which usually consumes eight or ten weeks. He will be accompanied this year by A. Beyrau. The car is one of the ordinary baggage cars, equipped with berths, stoves, ice box and all the culinary implements and while out on the road Messrs. Hibbins and Beyrau will live in it.

The controversy existing between the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western railroad and Francis Parnin, of Jackson township, concerning right-of-way, has been amicably settled and taken out of court. One year ago the railroad company selected three men, who appraised the damage for right-of-way at $300, while at the same time Mr Parnin selected sixteen men, who appraised the damage at $854. The company, a few days ago, settled by paying Mr. Parnin $600.

The Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway company and the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western Railway company were represented before the state board of tax commissioners at Indianapolis yesterday. In reference to the report of the latter road the Indianapolis Journal says: "A. A. Parman, the representative of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western, asked that his road be assessed at a nominal sum this year. The road has never been assessed before. It is a new line, which is intended to be made a trunk line between Chicago and New York. The route surveyed between the two cities is represented to be 148 miles shorter than any line between Chicago and New York now in operation. Seventeen miles of the road in Indiana, has been completed and is in operation."

The first Niagara Falls excursion of 1895 will be run over the Nickel Plate road, August 10. Ask agents for time and rates. 15tf

OUR SOLDIER BOYS.

How They Pass Their Time at the Encampment.

Last night's Indianapolis Sun contains the following concerning the encampment in that city:

"Life in the white duck town of Fairview was more endurable Tuesday than at any time since the encampment opened. For two days the soldiers sweltered in their winter weight uniforms, but Tuesday morning it was cool and cloudy. Since Sunday morning the troops have had plenty of work to do, from 6:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., and they have, since the change in the weather carried on camp duties with more vim. There were a number of prostrations from the heat Monday, and the Second regiment hospital had fifty calls for aid.

"An order has been issued by General McKee that soldiers shall not leave the camp unless for sickness or on pressing business. It has caused some of the troops to complain, as the Indianapolis girls who invaded the camp Sunday, made a number of prisoners and dates. There was, consequently, a heavy demand for permits to go to town Monday night, but the officers were obdurate.

"Company B, Third regiment, of Fort Wayne, composes the population of "Chinatown." The mess tents are named Old Homestead, Gentle Five, Blue Bull, Five Old Soaks, Peggy do Little, Hard Pan, Unknown and Sleepy Two.

"'We's de toughest blokes in de camp—see?' said one of the privates. 'We's got a reputation to keep up and we's goin' to do it.'

"From 4 p. m. to 'taps' is the most pleasant part of the day in camp. Just before sundown the regimental parades occur, when 2,000 men appear on the drill ground in uniform. At 6 o'clock the coal black coffee is served. By 7 o'clock the bands are ready to give their concerts. The Fort Wayne and Marion bands played Monday night, while hundreds of young soldiers lay on the ground about them. When 'taps' is sounded the camp becomes very quiet. The soldiers are sung to sleep by the tree toads and all of the troops, the 'shirkers' excepted, are glad for an opportunity to crawl into their mess tents to rest on their racks of straw.

"Adjt. Gen. Robbins, the hero of four wars—the rebellion, Cannelton, Roby and Hammond—says this encampment is an unusual one in its attendance. By changes in the law the membership of each company has been increased to a limit of eighty six men. Some of the companies have the full number and many run to seventy or seventy-five.

"Everybody at the state house was out of humor with the state militia Monday morning. About 500 soldiers slept on the floors of the capitol Saturday night, because of the rain. The building was a sight when the janitors started to work with mops. It seemed that every soldier chewed tobacco and did not strike a cuspidor all the time they were in the capitol. Mud had been tracked in and it will take the half dozen janitors two or three days to cleanse the first and second floors. Twenty-four half pint and eighteen pint bottles were found in nooks and corners."

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Whiteman, of No. 35 East Butler street, a son.

Yesterday at 11 o'clock, at the Wabash depot, Expressman John Brown liberated four young homing pigeons for Alford Fury, of Logansport. They all flew south on Calhoun street and then started due west towards the home cote.

The new wheel for the police station arrived at headquarters this morning. It is a beauty. The frame is a pretty shade of blue and the general make-up of the bike is very attractive. It is a "Royal," made at Marshall, Mich., and sold by Stager & Gouty.

The Misses Anna and Lizzie Welch have returned to their home at Danville, N. Y., after a pleasant visit of two weeks with their uncle, John Welch, of West Creighton avenue. They were accompanied on their return by Mr. Walter Welch, who will be their guest for several weeks.

Yesterday afternoon Superintendent of Police Liggett and Lieutenant Lapp took a pair of scales from a rag buyer which had been so arranged that it took twenty-four pounds to draw the indicator down to the eight pound point. No arrest was made, but if the offense is repeated something will be heard to drop.

Last evening fully 500 people attended the lawn festival given at Centlivre's park by the Singing society of the Saengerbund. The Fort Wayne cornet band furnished instrumental music and the Singing society gave a number of vocal selections. The grove was lighted by electric lights. A number of addresses were made and refreshments served.

The ladies of Simpson church will give a "Blue Jay" social next Friday evening at the church.

Mrs. Maud Pollock, of No. 71 Dawson street, who has been lying at the point of death, is somewhat better today.

Mrs. Nicholas Farrington and children, of Chicago, are visiting the lady's mother, Mrs. Woodworth, of Melita street.

Frank McBennett returned to Bay City, Mich., last evening, after visiting his parents in this city for several weeks.

Attorney and Mrs. T. E. Ellison left for Boston last evening for a visit. Mr. Ellison will also attend to some important legal business in that city.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Calvary U. B. church will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Allen Bowser, at her home on East Creighton avenue.

Hon. Edward O'Rourke was at Decatur yesterday, where he presided at a convention of the blue lodge of Masons, which conferred the third degree on four candidates.

The following are the scores made yesterday by the regular league base ball teams: Cincinnati 3, New York 7; Pittsburg 5, Baltimore 4; St. Louis 8, Boston 10; Chicago 9, Brooklyn 8; Cleveland 4, Washington 8.

Yesterday a Fort Wayne citizen called at Dreier's drug store and asked to have a number of fine pearls weighed. He had found them in some mussels taken from the Maumee river. One pearl weighed seventy-two grains.

Misses Amelia Renaud and Margaret Wilson, the guests of Miss Velma Ohneck, of this city, will leave today for Detroit. Miss Ohneck will accompany the young ladies on the trip, and will spend some time in Detroit, the guest of Miss Renaud, who resides in that city.

Mrs. Ella Thieme, janitress at the city hall, put all the policemen to blush on the excursion by catching a five and one-half pound alligator, gar. It was the largest fish caught at Rome city that day. Mrs. Thieme brought it home and gave it to a taxedermist to have mounted.

Andrew J. Keller, the well known Broadway pharmacist, has decided to occupy the corner room in the new Lau building and will also continue to conduct his place on Broadway. Mr. Keller will furnish his new Calhoun street store in elegant style and make it one of the finest establishments in the city.

The street car company has a large force of men at work on their track from the St. Joe bridge, on Spy Run, to the driving park. They are putting down sixty-pound rails. It will take several days yet before the work is completed, after which the entire system will have been provided with heavy rails, and no more work of this nature will be done.

Last evening the directors of the city Y. M. C. A. postponed action in the matter of the resignation of Secretary McCaughey. That gentleman was before the board and stated that the reasons of his tendering his resignation were of entirely a personal nature. Considerable discussion followed but the matter was put off for a full attendance of the board.

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Miss Loretta Martin, in which games and music were the features of the afternoon and evening. The guests were Ellen C. Gallegher, Kaddie M. McCaffery, Nellie B. Dalton, Mary Mulharen, Lizzie Taylor, Nora Ilbanen, Mary Barnes, Mary Ryan, Nellie Woulf, Cecelia Bear, Katie Gallegher, Agnes Coolican, Julia Hogan, Florence Hughes, Emma Hughes, Mary Detrick, Anna Hayes, Master James Creigh.

A few weeks ago Miss Lily Vordermark, daughter of Henry Vordermark, of Maumee avenue, went to Toledo to visit relatives. Yesterday word was received in this city that she had been married in Toledo to S. D. Zeis, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne, but now in the collection business in Toledo. The marriage was kept a profound secret, but leaked out last evening when the young lady did not return home to attend a party to be given in her honor. This morning her father and brother said they new nothing of the affair, and would not believe the marriage to have taken place.

A well known Fort Wayne physician unconsciously made himself the center of a great deal of attention yesterday and came near being arrested in the bargain. The physician was called to Butler street by an obstetrical case, which required his attention nearly the entire day. He left his horse hitched to the post in front of the residence. After the animal had stood there three or four hours, some of the women in the neighborhood began to be concerned and notified the police that a horse "looking as though it had been driven all night had been standing hitched for several hours." The police forthwith notified the humane officer and he in turn hunted up the doctor. What the physician's feelings were when the officer of the law knocked at the door can best be imagined, at any rate he laughed at the ridiculousness of the thing later on. He informed the officer that the good ladies were unnecessarily concerned and that he usually treated his horse humanely, but the necessity of the present case left him no other alternative but to let the horse stand.

Mrs. B. P. Smith, of Douglas avenue, is quite ill.

Miss Grace Lukens is visiting friends in southern Ohio.

There were three cases on trial at police court this morning, all drunks. John Barry, George Long and William Johnson. Barry was arrested on Gay street for abusing his family, by Officer Richardson. He was fined $2 and costs. The other two prisoners were arrested yesterday by Officer Hines. They were fined $1 and costs each.

His Little Joke.

A dapper young man with two big square satchels of the variety usually carried by commercial salesmen stopped on a city hall corner to get a drink of cherry phosphate.

He placed the satchels at his feet, pulled a penny from his pocket and dropped it in the slot of the machine. Then as he raised the glass to his lips a man darted quickly up behind him, seized one of the satchels and ran around the corner with it.

When the dapper young man had finished his drink, he discovered his loss.

"Police! Police!" he yelled.

Then he rushed around the corner and saw a man hurrying away with the satchel. Immediately he ran after him, calling:

"Stop thief! Stop thief!"

In two minutes half the pedestrians on the walk were chasing the man with the satchel, and it wasn't long before he was caught, gasping and breathless.

When the dapper young man, who had lost his hat in the chase, arrived, he threw up both hands in amazement.

"Why, Jones!" he exclaimed.

The man who had run with the satchel looked down sheepishly. A policeman had just seized him roughly by the collar.

"Yes, Sam," he said, laughing feebly, "I've got your satchel. Thought I'd play a little practical joke on you. Wanted to frighten you."

The dapper young man explained to the policeman that Jones was his employer, Jones of Binks & Smith, wholesale jewelers, but both the men were compelled to get out their cards and papers to prove the case before the policeman would let them go.

And when they were free they went back to the place near the phosphate machine, where the dapper young man had left the other satchel.

It was gone.

There was $300 worth of jewelry in it.

Mr. Jones will not soon play another practical joke.—Chicago Record.

Mrs. O'Leary wanted to be forgotten, but the world, or Chicago—and Chicagoans consider the terms synonymous—would not have it that way. It is thus that some poor, shrinking souls have celebrity thrust upon them. Peace to Mrs. O'Leary's ashes.—New York Sun.

THE STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Improvements Making With Money Appropriated By Legislature.

The state benevolent, reformatory and penal institutions will soon have completed the improvements authorized by the last legislature. In speaking of these improvements the Indianapolis News says:

"Two wings are being added to the northern hospital for the insane, at Logansport. One of these is for men, the other for women. There will be accommodations for forty-two persons in each. The foundation walls for the additions are building. The cost will be $10,000 each.

"The improvements at the eastern hospital for the insane, at Richmond, consist of a big general kitchen, two large dining rooms and a large store room for supplies, and employes' quarters. The legislature appropriated $50,000 for buildings and the necessary increase in the heating plant. The scheme for increasing the capacity of this institution is to abandon most of the dining rooms in the cottages, and have the patients eat in the large dining rooms. The rooms in the cottages that have been used for dining rooms and kitchens will be converted into living rooms. It is believed that the capacity of the institution will be increased about 100. The worst class of patients will continue to take their meals in the cottages.

"The Southern Hospital for the Insane received an appropriation of $30,000 for improvements, but plans for the addition have not yet been adopted.

"The Home for the Feeble Minded got $30,000 for the purchase of land and for improvements. The trustees have bought a farm of 225 acres, which makes 310 acres now owned by the institution. The land cost about $20,000 The trustees are building a large addition to the hospital. The old hospital was built when the capacity of the home was only 350. There are now over 500 children in the home, and the hospital is much too small. About $10,000 will be invested in the hospital building and equipment.

"At the state prison south seventy-two cells are being constructed for the accommodation of those prisoners that do not have a decent place to sleep. The prison officers say that this addition is very small as compared with what is needed. There are over 600 prisoners and not near enough cells for them.

"The state prison north got $5,000 for improvements. This money is being used in putting on some new roof and in other repairs.

"The reform school for boys, by authority from the legislature, has purchased another farm of 195 acres, making a total of 420 acres now owned by the institution.

"The reform school for girls and woman's prison got from the legislature $5,000, with which to put in new boilers, and the money is being expended for the purpose designated. The new boilers are much larger than the old ones. The trustees of the institution are also having a large veranda built along the front of the building.

"The other state institutions did not succeed in getting from the legislature any money for betterments."

Social of Lady Maccabees at the Home of Mrs. J. W. Hippenhammer.

The Fort Wayne hive, No. 6, of the Ladies of Maccabees gave a social and entertainment last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hippenhammer, 17 Breckinridge street, which was attended by nearly one hundred ladies and gentlemen. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served from 8:30 to 11 o'clock and an interesting musical and literary program was rendered. It consisted of a violin and piano duet rendered by the Misses Ethel and Etta Hill, recitations by Miss Josie Ropp, Miss Blanche Hippenhammer and Miss Sadie Chambers, and an instrumental and vocal selection by Eylin and Blanche Hippenhammer. The social was a most pleasant one indeed and proved Mrs. Hippenhammer to be a most charming entertainer. These socials are given every few weeks by the Fort Wayne hive, which is increasing rapidly in membership, so Miss Ferguson, one of the officers, tells THE SENTINEL, since they have been granted a special dispensation from the supreme hive to receive new members without the initiation fee.

JOY FROM LOSS.

Sam Fishman Parts With an Old Companion.

The Shaker Doctor, now at the Rich hotel, this morning removed from S. Fishman a monster parasite which the reporter saw in the doctor's rooms. The monster is in a tangle which shows that it made herculean efforts to resist the medicine.

The following statement explains itself:

"It is with great pleasure that I make this statement. I have been a great sufferer for the past nine years from stomach troubles, which have interferred with my earning a living for my family. I have been doctored many times by different doctors, who all said I could not be cured. I heard the Shaker Doctor talk last Saturday night I called on him Sunday, and to my great surprise, he told me that I had a tape worm, which I could not believe at the time. I called on him this morning and he gave me one dose of his Shaker Herbs, and to my great surprise and joy, it removed a monster worm, head and all, in less than three hours, without sickness, pain or inconvenience of any kind, and I will say, God bless the Shaker Doctor and the medicine he sells.

The Elkhart Truth says: "E. W. Quackenbush, state manager of the U. B. Mutual Aid society of Pennsylvania, for Indiana, of Fort Wayne, is in the city today."

The Kendallville Sun says: "Messrs. Myers and Blitz, of Fort Wayne, were guests of the Misses Emma and Julia Wehmeyer—Misses Minnie and Lillie Nestel, of Fort Wayne, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs John Foehl."

The Wabash Plain Dealer says: "Mrs. Wallace Kendall and children, of Fort Wayne, arrived in the city today on a visit to relatives."

The Bluffton News says: "A new oil company, composed of A. B. Trentman, William Harley, James T. Trant, Stephen Fleming and Clark Croninger, Fort Wayne capitalists, has been organized to drill for oil on the Ford farm in the south part of the county."

Correction.

Editor SENTINEL:

We notice, in last evening's issue of your paper, an article copied from the Decatur Democrat, stating Mr. David L. Meyers, of said place, had bought an interest in our business.

We wish to state that the above is wholly a mistake. Mr. Meyers' son is going to work for us and, if we can, we will give the father work; this is all there is of it.

Respectfully yours,
